The old Organ or the old Piano

in many a home is an eyesore and an incumbrance. We will take it in part payment of a modern house than a Square Piano, that takes up a great deal of space, or a wheezy old

Organ that has long ceased to be useful. There are lots of homes that are ideally furnished otherwise, but that have an old dilapidated and often worthless musical instrument in the parlor. There is no reason at all why such an old instrument should be retained in the home, for we will take it in part payment for a new Upright Bell Piano, and arrange to receive the difference in very reasonable sums

We will tell you exactly what we can allow for the old instrument, and make prices and terms on the various styles of new ones. In short, we will arrange to take the old instrument immediately and put a new one in its place. All this can be done very simply, and without fuss or confusion; all that we require is your name and address on a postcard, or

If you will tell us where the old Piano or Organ can be seen, our representative will come to your house and make a valuation.

24 Q.—On what do you base your expectation?

A.—Well, I had not any expectation, only THE GOVERNMENT SAID THEY WERE SENDING PEOPLE DOWN HERE TO HELP RUN THE ELECTION.

25 Q.—Who said that?
A.—Mr. Stratton.
26 Q.—They said what?

They Would Be Responsible.

A.—THAT THEY WERE GOING TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR EVERYTHING. THAT ALL I HAD TO PAY WAS MY PERSONAL EXPENSES.

27 Q.—Now I will read paragraph 2 of the statement of claim. (Mr. Delahay reads paragraph 2). Having read paragraph 2 to you of the statement of claim, are the allegations in this paragraph rue or untrue?

A.—No, I do not think they are true; they did not have any authority to hire them.

28 Q.—You told me before that you knew they were being used by your supporters?

A.—Yes, at times.

A.—Yes. 30 Q.—Did you inquire at all by whose authority they were being used?

A.—No.

31 Q.—Were you approached by the plaintiffs at any time during the election as to their giving their horses and rigs out on your account, to people desiring them, to aid in your election?

A.—Yes, but that was away on in March.

32 Q.—After you had been nominated?
A.—Yes, and I paid that bill to Mr.

consider it a privilege if you will permit me to nominate His Worship the Mayor." This was greeted with prolonged applause and Mr. Larkin continued. "There is nothing I can say that will enhance his reputation one icta. The Conservative member for Centre Toronto (Mr. Brock) lately said that the proper school for a parliamentary career was the municipal council. I quite agree with that, and I offer to the electors of North Toronto a careful administrator of municipal affairs, both as an alderman and as mayor. He has held the latter position for two terms and I have yet to hear anyone say that he could not have a third term if he so desired. He will give to us such service as he has given the city, and we shall certainly send him to Ottawa, where he will prove a right arm to the strong men now in the federal government."

The nomination was seconded by J. Herbert Denton, who said they should put their strongest man in the field.

These other nominations quickly followed: George Anderson, R. C. Clute K.C., J. D. Allan, Edward Fielding, H. Dickenson, H. H. Dewart, K.C., Petc. Small, F. S. Spence. All promptly retired in favor of the mayor. George Anderson said if there was one man who could carry North Toronto, it was Mayor Urquhart. J. D. Allan said he would have been most proud to be the standard-bearer, but there was a much better man. He had lately returned from a visit to other countries where he had been struck by the prevailing depression which was not to be found in Canada. H. H. Dewart said they had before them a man with a record as an honest, upright civic administrator whom they should all support. E. Fielting urged the electors to work for the candidate.

A telegram was then read from Belleville, from A. B. Aylesworth, K.C., expressing his regret at being unable to
