A TREASURE BAG

A little travelling bag which has been on a long, long journey has recently returned filled to the brim with the grateful appreciation of the woman for whom it was made. Never did one give greater service and convenience. This bag is made out of blue and white material, because blue is especially favored by its owner. A piece of blue and white flowered ribbon, half a yard in length and six inches wide, a bit of the same ribbon three and a half inches square, a bit of white satin ribbon of the same dimensions, a piece of white satin ribbon half a yard in length and two inches wide, a yard and a half of white silk cord, some white embroidered silk and a cardboard circle three inches in diameter, are all that is required for the manufacture of the bag itself.

The cardboard circle is covered on one side with the small piece of blue and white ribbon, and on the other with the white ribbon, the whole whipped neatly together. The bottom of the bag, with the blue and white ribbon on the outside and the white on the inside. To it is tacked the half-yard length of blue and white flowered ribbon. At the top a half-inch heading is turned down and featherstitched along the outside of the bag, with the white silk. Through this is drawn the white silk cord. The ends are cut and knotted and the outside of the bag is then finished. The white satin ribbon is homed neatly together and whopped along its lower edge to the inside of the bag, just above the cardboard bottom. Featherstitching of the white silk, on the outside of the bag, divides the white satin ribbon into 10 neat little compartments, each with its pocket top left open. Four loops are made on the white satin bottom of the bag and the construction is then finished.

Then comes the stocking of it, and in that the maker of this little bag allowed the ingenuity which brought forth the praise of the one to whom it was given. A tiny orange ball of wax was swung by a wee bit of blue ribbon, just beneath the top of one side of the bag. Opposite it was swung also on the inside of the bag, a wee little blue emery. Through the loops on the bottom of the bag were stuck a tiny scissors and an ivory bodkin.

In the little pockets were slipped a tiny tape measure in a gift case, a little bit of emery, a wee little black darning silk and one with white darning silk, a strip of safety pins, one of common pins, a strip of white hooks and eyes and one of black ones, a card of white pearl buttons, some tiny creels of white and black cotton and silk, an ivory thimble and a paper of needles of assorted sizes. Two darning needles were stuck through the inside of the bottom of the bag, and the outside was adorned with a row of black and white headed pins of different sizes. Even when the recipient added various other trifles to the bag, the way of bolts of lingerie ribbon and colored silks, it lay almost as flat as a handkerchief, took up practically no more space and added no appreciable weight to the luggage. In view of which, the owner declared that she felt quite justified in calling it by the name so popular among small girls at the present moment, a treasure bag.—Christian Science Monitor.

Y. W. C. A. WORKERS HUSTLING.

Plans are about complete for Wednesday's sharp quick drive to raise $10,000 with which the Sears Building, 23 King street, is to be fitted out as a home for the business girls of St. John—the unheeded ones—under the protecting banner of the Young Women's Christian Association. Tonight in the G. W. V. A. Hall, Wellington Row, a public meeting will be held by the Y. W. C. A. at which Miss Loan, national war work secretary, and Miss E. Frances Jones of the Toronto headquarters, will address those present, as will also local officers. A cordial invitation is extended to the people of St. John to attend tonight's meeting, starting at 8 o'clock. Tuesday at 1 p.m., there will be a luncheon in the new cafeteria at the Marsh Road shell plant, for those who are to be collectors in the Wednesday campaign. Final instructions will be given upon this occasion. The use of the Dufferin Hotel corridors has been donated for the purpose, and it is at this point the collectors will assemble Wednesday before one o'clock to proceed to lunch.

RALLY DAY IN KNOX CHURCH

Rally Day was observed in Knox church Sunday school yesterday afternoon with an attendance of over 200 pupils. On account of the absence, due to sickness, of J. J. Irvine, the superintendent, the pastor, Rev. H. C. Fraser conducted the meeting. W. Capsum, the assistant superintendent, was also on the platform and spoke briefly. Rev. Mr. Fraser spoke interestingly on "The Wonderful Name of Jesus," in which he showed the wonderful power contained in the name. A large number of pupils graduated yesterday, twenty going from the cradle roll to the beginners' department, ten from that department to the primary and nine from the primary to the junior. The junior, intermediate and senior departments were not able to graduate yesterday on account of being held back by the recent epidemic.

DEVIL AND KAISER

Rev. A. L. Tedford in Sermon Last Evening Spoke on Difference Between the Two.

A full house, greeted Rev. A. L. Tedford last night at the Tabernacle Baptist Church and listened intently to the message of the evening as the pastor spoke on the subject, "What is the Difference Between the Devil and the Kaiser?" The large congregation scarcely moved during the course of the whole sermon as the speaker with passionate earnestness tried to show up the nefarious work of the Devil on the earth among men. He spoke on the hatred that the world had for the Kaiser, hating him worse than the Devil for they would grant him no mercy and have nothing whatever to do with him. But by all appearances the Devil was playing a cunning game. Tonight in the German plans in public, in the home and in private life. The speaker made a comparison between the work of the Devil and the Kaiser in regard to their desire of each ruling the world. He referred to the Kaiser's defection as he had duped the world, deceived himself and his leaders that they were able to conquer the world, and his own people in seeking the Fatherland and all their rights were menaced.

HOW THE DOMINION ASSISTED IN THE WAR

Canada Has Sent 418,980 Soldiers to Fight Overseas—Over Fifty Thousand Are Dead—Principal Engagements.

Toronto, Nov. 23.—G. B. Westcott, of Collingwood, comments on the statement of the militia department that they had no knowledge of the Canadian artillery reported to be fighting with the Allies against the Bolshevik forces near Archangel. He says: "About the end of August this year volunteers were called for from the artillery units then at Wilby Camp (Canadian) to form a brigade to go to Northern Russia. This brigade, the 14th, left Wilby on the 19th of September and sailed with other troops in a convoy from a Scotch port two days later for Archangel. When last I heard (November 14) the brigade was sailing down the river (probably the Dvina) and there is no doubt that the brigade referred to is that one. The rest of the brigade was made up of American and British troops."

Mr. Westcott has his information from letters from relatives with this force.

A BIT OF VERSE

THE SINS OF THE FATHERS.

(By Edgar A. Guest.)

The sins of the fathers from year to year
Shall visit the children. So runs the law.
Men's blood remains when the souls withdraw.
Men's debts remain till the books are clear.

And the child must pay for his father's deeds
And bear the shame of his broken creeds.
Bitter the path of the German child,
That shall face the world in the

"Why do the neighbors turn from me?"
He shall ask his mother, "Am I defiled?"
And she shall answer, "You're not to blame,
But you are stamped with your father's shame."

"Time was that honor was ours to know
And we were a people the world admired."
But the soul of our Kaiser with lust was frod
And he plunged us all to the depths of woe.

And now, long years, to our last ing shame,
We slaughtered the innocent in his name.

"To do his bidding, our men forgot
In their hours of passion that they were men,
They preyed on the helpless as
In the name of Kultur, were women shot,

And countless people were drowned at sea.
For a Kaiser's dream that could never be.

"Oh, boy, you must suffer and not complete,
Though you wear the badge of your father's sin.
The faith that was lost is now yours to win.
The cost of honor you must regain.

You must wear, till men find that your word is true,
The shame that your fathers have placed on you."

COUGHED, COUGHED

ALL NIGHT LONG

Terribly wearing on the system is the cough that comes at night and prevents sleep. Sometimes it is a constant cough, cough that will not be quieted. Sometimes it is a choked-up, stuffed-up feeling that makes breathing difficult, and sleep impossible. Whatever kind of a cold or cough you have, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is the remedy you need to cure it, for the simple reason that this valuable preparation combines all the lung healing virtues of the Norway pine tree, which is combined with cherry bark, and the soothing, healing and expectorant properties of other excellent herbs and barks.

Miss Margaret Landry, Bristol, P. E. I., writes: "I am writing to tell you the benefit I have received from Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup."

"Last fall I took a severe cough and cold in my head. I was unable to do anything. At night I could not sleep but cough, cough, all night long. A friend advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and before the second bottle was used, I was entirely cured, and I have found this the best cough medicine I can buy."

Do not accept any other "pine" preparations when you ask for "Dr. Wood's." This remedy has been on the market for a quarter of a century. It is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A BIT OF FUN

Knew the Lady.

When little Ernest was out walking with his mother one day he suddenly pointed to a lady across the road and said:
"Oh, mamma, I know that lady over there! She often speaks to me."
"Does she, really, darling?" answered the mother. "And what does she say?"

"She—she—well, she usually says, 'Don't you dare to throw stones at my dog again, you little wretch!'"

"Hard," snorted the gentleman of wealth—"hard! It is impossible!"

Mustn't Overheat.

"When feeding the furnace it's proper," said Teal.
"To give it at present a rather light meal!"

Swat Him.

Till he drops
His sword and gun,
Keep right on
And swat the Hun.

SWALLOW SONG.

O little hearts, beat home, beat home,
Here is no place to rest;
Night darkens on the falling foam,
And in the fading west.

O little hearts, beat home, beat home,
Love may no longer roam.
O love has touched the fields of wheat,
The love has crinkled the corn,
And we must follow love's white feet,
Thro' all the ways of morn';
Thro' all the silver roads of air,
We pass and have no care.

The silver roads of love are wide
O winds that turn, O stars that guide;
Sweet are the paths that love has trod,
Thro' the clear skies that reach to God;
But in the cliff-grass love builds deep,
A place where wandering winds may sleep.

—Marjorie Pickthall.

(This little poem by Marjorie Pickthall, one of Canada's young poets and writers, is exquisite in the delicate pictures presented to the eye of the imagination. Those who love the outdoors will find in it a special appeal, for its every line is touched with tender loveliness.)
