Temperance Sunday

Under the auspices of the temperance workers of Zion church, a very entertaining programme was given in the school room of the church on Sunday afternoon. The day was temperance Sunday in the church.

In the evening a very impressive sermon appropriate to the occasion was given by the pastor.

Surprise Party

Mrs. Gertrude McHale was agreeably surprised last evening when a number of her friends called at her home and presented her with a more rocco hat. Mrs. McHale has for some years been a prominent member of the Bachelor Girls' Club and the presentation was made to her last evening by her associated members of the club, who called at her home, 609 Main street, early in the evening. The remainder of the evening was passed in a social manner.

HAD HARD TIME

Furness Liner Arrived at Queenstown with Crippled Steamer in Tow after Hard Time.

Queenstown, Nov. 11.—The steamer Rappahannock, one of the steamers which added the Volturo when she was burning, brought into port tonight the steamship South Point, bound from Philadelphia to London. The South Point's engines were crippled in a terrific storm on November 4. She sent out a wireless call for help and the Rappahannock picked her up the next day and towed her to Queenstown.

The two steamers arrived early this morning in a storm, which was howling and both remained off port until the storm abated, entering the harbor tonight.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Lucy McGregor.

Digby, N. S., Nov. 11.—Mrs. Lucy McGregor, wife of Nathaniel McGregor, watchman on the steamer Yarmouth, passed away at her home here last night after a short illness.

Before her last marriage she was the widow of Charles Borden. One child, and this by her first marriage, Mrs. Nellie Borden Gidspott, also survives.

The deceased was a daughter of the late John Mead, Digby.

Mrs. Margaret Lutz.

Moncton, Nov. 11.—The death of Mrs. Margaret M. Lutz, widow of John R. Lutz, occurred this morning at her home, Steeves' Mountain. She was 73 years of age and leaves a large circle of relatives and friends.

She is survived by three daughters and three sons—Mrs. David T. Geldart, Steeves' Mountain; Mrs. A. D. Brancome, Moncton; and Miss A. R. Slem, Mass.; Freeman K. Steeves' Mountain; Solomon, Moncton, and Humphrey, Lynn, Mass.

Michael Lacey.

The death of Michael N. Lacey, who has been in failing health for the last year, occurred Monday evening at his home at Clarendon Station. He was in his 83rd year. Two sons and five daughters survive—William of Adam Junction, George of Clarendon Station, Mrs. Ingraham of Boston, Mrs. Holland, of Seattle, Mrs. Cranston of Bangor, Mrs. Hooke of Farley, Mass., and Mrs. Frank Johnston of Clarendon Station. The funeral will take place this afternoon at Clarendon.

James Farish.

James Farish, aged 34, died at the residence of his aunt, Mrs. Charles Hodges, yesterday morning. He was a former ball player. He had been in failing health for several months.

The Second Puzzle

Correct Solution of the First Puzzle is 6381

All those who submitted 6381 as the solution of the former puzzle are entitled to submit a solution of the second. As more contestants are tied on the solution of the first puzzle than there are prizes, all those who submitted any other than the correct solution are eliminated.

Only one solution of the second puzzle may be submitted. Once submitted the solution cannot be changed.

This puzzle will be given but three insertions, today and tomorrow and Thursday.

In the event of ties in this second puzzle a third puzzle will be presented, and only those who were tied in solving the second puzzle will be permitted to participate in the solution of the third puzzle, unless those tied unanimously prefer to make some other disposition of the prizes. Should a third puzzle be presented, and further ties ensue, the prizes will be equally divided between those tied.

THIS CHART APPEARS BUT THREE TIMES—TUESDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW
