ALMOST SURE BODY IS THAT OF LEON LING

Several New Yorkers Positive Drowned Man Was Murderer

NEW YORK, July 2—Efforts to iden-tify the body of a Chinaman found in the Hudson River last night 28 that or the Hudson River last night of that of Leon Ling, charged with the murder of Elsie Sigel, or to prove it was not that of the man wanted, were contin-ued by the officers today. Coroner Mc-Donald at first said he was some it was Leon's body. Police Captain Garri and some of his detectives who viewed the body were inclined to think it was not sombled Leon. A number of persons who knew the Americanized Chinese well, were taken to the Fordnam Morgue today and viewed the body and if necessary members of the Sigel family will be asked to aid the police in this respect. The height, weight, complexion and certain peculiarities physical appearance of the dead man corresponded to those attributed to Leon in life. Leon't left shoulder was known to droop, his forehead was prominent and well rounded, his teeth in unusually good condition with none missing, all of which characteristics were noted in the body. A sit of clothing on the dead man except a silk underskirt, was one of the body in the Fordnam Morgue said he was sure it was that of Leon.

MESSINA, Sicily, July 2.—The people of Messina although still alarmed as the result of earth shocks of yesterday morning, are beginning to return from the country. The local authorities have adopted stringest measures to prevent anybody occupying houses that are not considered safe.

The shocks continue today, but they are less frequent and of diminishing DOWNIEVILLE, Cal., July 2.—For over a week earthquake shocks have been felt here every night and the residents of this part of Sierra Co. are getting uneasy, as they fear an eruption of Mount Flimore, which seems the centre of the disturbed area. Miners fearing cave-ins, are refusing to work underground.

PARIS, July 2.—'Princess Silva," an alleged alligator trainer, was attacked by an alligator today in the presence of a big crowd at Luna Park while exhibiting the animal, which recently had been brought from Florida. It siezed her right arm in its jaws and was crushing it when she drew a revolver with her left hand and fired five shots into the alligator's head, making it let go its hold. The woman's injuries are not fatal.

CROSS-CHANNEL FLIGHT

IS NOT YET ARKANGED

PARIS, July 2.—Debate was begun yesterday in the Chamber of Deputies on the report of the special committee which has been making an investigation into naval matters. The feature of the debate was the speech of Deputy Plichon, exposing to ridicule what he turmed "red tape of the ministry." He cited cases of the acquisition of a pair of sea boots from a coast guard and dog kennel which necessitated several months' correspondence thrugh "hierarchic channels" to and from the ministry and said that the replacing of a cracked tumbler on a flagship required the signature of the minister to the voucher. The solemn duty of one of the 26 departmental committees he declared, was to count the leeches which died at the naval dispensaries every three months.

BIG HOTEL AT LAKE PLACID DESTROYED

Fifty Guests Had a Narrow Escape from Burning lan Out in Their Night Clothes—Financial Loss is $200,000—Origin of the Fire is Unknown.

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., July 2-The last night. Some of the fifty guests had narrow escapes from death and were resound with great difficulty. one man was burned probably fatal-morning and the guests awakened from their slumbers narrowly escapedi with their lives. The fire, which is supposed to have started in the tower of the hotel from an unknown cause, was discovered by William Washburn, the night watchman, whose time clock shows that he had visited that point but a half hour before. He had reached the office of the hotel when he heard the crackling of the flames and running outside the building discovered the hotel to be ablaze and gave the alarm. All of the guests escaped, but none of them managed to save any off their belongings and several were obliged to fiee in their night clothes.

Albert Clapsaddle, one of the hotel employes, who slept beneath the tower in which the dire started, was the only person badly injured. He had faim chances for escape but foolishly went back for his watch and was overcome by the flames and badly burned about the head and face, receiving injuries from which he may die.
