The Public Gardens of this city are known far and wide, and many persons competent to judge of such things have declared that in real beauty, artistic arrangement and the scruplous care with which they are always kept in the very pink of perfection, they have no equal in the temperate zone of this continent. Mr. Power takes a deep pride in his work, spares no pains, keeps himself well informed in the very latest methods and processes, and he is a very slave to duty. The resulte of his skill, taste and energy are patent to all. The Gardens now are a very popular resort for all classes, and will be still more so as a result of the proposed terminal construction which is bound to more or less interfere with the charm and safe approachableness of the Park. To walk through the Gardens with an eye to observing the beauties and a taste trained to appreciate them is an aesthetic education in itself. Controller Harris has given notice of a motion to do away with Natal Day, the melion to come up at the next meeting of the Board. In yesterday's issue of the Recourse there appeared a letter from a correspondent protesting against any such change. We heartily agree with our corporations, and is numbered five or elix before the audience was delighted and the members of the company, who evidently liked the well-merited token of appreciation, same with taste and discrimination that well deserved the recognition.

Although the members of the company responded in a generous way to a great delight at St. John.

We heartly agree with our cor-respondent. If there are too many half respondent. If there are too many holi-days, why should Natal Day be especially selected for expunging from the list? It is doubtful if there is any holiday observed in Canada, the observation of which can be better defended than that of Natal Day. in Canada, the observation of which can be better defended than that of Natal Day. The First of July marks the Union of the Provinces, a political event of great in portance, but only a political event. The flat of June commemorates something much more important, the actual founding of British Canada. When Cornwallis anchored his flotilla in the harbour in 1749, there was not a single English settlement within the bounds of English settlement within the bounds of what now constitutes the Dominion of Canada. There was no Toronto, no Ontorio, no New Brunswick, no P. E. Island. Quebes was entirely French, the only white people in Nova Scotia besides the small English garrison in Port Royal were French. Halifax was the first English settlement in the Dominion. It was the nucleus, the primal seed, the actual beginning of English Canada. Its settlement was, therefore, a momentous event, an event which it would be a national shame to forget. The shame would be double if the city itself forget or ignored the highest was the primary of the proprietor of the patent, at 18 Bedford Row.

A cricket match was played this aftermoon on the Common between two teams from the Victoria Cricket Club, captained by L. H. Creighton and A. Longard. The former was victorious. Among the players were R. Munnis and G. Taylor.

A scratch match took place to-day at Bedford Range between teams officered by Capt. Curren, ist G. A., and Lieut. Johnstone, 68rd. The latter won by 18 points. The teams were:

Oaph. Curren, Corpl. Maxwell, Corpl. Spencer and Gunner Forrester, lat G. A.—867.

REAPECTS BARING TO BBAT 2.10.

"Percy," the well known turf writer, who has recently visited the Dover N. H. tracks to inspect the horses of Walter Oox, says he regards the former Halifax trotting Baring "as one more good Bingara and apt to beat 210 a netto nor more when started." A stretch quarter in 32 seconds was play for him, and it being somewhat early he seems to have as good a chance as any in her class that have shown; some green one, however, may some to be right in the way. No use predicting this sarily set the line to Kremlin, though his dam leaves an enthushat to timprove as he races.

It is a portrait by Sir Joshua at his best and the canvass is in perfect condition.

"I bought the picture," said Rev. Mr. Barrass, "four years age from a dealer who knew it was Reynolds, but did not know who it represented. I am ready to sell it if Mr. MacMechan desires to purchase it. I have written to him to tell him I have it. The portrait is a half length. Cornwallis is standing wearing a blue coat and white stock. Dr. MacMechan wrote some time ago to There were no American League games yesterday, and rain prevented National games except that at Philadelphia, where the home team won from Cincinnati, 4 to 1. TORONTO, May 23.—W. Legrand-How land's problem play, "Deborah," dealing with maternity, taged at the Princess Theatre, Toronto, for the first time anywhere Tuesday, causes some excitement here. At the same time Gertrude Hogman is running at the Royal Alexandria, nearly across the street, in "From Broadway to Paris."

"Deborah" was not presented here tonight. In the afternoon Maynard White, the manager of the production, and the members of the company, had been found guilty of presenting an immoral play and were informed that should they stempt to continue the production to night a patrol wagon would be on hand at the theatre, and they would be all taken to the police station. Therefore, after consultation with legal counsel, it was decided to return the people's money and leave the theatre dark.

Maynard White had to pay a fine of $20, and Charlotte Nillson, Marie Day, Maud Sinelsir, Myra Brooke, Florence Windsor, Frank Gilmore and L. A. Dexter each had to pay a $5 ine.

[Miss Nillson appeared in Halifax some years ago in The Crust of Society and because of the company than because of the content of the castle which had to pay a $5 ine.

girls, who the roing princess insisted on inviting at the last moment in return for a personally embroidered present. A choir of men and bogs was stationed in the high galiery effecting the chapel just below the dome where they sang hymns unaccompanied by instrumental music.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal procession was marshaled into line by Count Augest Xu Elenburg, Grand Marshal of, the Imperial Court, and then proceeded the whole length of the castle through a long series of state spartments to the royal chapel. It was led by the bridal couple, the Princess' train being born by four of her girl friends. Prince Ernst August of Cumberland was dressed in Prussian Hussar uniform. After them came Emperor William with the Duchess of Cumberland. Then followed in order the Duke of Cumberland with the German Empress, the Emperor Nicholas of Russia with Queen Mary of England, King George of England with Crown Princess Cecilie, the Emperor william's sons with their consorts and fifty or more other Princes and Frincesses of the royal blood.

Dr. Ernst Drayander, the grand chaplain of the court, who had baptised Princess Victoria Luise, and prepared her for her confirmation, performed the ceremony, which was the simple Lutherian Rite. He then delivered the customary address of advice and admonition to the newly-married couple. John Glendenning left this afternoon to Mrs. R. L. Wambolt and Mrs. C. E. A meeting of the Dartmouth baseball league was held in St. Peter's Hall last evening. M. S. Regan was elected President of the league in place of T. Moran, resigned. The appointment of Mr. Regan to the position is a good one. He is well versed in the game, and under his leadership the league should be successful. The opening game will take place on Monday morning at 10 o'clock between St. Peter's and the North Stars. It it expected that Mayor. Williams will pitch the first ball. The batteries will be chosen from J. Kilroy and W. Tierney, pitchers, and Matthews, eatcher for St. Peter's; and Smith and R. Baxier pitchers, and Moore eatcher for the North Stars. The players will be chosen from the following:
