DR. JESSOP BADLY HURT. The Newly-Elected Member for Lincoln

Had an Unfortunate Experience While Attending to His Buties. St. Catharines, March 18.—To-night, as Dr. Jessop, the newly-elected M.L.A., was driving rapidly along Welland-avenue, having been attending to his professional duties, his house became frightened, and he was thrown some distance out of his rig, striking on his shoulder very heavily. He St. Catharines, March 18.-To-night, as was thrown some distance out of his rig, striking on his shoulder very heavily. He was picked up unconscious and bleeding profusely, and conveyed to his home, where it was found his collar-bone was broken and his back badly injured. His head has also some bad cuts. Some children playing ball in the road were the cause of the horse taking fright. The doctor has since regained consciousness, and is resting as easily as can be expected.

The grand jury, at the Sessions will make their presentment on Monday and sentences on the convicted prisoners will be given.

The analysis of the formulation of the community, and not for sale, may be admitted free of duty. The annual meeting of the Presbyterian Home Mission Committee will be held in St. Andrew's Church on Tuesday next, when appointments will be made of missionaries for Canada for the next six months.

Before trying, people generally are incredulous about a dental operation that "won't hurt." Particularly is this true of extraction. The nervousness-the apprehension-the look of surprise when it is all over-the frequent question, "Is it really out?" makes us feel almost as grateful as the patient to modern science for methods of extracting teeth without

The Iroquois Water. Dr. Bryce, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, went to Iroquois yesterday of business relating to the water supply of that town. Not long ago an Iroquois physician wrote to the department that the water was "not fit to bathe in, let alone use for drinking." It is alleged that through a break in the water main the water supplied was being taken from the Williamsburg Canal, instead of from the St. Lawrence River.

Yesterday Barrister T. L. Ohurch applied for a certificate of acquittal in the case of George Cochrane, who was discharged a few days ago on a petty charge of stealing $2 worth of wood. This is the first application of this kind that has been made at the Criminal Sessions. The request was granted, but Cochrane will have to pay for it.

Tuesday's Sale.

The most important auction sale of Art Furniture and Draperies ever held in this city will be held at the warerooms of the Toronto Furniture Supply Company, No. 56 and 58 King-street west (next to Mail building), on Friday evening, 25th March, commencing at 11 o'clock, The reputation enjoyed by this company as dealers in high-class furniture and draperies is a sufficient guarantee. Mr. Charles M. Henderson will conduct the sale,

House next week, when what the management is pleased to term a "cup rate" matinee will be given daily, when, for 15 cents, admission and a seat may be had in any part of the theatre to see "Uncle Tom's Cabin." This move is in find with the many other interesting and, to the public, beneficial ones that the management of the Toronto has originated and carried to a successful issue. In this case it is the wish to prove to the public that a really excellent performance of this famous old play can be given at a figure tow enough to enable every man, woman and child in Toronto to witness it. The presenting company is under the direction of Mr. John F. Stowe, a nephew of the late Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, and comprises about fifty peope, including two brass bands and a pickaminny drain corps. The organization travel in a special train of their own. Seats are now on sale for all of the twelve performances to be given, during the engagement.

The Cummings Stock Company will present Belasco's pretty comedy drama at the Princess Theatre next week, for the first that this well-known success has been done in Toronto in several years. Miss Bertha Creighton will appear in the title role, with Mr. Ralph Cummings as Dave Hardy, the leading role. "Esmeralda" is a very pretty comedy, and an especialy attractive staging is promised. Next week begins the last month of this company's engagement in this city.

At St. George's Hall.

The dramatic class of the School of Expression, under the direction of Dr. H. A. Carlyle, gave an excellent entertainment in St. George's Hall, Elm-street, Thursday, consisting of three pretty and amusing plays, "One Touch of Nature," "The Irish Tiger" and "Slasher and Crasher." The casts of the pieces included Miss Irene Ritchle, Miss Mabel Dalby, Miss O'Keefe, Miss Frances Cassidy, Dr. Carlyle, Mr. Percy Deane, Mr. Harrold, Mr. Lawrence Anthens and Mr. Shepard, all of whom displayed considerable talent in their respective parts, In the intermissions Miss Ethel Husband, pupil of Mr. F.
