TERRIBLE WEATHER, TERRIBLE CONTEST

Grays Gives Leafs a Royal Trouncing With Swarm of Hits—Locals Make Errors.

Well, you are glad that the Leafs got that game of yesterday out of their system. It was a awful thing to be loaded up with. They totaled five nice juicy errors and two Toronto pitchers let the Providence Grays run an fifteen hits on them in six innings. It is needless to say that Providence won, 11 to 4. The most popular thing of the afternoon was when Umpire McBride called the game at the end of the six innings owing to rain and cold weather.

It was the most miserable day of the season to date. A regular gale blew from the east and it sprinkled rain most of the afternoon. It was believed a poor day for the fair sex. Our Tommy Thompson, leading pitcher of the local club, sacrificed his game to the Grays. He was hit for five runs in the first inning and was hit for five more in the second. He was hit for five more in the third and five more in the fourth. He was hit for five more in the fifth and five more in the sixth. He was hit for five more in the seventh and five more in the eighth. He was hit for five more in the ninth and five more in the tenth. GRAY'S AGAIN TODAY.

The fourth and final game in the Providence series will be played today. Peters will pitch for the Grays and either Thompson or Zabel for the Leafs. The game will be called at 2.15. Managers Lajoie and Will favor the Riverdale Senior with their patronage and support. A further organization meeting will be held at the R.C.B.C. rooms on Monday night, when final preparations for the coming season will be made. The league is now formed of Athletics, Royal Canadians, Nationals and Broadviews, and all four managers have full teams signed and will be ready for the bell next week.

Y.M.C.A. Senior League Reorganized at Riverdale

The Senior Baseball League, which was formerly the Y.M.C.A. Senior, has been reorganized as the Riverdale Senior League, and will hold its games on the Queen Alexandra School grounds, on Broadview avenue, opening up on May 19. Ex-Ald. Walton, Mr. Frank Johnson, Mr. P. Kennedy and Mr. Wm. Smith are behind the new league and will favor the Riverdale Senior with their patronage and support. A further organization meeting will be held at the R.C.B.C. rooms on Monday night, when final preparations for the coming season will be made. The league is now formed of Athletics, Royal Canadians, Nationals and Broadviews, and all four managers have full teams signed and will be ready for the bell next week.
