LOGGIE MAY RETIRE Liberal Outlook in Northumberland So Blue that Robinson May Go by Acclamation.

(Special to the Star). NEWCASTLE, N. B., Oct. 18.—James Robinson has commenced his campaign in this county with every indication of victory. The followers of John Morrissey, the defeated candidate for the Liberal nomination, declare emphatically that they will not support Loggie and that no amount of persuasion on the part of Mr. Morrissey will induce them to do so. Last night Mr. Emmerson summoned Morrissey to Moncton and neither Emmerson nor any other man can dictate to the Morrissey's followers, the greater number of whom are now actually working on behalf of Robinson. The Conservative party in this county are certain of victory and there is a persistent rumor that W. S. Loggie will retire and allow Robinson to go in by acclamation.

TAKING AN ADVANTAGE. One day when all the animals were at peace the Wolf challenged the Kangaroo to a jumping match. The Wolf was told on every hand that he would be defeated, but he was confident of victory and insisted on going ahead. When the match came off, the Kangaroo covered three times the distance of the Wolf and the latter was derided for his conceit. He slunk away for a time, but later he called a public meeting and said: "Ladies and gentlemen, I don't deny that I was defeated in the jumping match the other day, but what I want to call your attention to is the fact that my opponent manfully took advantage of his long hind legs to do it. Moral: Few of us get a square deal in this world."

RATHER INSINUATING. "I'd like to thrash that son-in-law of mine," growled the wealthy old gentleman. "Why not?" asked the friend. "He said he was living on little or nothing."

FLAT FRICK. "Stub—But why did you give that man in the next flat a phonograph if you detested him?"

"Penn—For a purpose, old man. Stub—I don't see what it could be. Penn—Well, just as the phonograph started up the landlord lowered his rent."

EQUITY COURT.

Judge Barker Gives Judgement in Interesting Cases—Case Against F. H. Hale Dismissed.

The regular session of the St. John Equity Court was opened this morning by Judge Barker.

In the Hazen administration case an order was made to take the evidence of certain witnesses on Thursday next. The case of Myles vs. Wright was set down for trial on Saturday morning next.

Judgment was to have been delivered this morning in the case of Snow vs. the barque Beechdale, which was heard a few days ago. It was announced in the morning press that the case had been settled. Dr. A. A. Stockton, who represents the defendant, was unaware of any settlement, and the delivering of judgment was therefore deferred until it was ascertained that no settlement had been come to.

In the case of Simon H. White, Walter W. White and John E. Moore vs. McManus, M. G. Teed moved to have continued his application for an order on Sept. 30th, restraining the defendant from cutting timber and setting fires on certain lots of land. Order made to continue injunction.

In the matter of George Leonard Slipp, an imbecile, deceased, J. Roy Campbell moved for an order to vacate the recognizance entered into by the committee and their sureties. Order granted with costs.

Judgment was delivered in the cases of Buchanan vs. Harvie and Galside, and Leighton vs. Hale.

Buchanan vs. Harvie and Galside was a suit for the foreclosure of a mortgage on lands in Kings County. The principal advanced by the plaintiff was $2,500. The condition of redeeming the mortgage was the payment of $5,000 the New Brunswick Salt and Alkali Company, Ltd. The defendants took the position that the condition for redemption was extortionate and was a clog upon the equity of redemption and submitted that they should only repay $2,500 and interest. This view was not sustained by the judge, who gave decree for the payment of the full amount of the plaintiff's claim and costs. The parties reside in England. W. H. Trueman for plaintiff and E. G. Kay for defendant.

Leighton vs. Hale was a suit for the winding up of and the taking of accounts in a partnership alleged to exist between the plaintiff and defendant. The judge found that no partnership existed and dismissed the bill with costs, with the exception of costs of the plea of abandonment put in by the defendant, which he was ordered to pay. The parties reside in Woodstock. F. B. Carvell for the plaintiff, and J. C. Hartley for the defendant.

FIRE IN NORTH END Three Alarms for Slight Blaze at Hilyard's Mill—Hose Driver Dismissed.

At a quarter to seven o'clock this morning the firemen were called out by three alarms sent in from box 135. The fire was at Hilyard's mill. How it originated it is not quite certain, but once started it spread rapidly along the shingled side of the building and to the saw machines. Fearing a big conflagration the first alarm was hastily rung in, bringing the North End firemen. Two other alarms were sent in in quick succession and No. 4 Co. and No. 3 Co. responded. The fire, however, had in the meantime been extinguished by No. 5 firemen. The damage only amounted to a slight scorching.

Chief Kerr summarily dismissed this morning at the fire the driver of No. 5 hose cart. The cause of dismissal is not quite certain, but it is said that the driver, who is a new man, was slow in stretching his hose.

Only a few weeks ago Chief Kerr dismissed Haze Brown from the position of driver of No. 5 hose cart. This dismissal, it is understood, is to be investigated.

POLICE COURT. One Lonesome Prisoner. An Old Man, the Only Victim Today.

One lonesome prisoner, with mild benevolent aspect, and patriarchal whiskers, occupied the police court bench this morning and gazed around the room with the bleared, vacant expression common to those who have had a night of his name was Geo. Case, but he made no response when Magistrate Ritchie called out his name several times. At length Sergeant Lipwell went over to him and bawled the name in the old man's ear, telling him he was charged with drunkenness on Main street last evening. The old man looked up at the sergeant and respectfully touching his forehead said, "I acknowledge that's my name, your honor, but I can't plead guilty to being drunk."

Officer Henry's testimony was more satisfactory and Case was given ten days or four dollars. He paid up.

LATE RASPBERRIES. Thomas Woodland, of Rodney street, West End, presented the Star today with a luscious handful of ripe raspberries picked this morning in his "where's garden," where, without any particular care the bushes have been yielding fruit constantly since early summer. Mr. Woodland is not inclined to accept the belief of some of his neighbors that this remarkable yield is a direct result of the beneficent rule of the Liberal government.

SHEEP KILLING BEAR SHOT. Caught in a Trap After it Had Stolen Three Sheep at Hatfield's Point.

On Sunday James Mott and Edward Neill, of Hatfield's Point, Kings Co., put out of existence a large bear which for something over a year has been causing a lot of annoyance. The bear first made its appearance last summer in the neighborhood of the homes of Mr. Mott and Mr. Neill and carried off two sheep belonging to Mr. Mott. Last fall the same bear appeared and was again successful in getting away with another of Mr. Mott's sheep. It was this time, however, running out he saw the big black fellow secure in the trap. Mr. Neill procured a rifle and quickly ended Bruin's business by a bullet which pierced his brain.

CHESTNUTS AS A CURE FOR THE LIQUOR HABIT.

(From the Philadelphia Record.) "There should be less drunkenness at this season of the year than at any other time," said a specialist in nervous disorders who has a private sanitarium for the treatment of wealthy dilettantes. "It is not generally known—in fact, I claim the honor of the discovery—that roasted chestnuts are a good antidote for liquor. The average man who drinks under high nervous pressure, not for the sake of sociability, but because the alcohol stimulates him to greater effort, is the one whose nervous system is most quickly undermined. He may never get drunk, but there is the constant demand for over-stimulation that works damage in the end. No sooner does the effect of one drink wear off than there is the craving for another. Now, if that man would eat a few roasted chestnuts instead of taking another drink when the feeling comes on him, he would find that the substance of the nuts, have quickly absorbed the liquor already in the system, has appreciably decreased his longing for more alcoholic stimulant. It isn't a theory, I know it to be true."

HOPE FOR THE SEA-SICK. (From the London Globe.) There is a passage in the medical journal which will doubtless be exceedingly cheering to those who can understand it, but which is couched in such technical language that to the lay reader its meaning is more than a little obscure. It deals with that fascinating subject, the curing of seasickness. "Kopeke," says the writer, "believes that the different symptoms of seasickness are due to anaemia of the brain, and then valid relief upon this condition by raising the blood pressure." So far so good. The security begins from this point. "It also influences the gastric disturbances by lowering the sensibility of the nerve endings in the gastric mucous membrane." This affords hope for the voyager.

FIRE AT SILVER FALLS.

Charlton's Harness Shop Burned to the Ground.

The harness shop, owned by Mr. Charlton, of Silver Falls, was burned to the ground this morning about nine o'clock. The origin of the fire is a mystery, but when the blaze was first discovered it had gained such headway that the shop and all its contents were destroyed, despite the strenuous efforts of Mr. Charlton and several neighbors to subvert the flames. Mr. Charlton had a large stock of harness and carriage fittings on hand, and the loss will be heavy. The fire was kept from spreading to the house and barn.
