

Regular Students, who have passed a sessional examination or examinations in the work of the lower years, and who by superior diligence and attainment are fitted to enter upon Theological studies must pass an examination in all the work specified with the exception of that in which they have been previously examined, such examination to be held also on the Thursday following the first Wednesday in October.

III. Divinity Students who have already taken a part of their theological course in other recognized institutions, will be admitted, on the presentation of regular certificates of good standing and dismission from the authorities of such institutions, to their standing in this College.

IV. Occasional Students may be admitted to attendance upon courses of lectures on presenting a Presbyterial order to that effect, or on payment of the fee of four dollars for each full course, or of ten dollars for all the courses. Such occasional students are not required to pass the terminal or sessional examinations, nor are they eligible for the scholarships and other rewards open to regular Students. Should they, however, desire to take the sessional examinations, certificates of their proficiency may be given them by the Professors whose lectures they have attended. The Senate may remit the fees in special cases.

V. The regulations mentioned above concerning regular Students apply equally to French speaking Students preparing for French work, for whom a special course of preliminary study is provided, on passing the final examination in which they are entitled to enter upon the Theological course. Such French Students may, however, enter upon the same footing as English Students, passing the same examinations in all the subjects, with the exception of English, Philosophy and History, for which the following equivalents will be taken :—

French.—Grammar and Composition ; History of French Literature.
Philosophy, &c.—Logic ; Cousin's History of Philosophy ; Jouffroy's Ethics (Cours de droit naturel) ; Puaux, Anatomie du Papisme.
History.—Duruy, Histoire Universelle.

The rule for English Students intermitting any part of their Literary Course, as to examination in all the subjects in which they have not been previously examined, is applicable to French Students also.
