GERMAN BOND BUYERS SAID TO BE VICTIMIZED

Alien Speculators Will Lose Heavily by Berlin Legislation

DISCREDITED PAPER REPLACEMENT AIMED

Old Moneyholders to Receive 5 p.c. Return If Issue Is Pre-war One.

BERLIN, March 26.—Speculators who bought Imperial German bonds after the crash of the Empire and the mark had made them a tempting gamble may as well throw away their pretty paper—it will never make them rich. Other foreign speculators are in the same predicament.

Bona fide investors who loaned money to the Government when Germany was a symbol for substantial wealth will receive a pitance for the terrible losses they have suffered. In the bill providing for valorization of the securities just made public, the Luther Government proposes to exchange a stable issue of paper for the discredited issues, which have a face value of $14,000,000,000. Holders of the old paper would receive a 5 per cent return if the issue were pre-war, or 2½ per cent if the issue were one of those floated by Brüning in 1920. The holder of a 1,000 mark bond, for instance, would receive a 50 mark bond.

CRUIKSHANKS OFF ON BOOTLEG VESSEL

Supposedly Bound For West Indies After Release Paper Charges.

HALIFAX, March 26.—That William Cruikshanks, the convicted bootlegger, who was released from Rockhead prison after serving 40 days of a 12 months' sentence, on representations made to the Attorney-General's department by Rev. H. R. Grant, leading social service worker, and Inspector E. S. Tracey, of the Temperance Act enforcement squad, and others, left Halifax yesterday following his parole on a run-running schooner, ostensibly bound for the West Indies, is the charge made by the Supreme Court today, in further criticism of the department's action in the matter.

The Mail adds that while it had been represented that Cruikshanks had experienced a change of heart, was "going to be good," and intended leaving the country, shipping records show that he immediately returned to his first love, the sale of bootleg liquor.

The Mail states further that when the Cruikshanks case was before the courts it had been advised that "bootlegging and the 12 months' sentence was confirmed by the Supreme Court on habeas corpus proceedings.
