

WHAT A C.P.R. FIREMAN OWES TO ZAM-BUK.

George H. Duffus of Robertson St., Fort William, a C. P. R. fireman, says: "The water gauge of my locomotive burst and scalded the whole left side of my face terribly. I had a box of Zam-Buk in my pocket, which I was using for a sore on my lip, and when I had recovered from the first shock of the accident, I produced the balm and had it applied freely to the scalded parts. I was suffering acute agony, but within a wonderfully short time Zam-Buk gave me ease. I was able to continue my journey and upon reaching home, I obtained more Zam-Buk and continued the treatment. Zam-Buk acted wonderfully well, and in a few days had the wound nearly healed. I don't know anything so fine as Zam-Buk as a healer of burns, scalds, cuts, and similar injuries, which workers are so liable to, and, in my opinion, a box of Zam-Buk should be kept handy in every worker's home."

Zam-Buk will also be found a sure cure for cold sores, chapped hands, frost bite, ulcers, blood-poison, varicose veins, piles, anal sores, ringworm, inflamed patches, babies' eruptions and chapped places, cuts, burns, bruises, and skin injuries, generally. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price.

A Challenge.
The postoffice bowlers think that the bowlers in the lower portion of the country market have nothing on them and they challenge them to a match on the Victoria alleys. Arrangements can be made through this paper.

The Inter-Society League.
The first game in the second series of the Inter-Society Bowling League will be played tonight, the C. M. D. A. and Single Men's teams being the contestants. The series was to have opened on next Monday night, but as the St. John's Y. M. C. A. boys are holding sports on that night it was decided to play the first game tonight.

Hockey
McQuarrie Leaves for Toronto.
Lowell McQuarrie, who was one of the stars on last year's St. John's hockey team, left for Toronto last evening, where he will be in future residence. He has been in the employ of T. H. Etchells for several years and has been promoted to the western branch. Many of his friends were at the airport to see him off. His loss will be greatly felt by the St. John's team this year as he was the thirdbest player in the league last season.

Hockey Notes
The N. B. H. L. game between Fredericton and Marystown for Friday night, has been postponed till Monday or Tuesday of next week. Sussex and Chatham will play in Sussex this evening and Chatham will be here to play the locals on Friday evening.

The professional league game to have been played in New Glasgow last night between New Glasgow and the Halifax Crescents, has been postponed until January 11.

The Montreal Wanderers defeated Renfrew in Montreal last night 4 to 2 after a hard-fought battle. The Wanderers had a hand in the last few minutes of the game. The talk of amalgamation of the Fredericton and Marystown hockey teams is off.

The St. John's had their final workout on the Quebec rink last night, previous to meeting the Chatham team in the league game here Friday night. While all the members of the team worked hard, Tully, McAvity and Brad Gilbert showed the most speed. The latter gives much promise. Of course there are some raw spots which would be looked for in getting a team together and till after the first game it is hardly possible to set a record.

THE RIOT CASE

Police Identify Some as Having Been in the Crowd

Testimony Given By Patrolmen
Wittrien, Perry, Covey and Sergeant Caples—Citizens Called
—Court in Session Till 6 P.M.

The hearing in the case of the thirteen men and youths arrested in connection with the New Year's eve troubles was continued in the police court yesterday until 6 p.m.

At the afternoon session, which opened at 2.30 p.m., Policeman Charles Wittrien was the first witness to give evidence. He testified that he was at Breen's corner on New Year's eve. About 11.45 o'clock he considered it was remarkably quiet. Soon after this a crowd assembled and several young men formed a circle and began to sing and dance. Witness said he took a walk around the block and when he returned he found a crowd surrounding a car which had been stalled in King Square.

Policeman Perry went to one end of the car and the other. He recognized the defendant Hayes in the crowd. He also recognized Smith, who was jumping round like a wild Indian pulling down the trolley pole. Way, another one of the defendants, witness said, held his hands on the trolley pole, but he could not say whether he was giving the street railway employees assistance or not.

Leaving King Square he went into Charlotte street and saw there a milk team that had been stopped by force in front of Turner's oyster saloon. The horse was on the ground. Witness next told Conductor Beatty to try and get his car out of the way. Beatty was considerably beaten up. While he was conversing with Beatty he saw a man named O'Brien get hit with a bottle on the head. He assisted O'Brien, who appeared to be stunned, into the restaurant. Witness said he saw defendant Ryan in the crowd which was attacking Beatty.

In answer to a question, witness said he could not be positive that the person whom he saw was Ryan. He resembled Ryan very much, however.

Witness next told of seeing the crowd make for a car which came from Lower Cove into Charlotte street. Here he saw witness Petrovsky. A car then came from Haymarket Square and he saw the crowd attacking it. It was at this time that he was attacked by the mob. Someone struck him across the mouth with a stick. He grabbed his revolver and told the crowd they were "carrying it too far." He then heard someone say "Push him." "Push him," "Push him," witness next saw a person making through the crowd with a stick. Thinking this was a fellow who struck him he made after him. On catching this person he told him he was going to take him to the police station. "Oh, you won't," at the same time calling him by the name. Next he felt people pulling to succeed in breaking into the saloon. He was in the crowd and he saw the crowd was "carrying it too far." He then heard someone say "Push him."
