BULLETS FLY IN COAL THEFT. Detectives Fight Crowd Taking Fuel From Buffalo Yards.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Several hundred men, women and children of Cheektowaga early today battled with Lehigh Valley Railroad detectives who attempted to prevent them from hauling away the contents of three carloads of anthracite coal, which had been dumped onto the tracks near the William street city line. Fourteen-year-old John Diskowski was shot in the left leg when the detectives opened fire at several men who began to hurl chunks of coal at them when they descended upon the crowd. The detectives said the boy was an innocent bystander and was struck by a stray bullet. It was not until the detectives fired several volleys that the crowd began to scatter. Men and women ran in all directions, carrying buckets, baskets and tubs filled with the fuel. Three arrests were made. Detectives are trying to learn who pulled the pins in the gondola cars containing the anthracite. The cars were in a freight train which had stopped in the yards near William street for a few minutes.

Believe They Have Woman Poisoner Of Four Husbands

Chicago Police Tracing Career of Mrs. Tillie Klimek—Four, Besides Husbands, in List of Deaths to be Investigated.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Investigation of the life of Mrs. Tillie Klimek, who, according to the police, is believed to have poisoned at least four husbands, was under way today. Her present husband, Joseph Klimek, she said, is seriously ill from poison. He recently had his life insured. In the body of Frank Krueck, another husband, was found enough poison "to kill four men," according to a coroner's physician. Plans were made to exhume the bodies of John Ruskakal and Joseph Mitkewicz, former mates of the woman. Meanwhile Harry Suida, a cousin of the accused woman, told the police of the mysterious death of his sister, Rose, who died after attending a dinner at Mrs. Klimek's home. Elizabeth Wyickowski, another cousin, said her two sisters and a brother died under mysterious circumstances after they dined at the Klimek home. The two cousins asked to have the bodies of their relatives exhumed.

SOLDIERS RESCUE GIRLS FROM FIRE

Vocational Pupils Assist Workers from a Burning Five Story Building in Brooklyn. New York, Nov. 6.—Fire in the five-story building at 169 to 110 Flatbush avenue, at State street, Brooklyn, yesterday morning imperilled the lives of a large number of persons in the building, among them twenty-four girls employed in the factory of the Lombard Knitting Company on the fifth floor of the building. All of the occupants escaped safely to the street by the stairway and fire escapes. In the rush to get out of the building the girls were assisted by about fifty disabled war veterans attending a vocational school on the fourth floor. The ex-soldiers first assisted the girls from the floor above and led them all safely to the street. The ground floor is occupied by stores, while the second and third floors are occupied by Dr. Royal Mackenzie, a dentist, and the New York Institute of Photography, respectively. Police Sergeant William Burke of the Bergen street station, saw smoke coming out of the cellar and turned in the alarm. By the time the first apparatus arrived the smoke was pouring out of the cellar and through the building. Three alarms were turned in. The firemen succeeded in confining the blaze to the cellar, although the stock of the Radio Company, which occupied a store on the ground floor, was destroyed, and part of a haberdasher shop was damaged. The damage was estimated at $80,000. Firemen Edward J. Muller of Engine Company 295 was burned on the hands and face. He was taken to the Brooklyn Hospital for treatment.

A WELSH BEACH.

(By Teresa Horley) The sunlit waves broke tumbling Upon the golden sand, And a free wind drove against them, Blowing from off the land, And so God wove a glory Too great to understand. Out on the azure water Drifted the blown white spray, And the world was whiteness and blueness. And the light of an April day. And so God wove a memory Too dear to fade away.

WILL REBUILD THE BRICK PLANT

Thomas Stephen, president of the Stephen Brick Co., Ltd., whose plant was destroyed by fire early yesterday morning, said today that the company proposed building on the same site as soon as possible. So far as could be ascertained there was no damage done to the boilers and the damage to the main engine may not amount to much. The brick making machinery and much valuable belting, however, will be practically total loss. Mr. Stephen said that the loss will be in the vicinity of $70,000, and about $50,000 insurance is carried. H. W. Frink has been appointed to adjust the loss for the insurance company. The new brick company recently installed a fuel oil system in their boilers, but fortunately the oil tank was not touched by the flames. Mr. Stephen said that he had sufficient brick manufactured to complete the supply for the new school being erected in West St. John by H. O. Clark.

RETIRING FROM THE WHOLESALE DEPARTMENT OF THEIR BUSINESS In conversation with E. L. Rising of Waterbury & Rising, Ltd., he informed our reporter that on account of the unsatisfactory conditions existing in the wholesale shoe business during the last two years, he had decided to confine himself to the retail trade only. Locally, Mr. Rising said, business had been very satisfactory, but the prospects in the wholesale were not so bright, due to the manufacturer going more direct to the trade, and the universal dull times. Their energies, Mr. Rising said, would be bent on giving the citizens of this city real quality and service in the retail stores, keeping ever before them their old motto: "Reliable Footwear at Fair Prices."
