

WHERE THE WILTON-AVENUE BRIDGE, NOW UNDER PRO CESSION OF CONSTRUCTION, WILL SPAN THE DON—THE LAYING OF THE BRIDGE'S FOUNDATIONS,

Filling in concrete, for foundations of the bridge, on west side of river.

Driving piles for the cribwork and concrete.

Point at which the bridge will cross, showing construction gangs at work on both sides of the river.

FULL OF YEARS AND READY FOR THE "HAPPY HUNTING GROUND." Oldest Indian in America. Aged Owen Sound chief has passed 105 mile-posts and is still vigorous and able to relate strange stories of Canada in her early days.

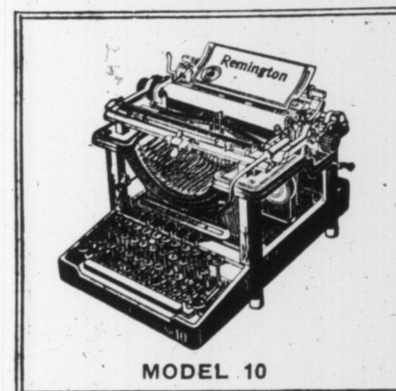

CHARMING YOUNG ELOCUTIONIST Miss Olive Irene White of Shaw St., Who Bids Fair to Achieve Success in the Elocutionary Art.

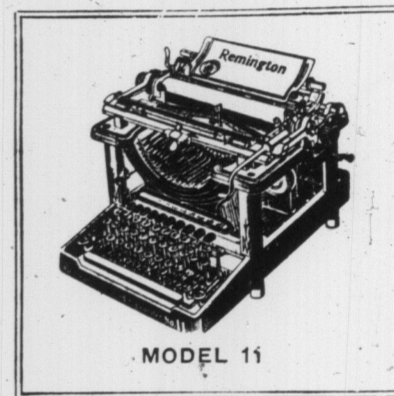

Lillian Keele, With the "Fashion Plates" at the Star This Week.

VISIBLE REMINGTONS

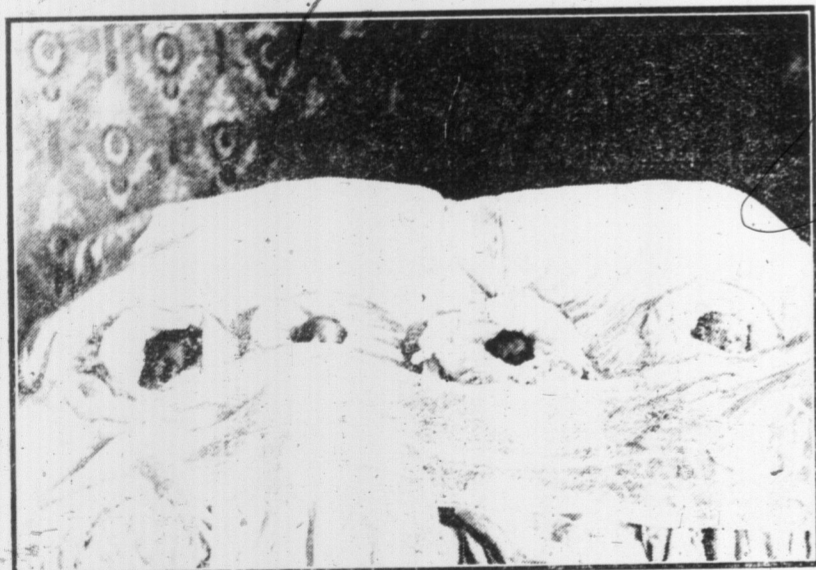

MODEL 10

MODEL 11

Anticipate every demand of every user of the writing machine.

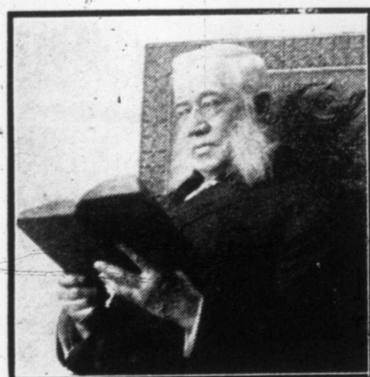

REMINGTON TYPWRITER COMPANY, Limited
- - 144 BAY ST., TORONTO

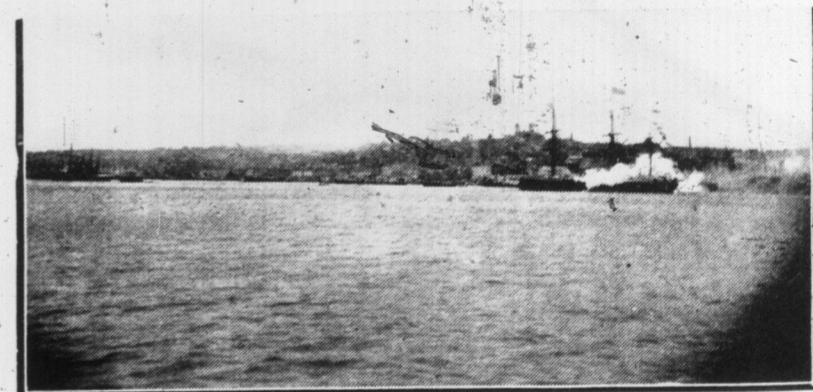

QUADRUPLETS BORN IN BURKE FALLS HOME. Viva Jean, Margaret Beryl, Barbara Alberta and Clara Emma Wilson, born Feb. 3. Three of the babies weighed three pounds each and one two pounds. Since the above photograph was taken, two of the babies have died.

FREE DISPENSARY OF THE WARD. The only building left standing on the site for the new General Hospital.

The Latt D. P. Bogart, M.D., of Whitby, Ont.

WITH THE LADS OF THE NAVY. Gun-boats manoeuvring in St. John's Harbor, Newfoundland.

MR. JOHN H. SHIELDS, Police Magistrate of Oakville.

BOYS OF WESTERN COUNTY HOLD SOCIAL EVENING. Huron Old Boys of Toronto banquet, at Temple Building, Feb. 11. Some 200 old boys and girls met together on this occasion.

PAUL'S JUGGLING GIRLS, MAJESTIC MUSIC HALL THIS WEEK.