OPENING OF STOCK YARDS TO-MORROW

Fisheries Inspector Will Compel Mill Owners on Humber River to Build Sluiceways.

Toronto Junction, May 6 .- A recital was given in the College of Music Hall to-night by Miss Bertha Brooks, assisted by W. J. A. Carnahan, the wellknown baritone singer, and the Misses Wynn and Semple. Miss Brooks gave the allegro movement from Beethoven's sonata Op. 7 and Schubert's impromptu in E flat. W. J. A. Carnahan sang "King of the Sea," "A War Song," and the "Hungarian Love Song." Miss Ethel Wynn recited "Old Pickett's Will," and Miss Semple gave "Preparng for Company."
The president and directors of the Union Stock Yards Company have issued a large number of invitations to the inaugural dinner at the opening of the stock yards on Thursday. Temporary roofs have been put over the pens destroyed by fire last week, and extra men have been put on to make the arrangements complete. the arrangements complete. A team of bay horses, costing the town $325, arrived from Highfield this morning for use in No. 2 fire hall.

MACHINISTS DISCUSS WAGE SCALE

T. W. Capp Co., one of thet wo firms where the men are out. Mr. Capp offers to reinstate the discharged employe and to adopt a working schedule of 52 hours a week. He further says that if the other jewelry manufacturers will adopt a working week of 49 hours he will do the same. It is likely that Mr. Capp's proposition will be accepted, and, if it is, fully 40 of the 80 strikers will return to work.

The last to discuss higher wages are the members of the International Association of Machinists. They met last night, and while no definite action was taken, it is understood that they will soon request a higher scale. At present they receive 20c an hour and work ten hours a day. At the meeting 12 new members were initiated.

At the meeting of the Architectural and Structural Iron Workers' Union in Richmond Hall last night, 4t was deceased to send for C. O. Sherman, secretary of the International Union, who is located in Chicago. Mr. Sherman will be asked to bring about a settlement between the men and the bosses. A committee was appointed to wait on the bosses, the conference to be held to-day. A special meeting will be held to-day. A special meeting will be held to-day. A special meeting will be held to-day as demanded 27 1-2c.

Our sale of Remnant Oddments continues Thursday. New additions to the list of yesterday-odd things at little prices all through the store.

We told of the spring house-cleaning preparations yesterday. We find it impossible to clear up everything in a day. The sale will continue to-morrow, with the following additions: Remnants, broken sizes, balances of lines and oddments from nearly every department, marked for quick clearance at fractional prices.

Discontinued Clothing

Men's $9.00 Suits, Thursday, $4.50. That's just half price. Half our remarkably close regular price. These suits look high-priced. You'd judge them to range as high as twelve dollars. They represent our fastest-selling lines. Sold so fast that the maker has run out of material. Can't repeat, and has, therefore, discontinued them. This is no ordinary bargain lot. Our expert buyer was so very right in his choice of cut and cloth they sold double quick. Taking the assortment together, there are no sizes wanting. We'll fit you, and you'll have choice of several patterns.

269 Men's Suits, English, Canadian and Scotch Tweeds, nw stylish spring goods, the pick of the markets in quality of material and design, fawn and grev stripes, dark greys and browns, in checks and overplaids, complete ranges of sizes, cut in the latest single-breast sacque style. lined with good Italian cloth, perfect fitting, regular $6.50, $7.50, $8, $9, 4.50 sizes 34 to 44.....(See Yonge Street Window).
