Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, Ohio, or Philadelphia.

Humor and Philosophy

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

WE are always secretly looking for the discoverer of person who is going to one day discover genius in us.

Some men are honest, and others are rich.

A clever man may be handsome, but he never pardons the fact.

The only person that won't throw you down is the one whom you have securely tied up.

There are lots of girls who have cultivated a nice taste in imitation men.

Having authority and not knowing what to do with it is a thing that makes the gods shake their sides with mirth.

Nobody believes in lying. Perhaps that's the reason why so many like to experiment with it.

There are a few sorrows that money can't bring upon you, but not many.

It takes a hundred cents to make a dollar. Nevertheless in some quarters sense is much more scarce than dollars.

The worst thing about falling in love is that in order to be in a position to keep it up you have to fall out as often as you fall in.

The Difference.

"The difference between a girl and a widow?"

"Yes. What is it?"

"A widow doesn't want a man to kiss her."

"No?"

"No. She just wants him to want to kiss her."

How It Is.

"It takes two to make a quarrel."

"Only one."

"How is that?"

"The third person, you know."

Enough.

"She refused to marry him."

"What was the reason?"

"He was."

Moving Time.

Spring is here in all its splendor. Help in many ways to reason. With its promise true and tender. Not like winter, old offender. Winter burst a suspender. On a truly awful tender. When our cash and coal were slender. For it we should wear a fender. Not like that its lines will render. Spring, the healer and the mender. Creature of the softer center. We will be its strong defender. After that sultry season. Possibly we may be hardened. For a soft and noiseless dropping. Into blank verse for a minute. Just to catch our breath and reckon. Where we're at and where we're going. To resume, as we were saying. Spring is here and is displaying. Charming that several tons are weighing. Winter's forces are decaying. Now has come the time for playing. Would that we could go a-maying! But we must get down to draying. Time has come, there's no delaying. This by very easy stages. Gets us right down to our subject. Man's a restless, roving creature. He must pack his bag and baggage. And with all his goods and chatties. With the members of his family. He him off to other quarters. Two years in one mansion staying. Would subject him, he is certain. To the ridicule of neighbors. Now the time has come for fitting. In one place he can't be sitting. So the wise he must be fitting. For a place that seems more fitting. And, though privately admitting. That the house that he is quitting. Doesn't need so much fitting. That if he isn't submitting. But to fate he is submitting. And is going, going, going.

LOCALS

A large Great Dame Dog went mad on one of the hot days of last week in New York and before the police and others succeeded in shooting it, it had badly bitten a young girl and six horses, the girl was taken to a hospital for treatment.

Senator Gillmor received a lot of lumber on the Stmr. Connors Bros. this week to build a barn on his interval farm here, he also purchased a cartload of hardwood ashes from T. H. Frauley to apply to the same property and Mr. Frauley is here to superintend the applying of the ashes to the land, the ashes are now being spread and work will be commenced on the barn at once.

Mrs. E. A. MacPhee chaperoned a jolly hay-rack party to Green's Point, Letete on Saturday last. Those attending were Misses Thelma Andrews, Royce Goss, Hazel Fines, Laura Douds, Vera Taylor, Inez MacPhee, Edna Johnston and Messrs Frank Hibbard, Earle Dow, Charlie Cawley, Herb Parks, Jas. Watt, John and Arthur Dewar. The party left here at 9 a. m. and returned about 9.30 p. m. having spent a very pleasant day.

On account of the miserable and broken down engines that the C. P. R. put on this branch it is now a very rare exception for the train to get in anywhere near on time, Tuesday the engine broke down at Letete and it was nearly ten minutes before it arrived here and about 9.30 p. m. when it left for St. John on its return.

The scandalous manner in which this branch is run should be brought to the notice of the Railway Commission before some serious accident happens, and valuable lives lost through culpable neglect and mismanagement.

A. C. Toy who has been away for the past 8 or 10 days returned on Tuesday's train, accompanied by seven workmen whom he succeeded in getting at Weymouth, N. S. who had been working in the pulp mill at that place before it was burned. When the men got here and had an interview with the strikers whom they told they had not been properly informed of the situation, they decided to return to their homes which they did on Wednesday, thus leaving the strike situation in the same position. The foreman, Octave Plude and a few men have been partially running the wood mill for some days and getting some wood ready in case they are able to resume operations, which under the best circumstances would be for a short time unless heavy rains come to allow the stranded logs at the head of the river and on the branches to come out.

A very regrettable circumstance took place on Monday afternoon when Atkinson Carson, a life long resident of the county after medical examination by Doctors Taylor and Alexander and by direction of his two sons and brother, was taken to the Provincial Hospital.

Some years ago Mr. Carson had an extreme case and relapse of LaGrippe which left him in a very much weakened condition and shortly after, returning home from their work on the farm his youngest and favorite son remained behind at a brook, and Mr. Carson going back shortly after found the dead body of his son, this was such a shock in his weakened state of health that his mind was somewhat affected, other family troubles also occurred later and while he is perfectly sane on all other subjects at times, forms an opinion that certain people are trying to poison him, and his feelings are so real in that way that he apparently suffers considerable pain and cannot be convinced that such is not the case. At such times he is very anxious to prosecute the parties whom he suspects and is continually seeking law from the magistrate and has threatened that if the law will not protect him he will do so himself.

Unfortunately there are a number of young folks so thoughtless or contemptible that they go through actions before him at such times as he is bad that lead or encourage him in his hallucinations. It is hoped he will be benefited at the institution and return completely restored as far as a man of his age can be.

On Monday evening the Harbor presented an unusual scene of activity, the Stmr. Connors Bros. was unloading a large freight, the tern schooner John R. Fell came in under tow of the Eastport tug to load pulp, and just after the small auxiliary schooner "Little David" of Eastport came in to pass her papers to load down the river with boxwood for the Eastport canneries. The Connors Bros. remained at the wharf over night leaving early Tuesday morning. Tuesday evening was again quite lively, the Viking arriving at 6 p. m. with a full cargo of goods from St. Stephen houses for the merchants here, she also remained over night leaving again Wednesday morning about 9 a. m.

On Tuesday evening there were also four motor boats from Back Bay, Digby, Wash and other points and the English boat from Lorneville, D. I.

On Wednesday evening a slight sample of the evil effects caused by strikes was in evidence, some of the strikers going out to the Dolson house and breaking some of his windows. Dolson has been working for the Tulp Co. for some days, on their return from there about 11 p. m. they went to the mill boarding house and made some display of their intentions to oust the men from Back Bay who have been loading the schooner John R. Fell for the Co. they so frightened two of Mrs. Tuckers boarders that they hastily shifted their quarters. Mrs. Tucker also going to a neighbors house. Rumors are in circulation that more trouble may be in evidence tonight Thursday.

It almost seems as if Charlotte County will have a source of the army works this season as on one of the trips of the train this week between here and St. Stephen the men had to get out with brooms and shovels and clear the track of the pests thus losing almost an hour. Some few have been picked up here in town during the last few days. In some sections the tree have been completely stripped of their leaves.

The province of N. B. might learn something from the state of South Dakota. A Sioux Falls despatch says: "Representatives of commercial and industrial organizations throughout South Dakota are gathering here for a conference at which plans will be discussed for a systematic campaign to attract desirable settlers to this state."

A Toronto despatch states that both Ontario and the Maritime provinces are likely to lose some of their representatives in parliament and that the west will have about twenty-five new seats as a result of the distribution following the new census. This of course is not official but the forecast is very interesting to the people of the east.

Before sailing for England to discuss with the Imperial authorities the six tenders received for the construction of two cruisers and three destroyers in Canada, Commander Howe stated that political considerations would not in his opinion have anything to do with the choice of a site for the shipbuilding yards. It is, a commercial matter and will be settled on a commercial basis while he appears to think Montreal, Quebec or Sydney is likely to be chosen, he does not give any reason such as would exclude the port of St. John from consideration.

A quiet wedding took place at six o'clock Thursday morning at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen M. McCoy, on North street, when their daughter, Ruth Hewes became the bride of Duval King McGeachy, a popular young resident of St. Stephen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. Edgett of the Knight Memorial church. After a wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. McGeachy left on the morning train for a wedding trip to Boston and other cities.—Calais Times.
