BERT LYTELL IN "LOMBARDI, LTD.," AT THE GRAND TODAY

Five Vaudeville Acts—"Fatty" Arbuckle Comedy, Another Film Feature, Completes Bill.

As its special feature attraction, the Grand will present "Lombardi, Ltd.," the Screen Classic, Inc., super-production, with Bert Lytell as the star, for a run of four days, commencing at today's matinee. "Lombardi, Ltd.," variously described as a fashion show, a girl show and a highly diverting comedy of the screen, with the star in the unusual and interesting role of a male model. Most of the action transpires in the swapper Fifth Avenue dressmaking establishment of "Tito Lombardi," an eccentric Italian genius whose artistic tendencies exceed his business acumen, and who finds himself in dire straits and facing bankruptcy because his faith in human nature has made him too "easy" with defuncting customers. "Lombardi, Ltd.," is a comedy, and it is a comedy of the first order. Other beautiful young women in the cast are Helen Talbot, Miss Jean Ackles, Virginia Caldwell, Roda Madden and Patricia Lannan, the last three being gown models of the "perfect fit" variety. Joseph Kilgore, George McDaniel and John Stepping have the remaining supporting parts in the male contingent.

HEAVENLY FOLLIES THE HEADLINE ATTRACTION

"Some Body," the musical comedy, introduced as the headliner, and which has been cancelled owing to the order of the United States border forbidding United States citizens to enter Canada without being vaccinated. The management of the Grand have been particularly fortunate in securing in its stead an act that entered Canada before the order came into effect, and consequently will offer as its headline feature the first part of this week "The Juvenile Follies," an excellent, singing, dancing, comedy, and a most interesting ten talented children. This act is one of the most delightful and original now playing vaudeville, and is certain of an excellent reception with young and old alike.

Another prominent feature will be Alfred White and company, who will present "The Mirror."

Howard and Craddock are a team of colored comedians who offer some brand new comedy and the latest songs. The Jack Martin Trio, in a novelty dance offering, and George and Ray Perry, the "Jazz Band-Juists" from Fresno, will complete an all-feature bill.

"Jinx," by Shannon Pitt, is Mabel Normand's newest Goldwyn picture, to be seen at the Majestic Theatre, today, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The plot concerns an orphaned circus waif known as the Jinx (Mabel Normand), because she has supposedly brought hard luck to the traveling troupe. Her forlorn plight, her ignorance and awkwardness, and her kindly heart plunge the Jinx into situations which are highly ludicrous and full of novel comedy.

When the circus folks strike and desert the almost bankrupt show, the Jinx, because she feels responsible for the catastrophe, tries to keep the performance going by taking the place of the septuagena dancer. This is the final calamity, as the Jinx cannot dance. She is pursued by an irate manager, and finds refuge in an orphan's home, where her cup of happiness is filled. HOSPITAL PATIENTS SHOULD BE PLACED IN CITY SHELTERS

Supt. Heard Claims Refuge Case Cause of Congestion At Victoria.

According to a report made to the board of Victoria Hospital by Superintendent T. H. Heard, many of the patients being cared for in the institution have been crowded to the limit during the past week. The congestion is due to the fact that half the patients being cared for in the public wards are either incurables or refuse cases. They are at Victoria for the simple reason that there is no other place to take them to.

"There are not enough homes or shelters in the city, and although they have recovered from the sickness for which they were entered, these patients have no place to go to if we do discharge them. It is true that some of them have relatives in the city, but their relatives do not seem willing to do anything for them. There are many who have no friends," the superintendent said.

Expenditures Double Receipts. According to the report for the month of October, which was read and adopted, 315 patients were admitted and 346 discharged. There were 19 births and 17 deaths. The free dispensary treated 252 cases. The cash receipts were $7,776.25, and the bills passed on to be paid amounted to $17,964.85.

The usual grant of $100 for Christmas cheer was made by the trustees. Regular routine business was attended to. Col. W. M. Garsshore, G. C. Gunn, J. W. Laidlaw and T. H. Heard were present.

DACHSHUND GAINS 'SPUDS' BY DISPLAY OF 'KULTUR'

Belleville, Ill., Nov. 23.—Severin Gundlach is one bushel of potatoes to the good as a result of a highly typical display of Kultur on the part of his dachshund.

A farmer came along with a wagon-load of potatoes, and Gundlach decided to take twenty bushels. If the farmer would carry them to the cellar, which was agreed. The farmer wasn't so much on figures, so in order to keep track of the number every time he carried a bushel down he laid a potato on the sidewalk.

After he had carried a while he stopped, mopping his brow, and surveyed the row of potatoes on the sidewalk with a troubled eye.

"That dachshund of yours is growin' much," he said, but he went on. Some time later he stopped again. Just then he caught sight of the dachshund rounding the corner with a potato in his mouth. He called Gundlach.

"That German dachshund of yours is stealin' my counters," he said. "I know I've put twenty bushels in that cellar." He could only count thirteen on the sidewalk, so he and Gundlach set out to trail the dachshund. They found six potatoes in various places, making nineteen. The farmer insisted that he had carried down twenty bushels, and Gundlach paid for that many under protest.

A trip on the River Niemen or on the Luna, taken on a log raft, rivals in excitement and novelty anything attempted before. The wooded shores and the shanty quaint huts, the boatman's shanty and the colorful costumes of the populace are some of the attractions.
