DIAN FINANCIAL
RES LETTER

J. S. Bache and Co., in reviewing the market situation has the following:
The importation of gold marks the top in the money tension. The return of the West will begin reasonably soon, although big crops and car shortage may delay it somewhat beyond the usual time.
The general business of the country shows no appreciable halt. And, in fact, the report of bank clearings shows an increase in every part of the United States, indicating continued growing activity.
The Steel Company is operating 55 per cent. of its capacity and booking tonnage far into 1913 at good profit. The equipment companies are full of orders and the needs of railroads in this direction are very great. The stocks of these companies must feel the benefit soon.
Discussion of the tariff question has done great good, because it is becoming evident that only a few schedules will be affected, and the question of needed government revenue will have always a deferring influence on Congress—the hand that cuts but also needs the money and must not cut itself.
Stocks are in strong hands, with the market in perfect control. Bear prices are thus far ineffectual and prices remain irregular but not depressed. The rise is only deferred and is quietly waiting for normal money conditions. Meantime bear traders may bring about temporary declines, but the operation is difficult.

nually and 10 per cent. of the profit.

would surrender his contract which has four years to run.

MOULTON
HANDS OUT
SOME ADVICE
"Dad" Moulton, the veteran trainer of Sanford University, who was at one time considered one of the best sprinters in the world, is given all the credit for having developed such well known athletes as George Horine who is the world's record holder in the high jump, and Lanigan and Scott, pole vaulters.
His success in athletics is attributed by him to the system of training which he followed while under his guidance, the rules of which he published for the first time recently.
Some of them are:
First—Run at 7 or 7.30 and take a little bedroom exercise.
Second—Breakfast on fresh fruit, toast, beef and milk. Other meals will should consist of plenty of well cooked food. Simple desserts such as custard, pudding and apple sauce, are preferable to pastry and fancy dishes.
Never drink more than one cup of coffee a day and use tea and milk in moderation.
Third—Avoid liquor and tobacco absolutely.
Fourth—Retire about 10.30 or 11 o'clock. The last three weeks before an intercollegiate game attend no dances and retire at 10 o'clock.
Fifth—Train only for the event for which nature has fitted you.
Sixth—Practice absolutely regularly in eating, sleeping, drinking, training and studying.
Seventh—Use all your energies to win what is before you and make it temporarily the most important thing in the world.
After doing all of this—if you can —you can conquer the world and all that therein lie. Napoleon didn't do half as well.

WISCONSIN
WILL SEND
THREE CREWS
Madison, Wis., Nov. 25.—Wiscor-sin's improved showing in the Poughkeepsie regatta last spring will result in the sending of three crews to the big regatta next spring, as Vail, the coach, will soon ask the athletic board to appropriate funds for a fouroared crew.

The Baltimore oarsman with all his years of work for the Aerial Club of that city and the Harvard crew has had with him at Wisconsin this week. McCloud was varsity bow and Deutinger rowed No. 4. Tasker, Sjolund and other members of the crew who are here for practice.

Samp is playing on the football team and will report the results of the game. He will also report the results of the game. He will also report the results of the game.

Things grew worse and worse until the American league was organized with Han Johnson at its head. Johnson's attitude toward the league was unimpaired. He was never seen in uniform batting has been stopped.

It took Johnson long and weary months to demonstrate that he meant business, but he won the battle.
Nowadays nearly every player in the American league realizes it is a very difficult thing to beat an umpire. The national league slowly but surely fell into line and the disgraceful scenes of yesterday are seldom enacted now adays.

The battle between champion Ad-ward and Willie Ritchie for the lightweight title, which is to be held just outside of San Francisco on Thursday, is the chief one of the sporting interest here. Ritchie has not recovered sufficiently from his operation to make one of his old-time battles and he is a good kicker. He does not think that Ritchie will be strong
