You Get Better Cough Syrup by Making It at Home
What's more, you save about 25¢ by it. Really made and costs little.

You'll never really know what a fine cough syrup you can make until you prepare this famous home-made remedy. For not only save 25¢ as compared with the ready-made kind, but you will also have a more effective and dependable remedy in every way. It overcomes the usual coughs, throat and chest colds in 24 hours—relieves even whooping cough quickly.
Get 3½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) from any good drug store, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Here you have 16 ounces—a family supply—of the most effective cough syrup that money can buy—at a cost of only 55 cents or less. It never spoils.
The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting cough syrup have caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It quickly loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes, and relieves almost immediately. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, bronchitis, croup and bronchial asthma.
Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.
Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "3½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Too Sick To Work

Many Women in this Condition Regain Health by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Convincing Proof of This Fact.

Ridgway, Penn. — "I suffered from female trouble with backache and pain in my side for over seven months so I could not do any of my work. I was treated by three different doctors and was getting discouraged when my sister-in-law told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her. I decided to try it, and it restored my health, so I now do all of my housework which is not light as I have a little boy three years old."
—Mrs. O. M. Runkle, Ridgway, Penn.

Mrs. Lindsey Now Keeps House For Seven.

Tennille, Ga. — "I want to tell you how much I have benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. About eight years ago I got in such a low state of health I was unable to keep house for three in the family. I had dull, tired, dizzy feelings, cold feet and hands nearly all the time and could scarcely keep at all. The doctor said I had a severe case of ulceration and without an operation I would always be an invalid, but I told him I wanted to wait awhile. Our druggist advised my husband to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has entirely cured me. Now I keep house for seven and work in the garden some, too. I am so thankful I got this medicine. I feel as though it saved my life and have recommended it to others and they have been benefited." —Mrs. W. E. Lindsey, R. R. 3, Tennille, Ga.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

A. to admit a team from Toronto, was forecasted this afternoon. E. J. Livingston of the Toronto team, who has been sounding the various club owners here, announced that he would ask for waivers on his players and sell them to the highest bidder. The N. H. A. series, therefore, it is understood, will be played by Ottawa, Canadiens and Wanderers, Montreal and Quebec.

Trouble Securing Matches.
Detroit, Nov. 6.—The Detroit Hockey Club are finding trouble in securing O. H. A. teams to come here to play exhibition games. Manager Brown of the local team has been in communication with several clubs, but so far no decision has been reached, as the Ontario players do not know where they stand regarding passports.

FOOTBALL

Plan Big Navy Game.
Newport, R.I., Nov. 6.—Plans are under way for a football game between the teams of the Newport naval reserves and the Boston navy yard, probably in New York. The two teams are made up of some of the chief college players of the last few years.

TURF

Axworthy Dead.
Lexington, Ky., Nov. 6.—Axworthy, a 25-year-old trotting stallion, owned by the estate of William Simpson of Lexington, died yesterday. Axworthy was the sire of many famous trotters, chief of which were General Watts and Guy Axworthy.

RING

"Loud" Shirt Dazzled Duffy.
(Brooklyn Eagle, Saturday)

Johnny Dundee, clever little Italian-American lightweight, gave Jimmy Duffy, fighting Irishman from the West Side, a real, scientific boxing lesson, and incidentally a genuine, old-fashioned wallop, at the Pioneer Sporting Club last night. Dundee came in at 134½ pounds, while Duffy registered 134½.

The boys had an equal number of rosters, as they are both bona-fide voters in the neighborhood of the club. Scotty Monteith was there with his usual smile. Scotty, too, was adorned with a shirt that would make a barber's pole look like one color. The stripes were easily 2 by 6, and were of a very decided green and white, intermingled with blue.

The colors so dazzled Duffy that he was unable to see his opponent's choice collection of jabs, hooks and uppercuts until they landed everywhere except where Duffy wanted them.

An Unusual Occurrence

After Young Britt had been knocked down twice and almost put away by Joe Mooney of New York, in the third round of a bout at the Commercial Athletic Club on Friday night, Britt came back and won in the eleventh round. Britt recovered fast and thereafter Mooney was just a punching bag for him. When the referee stopped the bout Mooney was in a bad way.

THE RIFLE

Canadian Boys Win 11 Prizes.
The National Rifle Association have issued the results of the imperial challenge shield competition. Canada won eleven prizes out of a total of ninety-seven. Great Britain takes fifty, including the junior shield, Australia twenty-seven, including the senior shield, New Zealand seven, West Indies one and South Africa one.

AQUATIC

Presentation of Trask Cup.
At a meeting of the R.K.Y.C. held last evening in Bond's, John Frodsham was made the recipient of the Trask cup, having won in three successive races with his speed boat, the Dixie. Reports showed the club in good financial condition.

BASEBALL

Boosting for Navin.

New York, Nov. 4.—If Ban Johnson joins the army, which has not been decided yet, some of the American League men may object to the appointment of Edward G. Barrow in his place. Already these magnates, who still hope that Johnson will remain in this country, are talking of electing Frank J. Navin to the league's presidency. Navin is president and part owner of the Detroit Tigers. He is one of the oldest club owners in the circuit and close friend of Johnson. He is a smart baseball man and usually is consulted regarding questions of importance. Should Navin be chosen to fill Johnson's shoes he would sever his relations with the Detroit Club, at least temporarily.

ATHLETIC

"Ted" Wood Killed.
Toronto, Nov. 7.—Arthur Edwin ("Ted") Wood, one of the best distance runners in the world, has been killed in action. He joined the Toronto Sportsman's Battalion and took part in many races with Longboat, Corkery and other distance runners of note.

New Amateur Champion.
New York, Nov. 4.—Two new national amateur champions were made at the Morningside Athletic Club's events yesterday, and one new record was established.

More of Treachery of Constantine Uncovered.
Another Series of His Telegrams to Berlin Published

London, Nov. 7.—A despatch to Reuters from Athens says another series of telegrams despatched to Berlin during the regime of King Constantine have been published, and show the secret efforts of the former king to help the Germans. One dated January 21, 1916, follows:—"The King of Greece pledges his word to the German Emperor that in no circumstances shall any soldier or native be employed by the royal government against the German troops or their allies. Greece consents to the use of Drama-Serres railway by Germany and her allies." Another dated two days later, says

Service Act, 1917

Notice to Employers

The attention of Employers is especially called to the following provisions of the Regulations passed under The Military Service Act, 1917, and The War Measures Act, 1914, which directly affects them.

EMPLOYER TAKING UNDUE ADVANTAGE OF EMPLOYEE.
Every employer, and every person acting on behalf of any employer, who stipulates or attempts or offers to stipulate with any employee or other person for any reduction of an employee's salary or wages, or for the alteration of any other term or condition of his employment, in consideration of the employer exercising or refraining from exercising his right to claim exemption from military service on behalf of any employee, or who alters or attempts or offers to alter, adversely to any employee, any of the conditions of employment affecting such employee by exercising or refraining from exercising or by authorizing or suggesting the exercise or abstention from exercising of his right to claim exemption from military service on behalf of any employee, shall be guilty of an offence, punishable on summary conviction, by fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the convicting magistrate; the fine to be not less than one hundred dollars and not more than one thousand dollars, and the imprisonment not to exceed six months.

EMPLOYING MEN WHO ARE IN DEFAULT.
Every person shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on summary conviction to a penalty of not less than fifty dollars, and of not more than five hundred dollars, who, after the expiry of the time within which a man is by proclamation or regulation required to report in accordance with section 4 of the Act or to apply for exemption, employs or engages in his service, or continues in his service for a period of seven days, any man who belongs to any class or sub-class which has been called out, and who has not reported as required by section 4 of the Act, or in respect of whom an application for exemption has not been made, unless such person prove that, having made due inquiry, he believed upon reasonable grounds that the man so employed, engaged or continued in his service did not belong to any class or sub-class called out, or that he had reported or had at the time a certificate, or that an application for exemption by or in respect of the man was at the time pending.

EMPLOYER TO MAKE ENQUIRIES.
(a) It shall be the duty of every person who is an employer to make inquiries forthwith after the issue of any proclamation calling out men for military service under the Act whether any, and, if any, which of his employees are within the class or sub-class called out by such proclamation; and, forthwith after the expiry of the time limited by the proclamation for reporting for service or claiming exemption, to inquire and ascertain whether there are any, and if any, which of the men in his employ so called out who have failed to report or apply for exemption from service, or in respect of whom an application for exemption from service has not been made.

EMPLOYEES TO ANSWER.
(b) It shall be the duty of every employee to answer any questions that shall be put to him by his employer, and to give any information which his employer may require of him for the purpose of enabling the employer to comply with the duty imposed upon him by this section.

REPORT TO MINISTER.
(c) Every employer shall, forthwith after the expiry of the time so limited by any such proclamation, report to the Minister (of Justice) according to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, the names and addresses and the whereabouts at the time of all employees in his service called out by any such proclamation who have failed to report or apply for exemption from service.

PENALTY.
And any person who is an employer who refuses, neglects or fails to comply with any of the requirements imposed upon him by this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable, upon summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding, as to each employee in respect of whom he has so refused, neglected or failed to comply, one hundred dollars and not less than fifty dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the convicting magistrate.

EMPLOYING DESERTERS.
Every person who employs or retains in his service any man who has deserted, or who is absent without leave, from the Canadian expeditionary force, shall be guilty of an offence, punishable on summary conviction by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars, and of not more than five hundred dollars, unless such person prove that he was not aware, and had no reasonable ground to suspect, that the man so employed or retained in his service was a deserter or absent from the force without leave.

Under the proclamation issued on the 13th of October, 1917, the last day for members of Class One under the Act to report or claim exemption is
