"Ebb and Flow" in the English language.

—Two promising young ladies, the Misses Alodia Muench and Frances Weber, of St. Peter's parish, went to Dead Moose Lake, Jan. 6th, with the intention of joining the Ursuline Nuns. They will be received, first, as postulants to the order, and if, after several months of probation, they have given signs of a genuine vocation, will be admitted to the novitiate and later on to the religious profession. The religious state is, undoubtedly, the most beautiful state of life in store for a pious Catholic young lady, if God calls her. The calling to the religious state is an extraordinary gift and grace of God which He distributes gratuitously to certain pious souls. The religious state is a state of perfection, because in it one consecrates himself, body and soul, to the service of God, and God in turn rewards such service a hundredfold already in this life, and with eternal bliss and happiness in the life to come. The above named two ladies, therefore, are deserving of our hearty congratulations for having cast their lot with God and obeyed His call.

—On New Years Day the Rev. Pastor, Father Chrysostom, in his announcements praised the choir for its efficient rendering of the Church's music during the past year. He felt confident that they would also do good work in that respect during the year just begun. Singing in church for God's honor and glory, with no earthly reward, except an occasional word of commendation, would certainly add a bright jewel to their heavenly crown.

—The following moneys have been received by St. Peters Bote during the course of last week: From a kind reader at Saskatoon $1.00 for the orphans, $1.00 for Rev. Father Egenolf and $1.00 for Rev. Father Brabender; from a generous subscriber at Fulda $3.00 for the orphans; from a charitable gentleman at Dead Moose Lake $1.00 for the orphans, $1.00 for Father Egenolf and $1.00 for Father Brabender; from a goodhearted man of the same place $5.00 for the orphans and $2.00 for Father Egenolf; from a reader at Bruno $5.00 for the orphans and from another reader of the same place $5.00 for the Missions. God bless you all, kind benefactors!

—On Jan. 1st three young lads, L. Ludwig of Bruno, H. Altrogge and B. Frie of St. Benedict, after paying their respects to the Rt. Rev. Abbot Bruno, went to St. John's College, Collegeville, Minn., to devote themselves to classical studies. The first two of the band were already, last year, studying at the Monastery here at Muenster.

—The weather of the past week was very changeable and, at times, extremely cold. On Jan. 2nd the thermometer dropped down to 39 degrees below Zero.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our many friends for their kindness and expressions of sympathy during our recent sad bereavement in the death of Mrs. Margaret Lennmerich.

St. Gregor Mercantile Company

ST. GREGOR, SASK.

THE BIG STORE

When commencing business in 1906 we erected the largest store building, barring none, in this community, thereby showing our confidence in the future of "St. Peter's Colony" as you are proud to call this district. There have been times since then, when prospects were not any too bright owing to conditions over which our settlers had no control and which repeat themselves in all new districts. Our firm however has never faltered in its utmost confidence in this district, in its inhabitants and their integrity and diligence. Time has proven us right, as to-day we have THE BEST community of Tillers of the Soil in Western Canada. Your "St. Peter's Colony" and Yourselves are not an experiment any more, but an accomplished FACT, due to your diligence and integrity, and the help of the Divine.

Our firm has always worked with you in the upbuilding of this neighborhood and will continue to do so, as YOUR SUCCESS IS OUR SUCCESS and PROPER Mercantile Conditions are absolutely essential to both.

Always at your SERVICE!

You will patronize us eventually. WHY NOT NOW?

A. J. RIES & SON

We never conduct FAKE SALES. Your money cheerfully refunded if your purchase is not satisfactory and YOU ARE THE JUDGE.

For the Winter Evenings

you need something to read for yourself and your family. Keep the young folks out of questionable company, by accustoming them to stay at home in the family circle. To do so, you must provide them with innocent enjoyments at home, and one of the best and most useful of such enjoyments is the reading of Good Stories.

If you have a parish library, do not fail to take out books regularly during the winter months. If there is no parish library in your vicinity, do not dread the expense of buying some good Catholic books. It is a good investment, better in fact than almost any other investment you can make for the comfort and pleasure of your family. Other articles, even the most expensive ones bought for the pleasure of the members of your family will soon grow old and will no longer cause the former enjoyment, but a good and interesting book is

It Joy forever.

It will be read and reread by all the members of the family and will cause new pleasure each time.

One of the best series of good Catholic stories is collected in the four volumes of

The Ebb and Flow of Life

They contain about forty good stories written by the famous Catholic author Monstare Konrad Kummel. They were first published in the German language in 1912 and soon the call for them was so great that four editions were sold within a couple of years. These stories are now available also in the English language, having been translated by a Father of St. Bede Abbey, Peru, Ill.

During the months of October and November 1918 we have given our Readers an opportunity to see what these stories are like, by publishing one of them entitled "Man and his Illusions" as a serial in our paper. We now offer the entire set of four large volumes containing each about 440 pages, well bound in full cloth, free by mail for the low price of

Only $5.00
for the entire set.

We can highly recommend this excellent work to persons looking about for suitable Presents.

Either the entire work or individual volumes are suitable for such a purpose. By purchasing a set of these books, you can make four of your friends happy at Christmas.

We have only a limited number of sets of the work on hand. Intending purchasers should therefore not delay sending their orders at once. When ordering, do not fail to send the $5.00 with the order.

Remember that we can furnish this work in the English language only. Therefore do not ask us to send it in German or any other language.
