

FUNNY MEN'S SAYINGS

WHAT THE SAD-EYED SCRIBES OF THE HUMOROUS PRESS WRITE.

Paragraphs from a Great Number of Places and About a Great Number of Subjects.

"Are you one of the new letter carriers?" inquired the housewife. "Yes, ma'am."

"Did that man strike you with malice aforethought?" asked the prosecuting officer of a colored witness.

"Hang the luck!" exclaimed the foreman, as he was busily at work making up the paper.

"What was the trouble between you and the defendant?" asked the police court judge of an Irish witness with two badly discouraged eyes.

"Yes, give me an account of it." "Well, ye see that man, Dinnis Dolan, came up to me an' he says to me, says he, 'Micky, what kind ay oiyes do yeis look like, black or blue?'"

Senator Berry, of Arkansas, tells his friends of a trial for assault in his State in the course of which a club, a rail, an axe-handle, a knife, and a shot gun were exhibited as "the instruments with which the deed was done."

At the farmers' banquet in New York the other night, one of the speakers called attention to the fact that, if we ever have woman-suffrage, the men who sell sealin' sacks will have control of the vote. Alas, too true!

Surgeon (to patient who has been playing Missouri poker)—I can find only one east, sir.

Woman, lovely woman, you are simply superb! In your wiles and machinations to ensnare the gullible miser. But with sense and circumspection he will never be taken.

"It's a poor rule that doesn't work both ways," murmured Jags, as he made fast his southeast suspender with a horseshoe nail.

"What's wrong now?" put in Baggs. "The women have sewing circles for the heathen, haven't they?"

A bald-headed man is a victim of hair-breadth escapes. [—Brooks Record.]

With thousands of positive specifics to insure the growth of hair, it is a matter of surprise where all the front-seaters at the burlesque come from. [—Lowell Idea.]

A barber at Poughkeepsie says that eight of ten men are bald now-days, and he attributes it to food adulteration. That barber is probably a single man. [Philadelphia Call.]

An English Art Journal has offered a prize to any one who will discover the cause of baldness, and, strange as it appears, no one has yet suggested the falling out of hair as the cause. [Yonkers Statesman.]

Adam was proudly conscious that he never made a mistake in his boyhood. [Texas Siftings.]

According to the Bible story Adam was the first fellow to get up and dust. [Duluth Paragrapher.]

Adam may not have been a model man, but he never put a poker chip in the church collection basket. [Hotel Mail.]

Adam was somewhat surprised when he first saw the notice at the front gate of Eden "Keep off the Grass." [Duluth Paragrapher.]

Adam was not as good as he might have been, but he never reeled off his leg by the yard about the pranks of his school days. [Philadelphia Call.]

Father (to would-be son-in-law)—"Young man, will you be able to take care of my daughter in the style to which she has always been accustomed. Young man (earnestly)—"I'll guarantee it, sir, or return the girl."

Johnny—Pa, what is a female crank? Father—Go ask your mother, my son. (Father is busy explaining the next moment that he meant no reflections.)

A Letter From Campbellton.

The long winter has gone and spring has come in all its glory; the snow has melted away and the river is clear of ice, and Campbellton has put on an appearance of life and bustle.

"No, sah; he didn't, sah. He done hit me wif a cleavah."—Merchant Traveller.

"What was the trouble between you and the defendant?" asked the police court judge of an Irish witness with two badly discouraged eyes.

Senator Berry, of Arkansas, tells his friends of a trial for assault in his State in the course of which a club, a rail, an axe-handle, a knife, and a shot gun were exhibited as "the instruments with which the deed was done."

At the farmers' banquet in New York the other night, one of the speakers called attention to the fact that, if we ever have woman-suffrage, the men who sell sealin' sacks will have control of the vote. Alas, too true!

Surgeon (to patient who has been playing Missouri poker)—I can find only one east, sir.

Woman, lovely woman, you are simply superb! In your wiles and machinations to ensnare the gullible miser. But with sense and circumspection he will never be taken.

"It's a poor rule that doesn't work both ways," murmured Jags, as he made fast his southeast suspender with a horseshoe nail.

"What's wrong now?" put in Baggs. "The women have sewing circles for the heathen, haven't they?"

A bald-headed man is a victim of hair-breadth escapes. [—Brooks Record.]

With thousands of positive specifics to insure the growth of hair, it is a matter of surprise where all the front-seaters at the burlesque come from. [—Lowell Idea.]

A barber at Poughkeepsie says that eight of ten men are bald now-days, and he attributes it to food adulteration. That barber is probably a single man. [Philadelphia Call.]

An English Art Journal has offered a prize to any one who will discover the cause of baldness, and, strange as it appears, no one has yet suggested the falling out of hair as the cause. [Yonkers Statesman.]

Adam was proudly conscious that he never made a mistake in his boyhood. [Texas Siftings.]

According to the Bible story Adam was the first fellow to get up and dust. [Duluth Paragrapher.]

Adam may not have been a model man, but he never put a poker chip in the church collection basket. [Hotel Mail.]

Adam was somewhat surprised when he first saw the notice at the front gate of Eden "Keep off the Grass." [Duluth Paragrapher.]

Adam was not as good as he might have been, but he never reeled off his leg by the yard about the pranks of his school days. [Philadelphia Call.]

Father (to would-be son-in-law)—"Young man, will you be able to take care of my daughter in the style to which she has always been accustomed. Young man (earnestly)—"I'll guarantee it, sir, or return the girl."

Johnny—Pa, what is a female crank? Father—Go ask your mother, my son. (Father is busy explaining the next moment that he meant no reflections.)

How He Buys an Engagement Ring.

"It's funny to see the different ways in which various men select engagement rings," said a jeweller's clerk, "and when a man comes in here for that purpose every clerk in the store can recognize the fact at once."

"Other men, again, walk in with the news just beaming all over them. 'Engage me,' he says, 'and I'll give you the best of the lot.'"

"What was the trouble between you and the defendant?" asked the police court judge of an Irish witness with two badly discouraged eyes.

Senator Berry, of Arkansas, tells his friends of a trial for assault in his State in the course of which a club, a rail, an axe-handle, a knife, and a shot gun were exhibited as "the instruments with which the deed was done."

At the farmers' banquet in New York the other night, one of the speakers called attention to the fact that, if we ever have woman-suffrage, the men who sell sealin' sacks will have control of the vote. Alas, too true!

Surgeon (to patient who has been playing Missouri poker)—I can find only one east, sir.

Woman, lovely woman, you are simply superb! In your wiles and machinations to ensnare the gullible miser. But with sense and circumspection he will never be taken.

"It's a poor rule that doesn't work both ways," murmured Jags, as he made fast his southeast suspender with a horseshoe nail.

"What's wrong now?" put in Baggs. "The women have sewing circles for the heathen, haven't they?"

A bald-headed man is a victim of hair-breadth escapes. [—Brooks Record.]

With thousands of positive specifics to insure the growth of hair, it is a matter of surprise where all the front-seaters at the burlesque come from. [—Lowell Idea.]

A barber at Poughkeepsie says that eight of ten men are bald now-days, and he attributes it to food adulteration. That barber is probably a single man. [Philadelphia Call.]

An English Art Journal has offered a prize to any one who will discover the cause of baldness, and, strange as it appears, no one has yet suggested the falling out of hair as the cause. [Yonkers Statesman.]

Adam was proudly conscious that he never made a mistake in his boyhood. [Texas Siftings.]

According to the Bible story Adam was the first fellow to get up and dust. [Duluth Paragrapher.]

Adam may not have been a model man, but he never put a poker chip in the church collection basket. [Hotel Mail.]

Adam was somewhat surprised when he first saw the notice at the front gate of Eden "Keep off the Grass." [Duluth Paragrapher.]

Adam was not as good as he might have been, but he never reeled off his leg by the yard about the pranks of his school days. [Philadelphia Call.]

Father (to would-be son-in-law)—"Young man, will you be able to take care of my daughter in the style to which she has always been accustomed. Young man (earnestly)—"I'll guarantee it, sir, or return the girl."

Johnny—Pa, what is a female crank? Father—Go ask your mother, my son. (Father is busy explaining the next moment that he meant no reflections.)

"What was the trouble between you and the defendant?" asked the police court judge of an Irish witness with two badly discouraged eyes.

Senator Berry, of Arkansas, tells his friends of a trial for assault in his State in the course of which a club, a rail, an axe-handle, a knife, and a shot gun were exhibited as "the instruments with which the deed was done."

At the farmers' banquet in New York the other night, one of the speakers called attention to the fact that, if we ever have woman-suffrage, the men who sell sealin' sacks will have control of the vote. Alas, too true!

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. THE KEY TO HEALTH. BULLOCK'S BLOOD BITTERS.

Unlocks all the clogged avenues of the bowels, kidneys and liver, carrying off gradually without weakening the system, all the impurities and foul humors of the secretions; at the same time Correcting Acidity of the Stomach, curing Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Headaches, Dizziness, Heartburn, Constipation, Dryness of the Skin, Dropsy, Dimness of Vision, Jaundice, Salt Rheum, Stranguria, Scrophula, Fluttering of the Heart, Nervousness, and General Debility; all these and many other similar complaints will be cured by the use of BULLOCK'S BLOOD BITTERS.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

Edison's First Marriage. The first Mrs. Edison was an operator in the Newark factory where Edison was making the machines to fill his first order for the stock indicator, which brought him into notice and formed the basis of his fortune.

BRASS AND PLUMBER SHOP, 96 Prince William St., Foundry, 21 Water St. BROWNLEY & CO. BOOKS AND STATIONERY. We are now showing full lines of Bank Books, Envelopes, Writing Paper, Etc. Also, a very large assortment of all the LATEST BOOKS. NEW YORK AND BOSTON DAILY PAPERS AND MAGAZINES always in Stock. All goods at lowest prices. Inspection invited. D. McARTHUR, 80 KING STREET.

NOW IS THE TIME To Order SHOW CASES for Spring. LeB. ROBERTSON, SAINT JOHN, N. B., IS AGENT FOR M. FROST & Co.'s CELEBRATED NICKEL CASES Write or Call for Catalogue and Prices. 500 DOZEN! OUR KID GLOVE.

"TANT MIEUX." THIS GLOVE is placed upon our counters DIRECT from the manufacturing tables of a GRENABLE FRENCH KID GLOVE HOUSE, for which we have been appointed the SOLE RETAIL and JOBBING AGENTS, and owing to its EXTREME LOW PRICE, together with the REMARKABLE SOFTNESS and ELASTICITY of its character, it has gained an unparalleled hold both in EUROPE and AMERICA, and is now offered THROUGH US to the public of ST. JOHN, at almost ONE-THIRD THE PRICE of a "JOSEPHINE" GLOVE, whilst in reputation it is rated with, and (in point of actual wearing value) is allowed to be EQUAL to any "TRESSE" or other high class glove made.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY A STEAM LAUNDRY. The Subscribers Beg Leave to Inform the Public that they have opened. Fully equipped with the latest machinery and experienced help to turn out first-class work. We would respectfully solicit a share of the patronage of the public. GODSOE BROS., Proprietors. Nos. 52 and 54 Canterbury Street.

Maritime Lead & Saw Works. JAS. ROBERTSON, IRON, STEEL & GENERAL METAL MERCHANT AND Manufacturer, OFFICE AND WAREHOUSE, Robertson's New Building, Cor. Mill and Union Streets. WILLIAM GREIG, Manager. Jennings the Bookseller Has Removed two doors below (the old stand 167 Union St.)—New Number 171.

NEW STORE. D. J. JENNINGS, 171 Union Street. Livery and Boarding Stables, Sydney Street, St. John, N. B. DAVID CONNELL, Horses Boarded on Reasonable Terms. Horses and Carriages on Hire. Fine Fit-outs at Short Notice.

TO LET In House No. 20 Queen St. Mrs. McCORMICK.

THE NEW BRUNSWICK RAILWAY CO. ANNOUNCE A Pullman Parlor Car Service between ST. JOHN and BOSTON. A Pullman Parlor Car is now attached to the FAST EXPRESS leaving St. John 6.10 a. m., running through, arriving in Boston 9.30 p. m. same day. Returning, attached to the train leaving Boston 7 p. m., running through, arriving in St. John 2.30 p. m. next day.

THE NEW BRUNSWICK RAILWAY CO. ANNOUNCE A Pullman Parlor Car Service between ST. JOHN and BOSTON. A Pullman Parlor Car is now attached to the FAST EXPRESS leaving St. John 6.10 a. m., running through, arriving in Boston 9.30 p. m. same day. Returning, attached to the train leaving Boston 7 p. m., running through, arriving in St. John 2.30 p. m. next day.