Grand Removal Sale Mailing Room Foreman Served Paper Faithfully for Twenty-Five Years.

> The World is today mourning the loss by death from pneumonia of one of the oldest members of its staff—James E. Gordon, foreman of the mailing room.

In elegant assortment of weaves, as Wool Gabardines, Chiffon Serges, Cheviots, Broadcloths, Velours, Trico-tines, Tweeds and Shepherd Checks. Included also is a fine display of cheviots. Broadcloths, Velours. Tricotines. Tweeds and Shepherd Checks. Included also is a fine display of solution of the description of the late Mr. Gordon, after training for his position with the old Empire, came to join The World mailing staff. His worth as a man and a faithful employe was soon recognized and it was not very long before he became foreman of the department. He was a born organizer and his knowledge of newspaper mailing work was unique. He seldom, if ever, had trouble in his room. He was as "white" to those under him as was as "white" to those under him as to those above him. He made many friends, and only friends, amongst his co-workers, and his death to them, as to the whole World staff, came as a great shock In plain colors and fancy stripes and checks in all colors.

Big reductions now offered on the balance of our stock of Ladies' Suits, Coats, Skirts, Serge Dresses, Jap Wadded Robes, Underskirts, Sweater Coats, Silk Waists, etc., etc.

The late Mr. Gordon, who lived at 164 Duchess street with his wife and one son, was taken ill with flu two weeks back. Pneumonia supervened, but he seemingly recovered from its effects and was reported on Wednesday to be much better and on the road to recovery. A relapse, however, occurred during the night and he passed peacefully away early yesterday morning.

Toronto's board of control yesterday nanaged to accomplish lots of business with little distraction and no recriminations. Among other things tenders were called for refreshment booths for the various parks, the object being to excert from Mayor Church and was given very favorable consideration every where. Alderman Beamish, chairman of the parks committee stated that plans to this end had already been begun.

The board was not too favorably disposed toward the project of purchasing the lold Base Hospital, for a new isolation hospital. Apparently the board of health had o.k'd the idea, but both Commissioner Bradshaw and Dr. Hastings indeed, rather favored a building outside the hum of the city, but Ald. Dr. Risk believed such a project impossible. Referring to the present site of the old General Hospital, Controller Gibons pointed out that it contai

Taking up the question of taxation it was reported that the tax rate for 1920 would necessarily be greater than that for 1919, but that it would not exceed 30 mills. The rate for 1919 was 28 mills.

Controller Cameron waxed wrathy at the reported amendments of the assessment legislation committee presented to the board for ratification. Bolshevism, premium on dishquesty and other pet terms emanated from him in profusion as he indignantly considered the recommendations proposed by Alderman Singer to make all builders declare the actual value of the erection of their new huildings. Controller Cameron was upheld in his contentions by both the mayor and Controller Maguire.

Representatives of the various bodies interested in the construction of the viaduct on the Esplanade will hold a special conference next Thursday to lay down a definite policy as to the terms upon which the Toronto Railway Terminals Company will be allowed to use the new station. Mayor Church stated yesterday afternoon that both the city and the harbor favored the viaduct, and that as soon as the railways showed the sincerity of their intentions the city would compromise as to the levels at the station.

Fire Chief Russell has presented estimates for rearly $1,000,000 for his department this year, as against $833.213 for 1919. As the department had bought the tug "Clark," Mr. Russell asked permission to charter the tug for the summer at the usual rate of $5000. The mayor believed that the city should buy a boat of its own. In the meantime the "Clark" is to be hired.

R. J. Fleming, redoubtable fighter for the interests of the Toronto Railway Company, yesterday urged the board of control to arbitrate immediately upon the purchase and operation of the rail-way or to buy the needed 200 cars and let the converse cheen. let the company operate them. Conferences with the civic officials will be held before the board considers any further action.

Dr. Hastings' estimates for 1920 are $700,000, or $150,000 in excess of those called for 1919. They are to be presented at tcday's session of the board of health. Even at the high figure of
