QUALITY OF FUEL WAS SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION

ST. THOMAS, Nov. 5.—Some discussion arose at the meeting of the council tonight as to the question of the quality of the fuel being handed out at the local fuel yards. Alderman Slogett and some of the other members of the council objected to the quality of wood. Ald. Slogett said that one load that he saw being delivered was a perfect specimen of firewood, but he said there were others that were not as good. It was, however, finally decided that the price be reasonable, and that no complaint could be made under existing conditions governing fuel.
