All Rendy for the Sale of Boxes Secretary Henry Wade of the Canadian. Horse Show has been busy receiving Secretary Henry wade of the Camanan. Horse Show has been busy receiving entries during the past two days, and already the number sent in has been sufficient to assure a remarkably fine display of high-class horses. Among the leading exhibitors who have so far sent in their lists are Senator Cochrane of Hillhurst, P.Q., A. S. Mackay of Shawville, P.Q., H. N. Crossley of Rosseau, the Royal Stables of Guelph and the Toronto Horse Exchange. Today is the last day for sending in etries, and there is likely to be a large number received. The boxes will be sold by auction to-morrow morning at Hyslop's Bicycle Emporium, 14 King-street east, at 11.30 o'clock. The reserve bid on each b x for the whole period of the show is $30, and if any should be left unsold, a box cannot be obtained afterwards for the whole period of the show, but can be purchased for separate performances only, which will bring the price considerably in excess of what it could be obtained for at the sale. The secretary is daily in receipt of letters from visitors from all over Canada and the United States who intend to be present.
