"That is the first specification of the first charge," he said, "you say, sir—guilty or not guilty?"

And, in the simplest way in the world, he asked him to answer. Jones sufficiently clear to be able beyond the open window:

"Not guilty."

And to each and every specification and to the charge of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman and of conduct prejudicial to good order and discipline, Jones answered in the same calmly prepared, entire innocence, and the plea was duly recorded.

Then Colonel Lawler announced that he would accept the competence and length of the case he desired the services of a stenographer and requested the authority of the court to call one in. The court granted the request. The stenographers were expensive, and the last court he was on had been rapped over the knuckles for employing one, although the court had ordered a hundred and fifty pages in length.

Unusual Advantages.

"One hundred dollars a month," said the young doctor, looking for a place to hang out his shingle, "is an enormous rent for a little office like this."

"But look at the location," replied the owner of the building. "It's nearer than any other house by ten feet to the football grounds across the way."

We have a speedy cure for catarrh, dysentery, cancer, mouth and hemorrhoids, in RHILAND'S OINTMENT. It is a potent medicine, and cures with each bottle.
