How Jobs For the Jobless May Be Found

That Satan will find work for the idle hands to do if we fail to anticipate him in this line of endeavor, seems to put into a nutshell the compelling reason for the unemployment conference called by the President of the United States. Destitution, distress, bread-lines, and soup kitchens in our larger cities, and a material increase in crime throughout the country are predicted for the coming winter in dozens of newspaper editorials because of the almost unprecedented unemployment situation which the country now faces. "Industrial controversies, resulting in stoppage of production" is advanced by the St. Paul Dispatch for the present unemployment condition: "A debt-ridden and mutilated world, which has decreased its buying, thus curtailing production," is responsible in the opinion of the Norfolk Virginian Pilot. "The high price of steel, which hampers building operations, high freight rates, high wages, and high cost of material, which keeps up the buyers' strike" are some of the reasons given for unemployment by the Houston Post, while the Buffalo Express believes the situation was caused by the "orgy of Government spending."

Whether President Harding can bring about an agreement between capital and labor to co-operate in fighting the causes of depression, the country shall soon know, for Secretary Hoover already has drawn the plans for the conference. This conference, in the opinion of the Philadelphia Public Ledger "is likely to spur Congress into action." While the Socialistic New York Call says that the present situation "indicates clearly enough the damnable incapacity for leadership on the part of the rulers of this country who run away to the seashore and the mountains when a real problem is put up to them," the New York Evening Post points out that it is not the custom to heed a "serious social emergency" until the cry of the hungry actually is heard.

All angles of this most pressing problem which confronts the country are treated in the leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for September 10th.
