THE ACCIDENT TO MRS. STARR

(Boston Post, Sunday)
Two women were injured and two men shaken up in a collision between two automobiles at the junction of Otis street and Lowell avenue, Newtonville, last evening.

Mrs. Florence Starr of St. John, N. B., and Miss Ella DuVernett of the Hotel Kempton, Boston, were taken to the Newton Hospital, and eighteen-year-old Norman Weaver of Dartmouth College, a son of Ernest Weaver of 34 Winthrop street, West Newton, was arrested, charged with operating an automobile without a license.

A machine, owned and operated by George C. West, of 38 Highland avenue, Newtonville, and containing also Mrs. Starr, Miss DuVernett and H. H. Wilcox of Breville road, Newtonville, was proceeding along Lowell avenue, when it collided with the car operated by young Weaver, at the corner of Otis street.

The Weaver machine drove broadside into the other car, it is charged, throwing out the occupants and wrecking the Weaver machine. Mrs. Starr sustained a broken arm and bruises and suffered from shock. Miss DuVernett sustained a severe scalp wound and the two men in the automobile were shaken up.

It was found that Weaver's automobile license had expired and he was arrested, being released on bail furnished by his father.
