

member doing his utmost for its welfare. He also expressed his appreciation of the honor the Club had conferred on him by having elected him to preside over them for two consecutive years, and his pleasure at their choice of their new President, and expressed his readiness to do all in his power for the benefit of the Club at all times.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Annual Dinner was held in the Russell House in the evening, and covers were laid for 26.

The guests were : Lieut.-General Middleton; Col. Powell, Adjutant General; Major-General Oliver; Lt.-Col. Fairclough, R. A.; Lt.-Col. Cotton, R.C.A.; McLeod Stewart, Mayor of Ottawa; Mr. James Johnston; Mr. P. Taylor.

ROYA

The y
has increa
are out of

I hav efforts to munication
certain cha
ing annual am sorry to

Accor
copies of t
pressing th
of its mem
the death o
Denison, o

I also having the
the R. M. C
and the ma

In Ap
College tog