J. V. BUURQUE OF SHEDIAK IS ON THE EXECUTIVE

Dominion Postmasters Choose Alberta Man President—Biennial Conventions.

Ottawa, July 24.—T. J. Cumberland of Pincher Creek, Alberta, was elected president of the Dominion Postmasters' Association on Saturday at the close of a two-day convention. It was decided to hold conventions biennially. Montreal was chosen for 1924.
H. W. Coxworth of High Bluff, Man., the retiring president, was elected honorary president, and R. G. Hanbury of Dundas, Ont., was re-elected secretary-treasurer. H. F. Tamin of Oshawa, Ont., was elected vice-president, and the new executive committee includes J. V. Buurque, Shediac, N. B., and J. E. Anderson, Lunenburg, N. S.

COST SCOTT $9

Windsor, Ont., July 24.—James Scott, forty-seven years old, appeared before Magistrate Gundy on Saturday as complainant against John Hall. He charged Hall with abusive language to him. The magistrate asked Scott if he had done anything to provoke the case words. "Nothing except to suggest to Hall that he go home and wash his wife's feet," Scott answered.
"Did he?" asked the court.
"No, Your Worship, so I went to Hall's house and washed Mrs. Hall's feet myself. She was in bed at the time." "Yes, and he deserted his own wife and baby," spoke up Hall.
Scott admitted he had left his wife, but said that his "baby" tipped the scales at 167 pounds.
The magistrate dismissed the charge against Hall and assessed Scott $9 costs, holding that was reasonable enough for the privilege of having washed another man's wife's feet.

HALIFAX PERSONALS.

(Halifax Echo)

Doctor Huestis, who has been a visitor in the city will be next week for his home in Sussex, N. B.
On Friday afternoon Mrs. Sharples was hostess at a farewell tea for her father, Mr. Peter, who arrived from Quebec, who will leave next week for St. John. Tea was poured by Mrs. O'Brien, and Mrs. Harry Johnston. Among those present were Mrs. Sharples, Mrs. James and Slater.
Mrs. W. M. P. Webster has as her guests her sister, Mrs. Chute, and her son, Peter, who arrived from Quebec this morning. Mrs. Chuteauver's daughter, Roma, is expected in the city from St. John on Tuesday.

BUSY CAMPBELLTON.

(Chatham World.)
There is no unemployment in Campbellton. Every mill and workshop is running with full crews, and several houses are under construction. The town has no electric railway as yet, but it has two lines of motor buses—one to Danville and one to Matapedia—running on schedule time at low rates. They are well patronized. The bus from Matapedia, Saturday evening especially, arrives with as many passengers as can get into it. The fare is very small in comparison with the hire of a carriage or auto.

A BUILDING BOOM.

Fredericton Mail—Fredericton is this season enjoying the biggest building boom for a number of years. The new buildings in course of erection include Windsor Hall annex, Spencer's Theatre, Chestnut Canoe factory and the Church hall, all substantial structures of brick and concrete. New dwelling houses are going up in all sections of the city and the fact that most of them are better than the average is eliciting much favorable comment.

K. K. REGALIA TO BE WORN

Atlanta, Ga., July 24.—The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, have been ordered to discard their masks, robes and other regalia except white evening especially, arrives with as many passengers as can get into it. The fare is very small in comparison with the hire of a carriage or auto.

To a $6,000 Post.

Ottawa, July 24.—(Canadian Press)—James Robinson, vice-president of the Saskatchewan co-operative association of Regina, has been appointed a member of the board of grain commissioners, at $6,000 a year, vice J. P. Jones, who has resigned.

THE BUSINESS COLUMN

Edited by Mansfield P. House (Copyright)

Men Noted and Approved This Change

It's more than likely that the feminine patrons of a certain drug store in Rochester, N. Y., which shall be nameless for reasons usually described as "obvious"—failed to make even a mental note of a change which recently went into effect because the change affected only the location of the "men's specialty" counter. But the men noticed it—for exactly the reason the proprietor of the store figured that they would.

Formerly, the counter in question was well up in the front of the store, the idea being that men liked to come in, make their purchases and get out in a hurry. But now it's in the rear, right next to the "prescription" counter, and make a purchase of a toothbrush, a razor or some shaving cream while he's waiting for his order to be filled or while he's trying to present a legitimate excuse for his presence to some one he may happen to know in the store.

"You'd be surprised at the difference it makes," says the druggist who owns the store. "Many a man comes to the subject of his errand with what appears to be the utmost reluctance and he will welcome any pretext to edge his way back toward the prescription department. Then, too, while he's waiting for the bottle to be filled, or for some neighbor whom he may know, to leave the store, he's only too willing to make a small purchase as a sort of announcement of his reason for being there. I've kept a careful check upon sales and I've found that the change in the location of the counter has added at least twenty-five per cent. to the business done, which is the reason that the men's specialty counter is going to remain where it is, at least for the time being."

Rents Too High, He Moved Store to Home.
