Use
COLGATE'S

COLGATE'S Does ALL a safe Dentifrice Should Do—it cleans the teeth.
No dentifrice can take the place of the dentist. Any preparation that seeks to do the dentists' work usually contains strong drugs or harsh grit—harmful to the enamel of the teeth. And think of the effect of such risky chemicals on the tender membranes of your mouth!

Colgate's Ribbon Dental Cream cleans thoroughly, safely, washing the teeth without harmful grit, or the use of strong drugs.

You, too, should use COLGATE'S—it's safe.

'ON WITH THE DANCE' SUMPTUOUS PICTURE

Imperial Theatre Presents Delightful Super-Photoplay With Favorite Stars in the Cast—On Again Today.

The picture at the Imperial Theatre this change feels the pulse of New York and finds it not alone the hive of temptation that it is often called, but also the haven for vaulting ambition in the arts and sciences. "On With the Dance" is the big city in all its scintillating phases. Against this background a dramatic love story has been worked out by the master hand of Ouida Bergere, certainly one of the foremost scenarists of the silver sheet.

Mae Murray and David Powell are the featured players. Miss Murray shows that she has not lost one whit of her skill in the dance, which first brought her into prominence in the Follies. But she also exhibits pleasing qualities as an emotional actress of surpassing ability. Mr. Powell is, as always, the suave gentleman and accomplished actor.

The story concerns the adventure of a little, pretty Russian girl, suddenly left an orphan amid the luxury of New York's smart set. Her encounters with men, good and bad, her temporary yielding to the lure of a "soft life," and her final redemption in the big crisis provide an absorbing plot that held the interest of last night's audience every moment.

YOUNG-ADAMS CO.
PRESENT GREAT
JOHN GANTON

Large Audience at Queen Square Theatre See Good Show, Well Presented.

The Great John Ganton was ably presented by the Young-Adams company at the Queen Square Theatre last evening. The audience was large and appreciative, as was evidenced by their frequent and prolonged applause. Mr. Young played the role of John Ganton in a manner that left nothing to be desired, and he was ably supported by Miss Adams and the remainder of the cast. Miss Adams as May Keating got the reception of which she is always sure at the hands of a St. John audience. Percy Norman as Will Ganton, John J. Guggay as Brownie, and Jack Simmons as Larry Delaney all played up well and rounded out a well chosen cast. A considerable flurry was noticeable among the ladies in the audience on the appearance of some beautiful gowns on the stage.

The story is an interesting one and the way it was told last night left nothing to be desired. Treating as it does the relation between the employer and the employee, it carries with it a strong moral vein which was well brought out by the cast. Mr. Young was particularly good and worked his story up to such a climax at the end of the third act that he was forced to respond to a curtain call.

The Great John Ganton will be repeated this afternoon and this evening.
