

WITH THE GREAT WAR VETERANS Items of Interest to Returned Soldiers Will Be Printed in This Column if Phoned or Sent In.

OFFICERS ENDORSE LIBERTY LEAGUE Seventy-Fifth Battalion Approve Its Aims, and Make Contribution.

All the returned soldiers throughout the Dominion and especially those in Toronto, are looking forward with great eagerness to the arrival of General Sir Arthur Currie in the city. They seem to feel that when he arrives they will have a leader, indeed, who will be able to put before the Ottawa authorities and the government their grievances and demand with a force, as present lack of their prompt solution and readjustment. They look to him to lead them in Canada as he led them at the front.

LOOK FOR BODIES AT PORT COLBORNE Remains of Two Men Still Uncovered—Four of Victims Are Buried.

St. Catharines, Aug. 11.—The death list of Saturday's elevator disaster at Port Colborne, tonight still remains the same. All efforts to recover the two missing bodies of Alfred Beck and Sidmond Dunlap, included in the ten, were unsuccessful. Relays of rescue gangs are keeping the work in continuance in pumping grain and water out of the hold of the barge Quebec and in clearing away more of the concrete and steel wreckage. The condition of S. Moutch, one of the burned members of the same train, went the body of Joseph Latour, brother of the captain.

HEAVY FINE FOR B.O.T.A. Max Ackerman, who, under the camouflage of a wallpaper business, sold liquor instead, received a fine of $100 and costs in the police court yesterday.

SENTENCED FOR ROBBERY. Edward Flett received a sentence of 60 days at the jail farm in the police court yesterday for robbing Henry Messenger. Flett had stolen up behind Messenger and had gone coolly thru his pockets, but he got only nine cents for his trouble.

ANOTHER LIQUOR SEIZURE. Three boxes of whiskey, marked "paint," and consigned to the Dominion Paint Works, city, were seized by Provincial Detective A. Corriar on the C. P. R. tracks near the Union Station yesterday. The liquor was refused by the Dominion Paint people, who disclaimed all knowledge of the Standard Paint Co. also denied the stuff.

ELEVATOR FOR TORONTO. According to Mayor Church, efforts to have the federal government erect an elevator in Toronto will be maintained. It is understood that steps will be taken urging the government to transfer the site of the one destroyed by the explosion at Port Colborne to this city.

FARM LABORERS' EXCURSION, CANADIAN NATIONAL RYS. Immediate employment available in western harvest fields. Special train from Toronto Union Station, via Canadian National Railways, Tuesday, August 19th. Full particulars from City Ticket Office, 63 King street east and Union Station, Toronto.

ALLEGED MOTOR THEIVES. Frank Rogers and John Murphy, who are charged with stealing a motor belonging to the police, were committed for trial without plea or election in the police court yesterday.

CONVICTED ON BOTH CHARGES. Max Williams, a colored waiter, charged with having a loaded revolver in his possession and a bottle of whiskey, received a fine of $25 and costs for the revolver, which was confiscated, and an additional fine of $203 for the bottle.

STOLE SOLDIER'S BUTTON. Henry Bastine, charged with stealing a returned soldier's active service button, received a sentence of three months at the hands of Magistrate Denison in the police court yesterday.

VIADUCT ROADWAY. Unless something unforeseen happens, G. G. Powell, deputy city engineer, stated yesterday that the temporary roadbed between Parliament and Sherbourne streets will be ready in time for the Exhibition.

DECLINES POSITION. A. F. Bruce Clark of R.C. University, Vancouver, and an old Toronto boy, has been offered the professorship at Bowdoin College, Maine, but has declined to stay in Vancouver where he will be promoted to associate professor in French next year.

LAVOIE'S DEATH STILL A MYSTERY Coroner's Jury Still Trying to Find Out the Cause.

The next morning he saw Lavoie, who had a black eye, and in answer to a question Lavoie said he did not know how he had been injured. Lavoie said he had got Percy Kennedy's coat.

PECULIAR COINCIDENCE Neighbors Tell What Occurred on Night of the Debauch.

Some remarkable evidence touching on the death of Norman Francis Lavoie following a supposed struggle on Empire avenue, was given last night before Coroner W. J. McCollum and a jury. After hearing a number of witnesses it was decided to adjourn the hearing until the coroner taking the view that the evidence was important and should not be unduly hurried.

CHANGED ATTITUDE TOWARD RUMANIANS Peace Conference Feels They Must Remain in Hungary to Steady Situation.

Paris, Aug. 11.—The peace conference, it became known today, is changing entirely its attitude toward Rumania. It is learned, is not disposed to ask the Rumanians to leave the Hungarian capital immediately. The fact that the last prime inter-allied council asked the Rumanians not to enter Budapest.

WON MILITARY MEDAL. Sidmond Dunlap, whose body has not yet been recovered, just one year ago Saturday, at the battle of Amiens, won the Military Medal for conspicuous bravery. He had been wounded twice, and arrived home only four months ago last night. His enlistment in the 93rd Highlanders in 1915. He was the chief support of a widowed mother. Today preliminary efforts were made towards salvaging the grain in the elevator.

ALL CARTAGE RATES TO BE INCREASED. Word was received at the freight offices of the local railways yesterday, that there to be a general increase all over the country in the scale of cartage rates. The Toronto rates are to be raised on Sept. 4, and the increase is 4c per cent. on cartage lots and 6c on less than cartage lots. In other cities similar increases have been decided on by the Canadian National Railways, the C.P.R., and the Grand Trunk. The reason for the rise is declared to be the higher cost of help and the shorter hours given to the carters.

BOY RAN OFF SIDEWALK; MOTOR CAR BREAKS RIBS. Peter Adams, aged 6, of 1465 West Dundas street, received a number of broken ribs, and is feared concussion of the brain, when he was struck on Dundas street yesterday by the motor car driven by Dr. L. J. Solway, 410 West Dundas street. The lad was rushed to the Western Hospital, where it was stated last night that his condition was very grave.

JOLTED OFF MOTOR TRUCK. William Harvey, aged 10, 740 West Queen street, received a fracture of the right arm and a number of scalp wounds when he was jolted off the back of a motor truck and the foot of Bay street yesterday. Albert E. Tilley, 35 Manning avenue, the driver of the truck, was taken to the hospital for his injuries. The motor car, and the doctor was not held.

Warden of Portsmouth Prison May Take Up Ottawa Post. Special to The Toronto World, Kingston, Aug. 11.—Robert R. Creighton, warden of Portsmouth Penitentiary, who is at present on a month's leave of absence, may not continue in that position, according to report. It is stated that he wishes to retire and that he may take his former position as auditor in the office of the superintendent of penitentiaries at Ottawa.

Senate Appointment Story Is News to Dr. C. W. Edwards. Kingston, Aug. 11.—That's the first I heard of it," said Dr. C. W. Edwards, M. P., when asked this morning about an rumor sent out from Ottawa that he intended to resign his seat in the house of commons and to stand for election in the senate, and that Sir Henry Drayton would contest Frontenac.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—Approximately 255 meat cutters and butchers of Ottawa and Hull will be on strike from seven o'clock tomorrow morning; members of local No. 628, Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butchers of America, at a meeting in St. Ann's Hall this evening, voting 97 per cent. in favor of a strike. About 60 per cent. of the men going out are employees of the Matthews-Blackwell packing plant in Hull, the other 40 per cent. being employed in Ottawa and Hull retail meat shops. The schedule demanded by the men is $95 for class one men, which embraces foremen, $32 for class two men, capable of taking charge of one department of a shop, and $18 a week for apprentices.

CHAIRMAN NOT CHOSEN. Fred Bancroft, representing the men employed by the Toronto Electric Power Company at Niagara and W. H. Moore, manager of the York Radial Electric Company, representing the Toronto Electric, met yesterday to select a chairman to preside over the board of conciliation sanctioned by the government to enquire into the scale of wages paid to the men and other grievances. No decision had been arrived at, however, up to a late hour yesterday.

IRON MOLDERS URGED TO SETTLE TROUBLES. An important meeting of the Iron Molders' Union was held last night in the Labor Temple to consider some recent complaints from the metal workers, that unless the molders come to a settlement with the employers, there would be an early suspension of work, as castings were running short. The molders fully considered the matter, and in advising their representatives to get into communication with the employers, with a view to trying to effect a settlement.

LABOR CONFERENCE POSTPONED FOUR DAYS. National Industrial Convention Will Be Held in Ottawa, September 15, Instead of September 11.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—The national industrial convention, which was to have opened here on September 11 for the purpose of considering trade relations, labor laws and labor conditions has been postponed until September 15. This step has been rendered necessary owing to the fact that on the date arranged for, the Central Canada Exhibition will be running and parliament will be in session. The management is unable to secure hotel accommodation for the delegates.

CARPENTERS' UNION. MOLDERS TURN DOWN OFFER OF INCREASE. An offer by the John Inglis Company of 70c per hour for a 48-hour week to the molders was turned down yesterday. Another offer of 65c per hour for a 48-hour week met the same fate.

PROCLAMATION. Visit of His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales. Thomas L. Church, Esquire, Mayor of Toronto: Whereas the President and Members of the Board of Directors of the Canadian National Exhibition have requested that the afternoon of Monday, August 25th, be set apart as a half-day to enable the citizens of Toronto to do honor to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Monday Afternoon, Aug. 25, 1919. PUBLIC HALF HOLIDAY. And respectfully request the Citizens to join in the observance of the same.

Decorations. The Citizens throughout the length and breadth of the City are further respectfully requested to join in decorating and illuminating their residences and places of business in honor of the occasion.

God Save the King. Mayor's Office, Toronto, August 12th, 1919.

ORDER FORM. Have The Morning World mailed or delivered to your home regularly every day.

Name Post Office Street Send The Morning World to the above address for month for which find enclosed $... Rates Per Day—2 cents the copy. Delivered by carrier, one year, $5.00; in advance, a saving of $1.25; 6 mo., $2.50; 3 mo., $1.25; a saving of 21 cents; one mo., 50c a saving of 2 cents. In addition to this saving you will receive service that will deliver the paper to your home every morning before 7 o'clock.

Rates—By mail, one year, $4.00; 6 mo., $2.00; 3 mo., $1.00; one mo., 40c. Carrier delivered, maintained in Toronto, Hamilton and Brantford.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

"It looks like defeat, but it was the greatest victory the workers of this country ever had," said Mrs. Helen Armstrong of Winnipeg in reviewing the strike that city at a meeting in Queen's Park last night, under the auspices of the Women's Labor League. She is one of the women arrested in Winnipeg in connection with the labor troubles, and was particularly sore on the police for invading her home in the small hours of the morning, when she was only wearing a light gown. There was a large gathering at the meeting, and the best of order prevailed.

NO WRITS ISSUED YET AGAINST LABOR MAN Charges Against O'Leary and Hevey Surrounded by Mystery.

James G. Merrick, secretary to the Toronto Employers' Association, returned to the city yesterday and has been kept busy answering questions in regard to the charges brought last Thursday evening at the Labor Temple by James Simpson against A. E. O'Leary and W. J. Hevey, accusing them of requesting General Gunn to ask the Employers' Association to provide funds to run a labor journal.

IRON MOLDERS URGED TO SETTLE TROUBLES. An important meeting of the Iron Molders' Union was held last night in the Labor Temple to consider some recent complaints from the metal workers, that unless the molders come to a settlement with the employers, there would be an early suspension of work, as castings were running short.

LABOR CONFERENCE POSTPONED FOUR DAYS. National Industrial Convention Will Be Held in Ottawa, September 15, Instead of September 11.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.

LABOR NEWS WAS VICTORY, NOT DEFEAT, FOR LABOR Winnipeg Industrial Upheaval Explained by Woman Leader.