COMMENTS ON THE NUMBER OF CRIMINAL CASES

Judge Chandler Sees "Craze for Liquor" in Crime of Today.

Opening Session of Circuit Court—A Sharp Word to Absentee Jurors — Paris Case First to be Taken Up.

There was a very lengthy criminal docket this morning at the opening of the November session of the Circuit court, causing His Honor Mr. Justice Chandler, who presided, to remark during his charge to the grand jury: "There is a very great deal of crime today and in almost every case it can be attributed to the craze for liquor." He explained to the grand jurors what their duties were in the several cases which he laid before them. He also commented upon the absence of eleven jurors and said that unless they could produce evidence which would be satisfactory as to their absence he would have to fine them. He had received several doctors' certificates, he said, but he had not read them even, for they were not evidence. "This kind of thing must be stopped," he said.

Hon. J. P. Byrne, attorney general, was in court and will prosecute the Paris case, which will likely be the first taken up. It is understood that this is the only case which he will prosecute at this local attorney. Besides the case of the King vs. Paris, on a charge of murder, there are the following:

The King vs. George Parker, two indictments, theft and receiving stolen goods.

The King vs. Edward O'Brien, an action arising from the death of Albert Norris, the charge now against the prisoner being the stealing of a bottle of whiskey.

The King vs. Joseph Neaves, theft of goods from the store of Wm. Jacobson.

The King vs. John McShane and Leonard Craig, acting together in placing obstructions upon street railway tracks in Carleton.

All of these cases were given to the grand jury this morning. The King vs. Campbell et al a charge of unlawful assembly was not placed with the grand jury this morning, but will be taken up later His Honor said. The non-jury cases will be heard in Chambers. The court adjourned till 2.20 p. m.

The following was the petit jury summoned:

S. Cosman, E. M. Logan, John P. Coffey, Jas. L. Porter, Coles Parent, H. R. Brundage, H. E. Bevan, W. Bailey, S. S. Bates, A. J. Nagle, I. H. Kimball, L. O. Wilson, G. H. Davidson, H. J. Armstrong, F. J. Likely, S. H. Peters, H. E. Brown, Herbert Butler, C. E. Cowan, H. L. Colner, J. A. Davidson, H. S. Daley, R. G. Day, L. S. Hanselpecker, W. A. Erbe, F. Z. Fowler.

The following was the grand jury summoned: W. C. Day, who was chosen foreman, C. A. Donald, M. D. Coll, H. Duxie, N. A. Lyle, L. G. Hodges, E. Lake, W. Hann, A. S. Dodge, L. W. Nickerson, N. C. Day, D. Doyle.
