

SAYS WE HAVE FAILED TO RECOGNIZE OBLIGATIONS TO THE IMMIGRANT

Rev. J. Hunter Boyd, Secretary of the Overseas Welcome at Glasgow, Thinks Canada has Followed Too Closely the Movements in the United States—State Machinery Should Be Used to Greater Advantage.

Wednesday, Nov. 27.

The Rev. J. Hunter Boyd, secretary of the Overseas Welcome at Glasgow, who has been for two years, arrived in St. John yesterday and was warmly welcomed by old friends.

Rev. Mr. Boyd is employed by the Presbyterian church of Canada, and has his office in Glasgow, near the piers whence the emigrants leave for Canada. He has charge of the social service work on all steamers, regarding the race or creed of the people departing for this country.

He takes note of all cases such as those of a mother with her children, or young women traveling alone, or others requiring special attention on this side, and sends information by a faster steamer to a chaplain, or a travelers' aid, or a Y. M. C. A., or whatever the case calls for.

Mr. Boyd pointed out that he was not, as some supposed, employed by the Canadian government. For several years European governments had sent invitations to Canada to send a delegate to annual conferences on this side, and send information until this year, but the invitation of the Belgian government had been accepted and the Canadian government had declined.

He has not quit his post in Glasgow at all, but is continuously employed by the Presbyterian church of Canada. He is here now to report, and also to learn so that he can report on the other side what provision is being made in Canada for the reception of immigrants. "Canadians," he said, "have failed to recognize their obligation to the immigrant. We have followed too closely the movements in the United States, whereas our situation is entirely different. We are not asking for immigrants at all. We are, and we should look after them. We have perplexed the European countries by not letting them know how far we are discharging our moral obligation in this respect."

"I believe," said Mr. Boyd, "that we have state machinery which we do not use and voluntary organizations are trying to do what a state department ought to do. I am expected not only to report in this country as to the remarkable extension of the operations in my office, but the people on the other side want a wider and more detailed survey of the preventive agencies in operation here."

Mr. Boyd says that everybody on the other side knows about our 100 acres of land, but they want to know about how we are solving our moral and social problems, what the social and moral conditions are in Canada, and what provision is made for taking care of the immigrants.

Mr. Boyd expects to remain in Canada until Christmas and go back to St. John to Glasgow. He says he has a great joy in the papers that such questions as welfare planning, child protection and social reform are the subject of discussion here.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Ann Sweet

Tuesday, Nov. 26. Mrs. Mary Ann Sweet, widow of the late Robert Sweet, of Malross (Mass.), and daughter of the late Charles and Martha Bradley, died on Monday at her residence of Mrs. S. W. Thomson. Mrs. Sweet was in her 78th year and many friends will learn with regret of her death.

Mrs. T. J. Elliott

Tuesday, Nov. 26. After only a brief illness, Mrs. Thomas J. Elliott died at her home, 42 Elford street, early last night. Mrs. Elliott was in good health on Sunday and was taken ill Sunday night. Dr. Broderick was summoned, but her illness was not considered serious. Last night, however, she took a bad turn and died after medical assistance could reach her. Much sympathy will be extended to the bereaved family by those who knew the deceased in his bereavement.

Miss Jennie Orr

Monday, Nov. 25. Miss Jennie Orr, daughter of Captain and Mrs. George Orr, passed away at her home in Jardine street, after a long illness, at the age of twenty-one years and eight days. She was a bright girl of kind disposition, and her death is greatly regretted. She is survived by her parents, four brothers and several sisters. The funeral will be held at 2.30 p.m. on Friday morning at 8 o'clock.

Miss Agnes Henderson

Thursday, Nov. 28. The death of Miss Agnes Henderson occurred yesterday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. McKinley, in St. Patrick street. She was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson of Welsford and after the death of her parents came to the city to reside with her sister. She had been ill for several months. Three sisters survive, Mrs. McKinley of St. Patrick street, Mrs. John Brattin and Mrs. George McLaren, also of this city.

Mrs. Kate Starr Wyman

Many in St. John will read with sorrow of the death of Mrs. Kate Starr Wyman, in West Somerville, Mass. The Somerville Journal says:

Mrs. Kate Starr (Day) Wyman died of an aneurism at 10 p.m. last Friday at her home, 105 Rogers avenue. Although she had been in very poor health the past year she was up and about until November 6, and attended to her household duties, assisted by her sister-in-law, Miss Belle Wyman, who had made her home with her for twenty-two years.

Mrs. Wyman was the widow of Captain Alford Walter Wyman, who, with eleven other members of the crew of the Standard Oil company's sailing vessel, Johanna, was lost at sea when the ship foundered off the Delaware capes during a storm on November 23, 1905. Captain Wyman and part of the crew left the ship in a lifeboat which was submerged in the heavy sea. Thirteen other members of the crew, in a more fortunate lifeboat, were rescued.

Mrs. Wyman was born in Liverpool, N. S., July 14, 1865; she was the daughter of Thomas Day, a sea captain, and Mrs. Sarah (McLeod) Day, who has been dead a number of years. She was married to Mr. Wm. S. Wyman, twenty-four years ago, and lived there and in St. John until six years ago, when the family came to this city.

She attended the Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Wyman leaves two children, Percy Day Wyman, twenty-two, and Mrs. Belle Wyman, a second-year student of the Somerville high school. There are also two brothers, Thomas E. Day, of Gloucester, and Andrew Day, of Boston.

A largely attended funeral was held at 10.30 a.m. yesterday afternoon. It was conducted by Rev. James F. Allen, of Wintthrop, a former pastor of the Park avenue Methodist church. Two ladies sang "Lead Kindly Light." There were many beautiful floral tributes. Burial was at Milton cemetery.

Mr. Wm. S. Bruce

Wednesday, Nov. 27. The death of Mrs. Eliza Bruce occurred yesterday morning at her home in Duke street. She was 83 years of age and was the widow of Wm. S. Bruce, who for several years was in charge of the business of St. John. She was born at Black River, but resided in St. John nearly all her life. She was a prominent member of the congregation of Trinity church, and will be greatly missed in church circles. The sons and four daughters survive. The sons are William H. of Hartford, Conn., and Samuel D. of Malden, Mass. The daughters are Mrs. G. C. Stephenson of Portland, Oregon; Mrs. Brown, of Fairfield, N. B.; and Misses Eva and Isabelle at home. Several grandchildren also survive. The funeral will be held at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at 230 o'clock. Interment will be at her late home 276 Duke street. Funeral services will be conducted in Trinity church.

John P. Thomas

Wednesday, Nov. 27. The death of John P. Thomas took place yesterday afternoon at his residence, Waterloo street. Mr. Thomas was eighty-one years of age and had resided in St. John for the greater part of his life. He had been ill during the last six months. He learned his trade as a ship's blacksmith with James Lemmon, and later worked in the fish shanty. He was an employee of the old firm of Lemmon and Fowler, and when that firm dissolved he went with the Joseph Fowler Co. in City Road.

He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Davis, wife of Captain Davis, Gertrude M., at home, and Lottie S., of Macleay Bros. & Co., and three sons, Albert J., of Medford; Ernest E., of Macleay Bros. & Co.; and John P. Thomas, pastor of Carleton Methodist church.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from his late residence, 169 Waterloo street. There will be deep sympathy extended to the bereaved family in their loss.

Col. D. McLeod Vince

Woodstock, N. B., Nov. 26.—Col. D. McLeod Vince, one of the best known bartenders in New Brunswick, and a man held in the highest esteem by all denominations, passed away at his home here last evening at 10 o'clock. He had been in failing health for the past year but was able to attend to business until about five weeks ago.

Col. Vince was born in Berwick on Tuesday, Nov. 20, 1848. His father, Robert Vince, was a veteran of the Crimean war, and his mother was a McLeod. He was educated in Dublin, and came to New Brunswick in 1868. He first engaged in teaching and the old school law and afterwards became active in mercantile business. In 1870 he entered the office of the late Hon. L. P. Fisher as a law student, and was a graduate of the Boston law school, and in 1880 he admitted to an attorney, and has since that time worked up a large practice. The real purpose and energy of his life, however, was given to the work of the Canadian militia, and he was known in Canada, as well as in the most efficient officers. Col. Vince was a member of the United Baptist church, and was the amalgamation of the two churches was made in 1880.

The members of the various boards of trade who will go to Europe on the Canadian trade mission early in the new year, are likely to have an enjoyable as well as a profitable trip. Arrangements are already being made for their entertainment on the other side, and several intimations

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Ann Sweet

Tuesday, Nov. 26. Mrs. Mary Ann Sweet, widow of the late Robert Sweet, of Malross (Mass.), and daughter of the late Charles and Martha Bradley, died on Monday at her residence of Mrs. S. W. Thomson. Mrs. Sweet was in her 78th year and many friends will learn with regret of her death.

Mrs. T. J. Elliott

Tuesday, Nov. 26. After only a brief illness, Mrs. Thomas J. Elliott died at her home, 42 Elford street, early last night. Mrs. Elliott was in good health on Sunday and was taken ill Sunday night. Dr. Broderick was summoned, but her illness was not considered serious. Last night, however, she took a bad turn and died after medical assistance could reach her. Much sympathy will be extended to the bereaved family by those who knew the deceased in his bereavement.

Miss Jennie Orr

Monday, Nov. 25. Miss Jennie Orr, daughter of Captain and Mrs. George Orr, passed away at her home in Jardine street, after a long illness, at the age of twenty-one years and eight days. She was a bright girl of kind disposition, and her death is greatly regretted. She is survived by her parents, four brothers and several sisters. The funeral will be held at 2.30 p.m. on Friday morning at 8 o'clock.

Miss Agnes Henderson

Thursday, Nov. 28. The death of Miss Agnes Henderson occurred yesterday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. McKinley, in St. Patrick street. She was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson of Welsford and after the death of her parents came to the city to reside with her sister. She had been ill for several months. Three sisters survive, Mrs. McKinley of St. Patrick street, Mrs. John Brattin and Mrs. George McLaren, also of this city.

Mrs. Kate Starr Wyman

Many in St. John will read with sorrow of the death of Mrs. Kate Starr Wyman, in West Somerville, Mass. The Somerville Journal says:

Mrs. Kate Starr (Day) Wyman died of an aneurism at 10 p.m. last Friday at her home, 105 Rogers avenue. Although she had been in very poor health the past year she was up and about until November 6, and attended to her household duties, assisted by her sister-in-law, Miss Belle Wyman, who had made her home with her for twenty-two years.

Mrs. Wyman was the widow of Captain Alford Walter Wyman, who, with eleven other members of the crew of the Standard Oil company's sailing vessel, Johanna, was lost at sea when the ship foundered off the Delaware capes during a storm on November 23, 1905. Captain Wyman and part of the crew left the ship in a lifeboat which was submerged in the heavy sea. Thirteen other members of the crew, in a more fortunate lifeboat, were rescued.

Mrs. Wyman was born in Liverpool, N. S., July 14, 1865; she was the daughter of Thomas Day, a sea captain, and Mrs. Sarah (McLeod) Day, who has been dead a number of years. She was married to Mr. Wm. S. Wyman, twenty-four years ago, and lived there and in St. John until six years ago, when the family came to this city.

She attended the Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Wyman leaves two children, Percy Day Wyman, twenty-two, and Mrs. Belle Wyman, a second-year student of the Somerville high school. There are also two brothers, Thomas E. Day, of Gloucester, and Andrew Day, of Boston.

A largely attended funeral was held at 10.30 a.m. yesterday afternoon. It was conducted by Rev. James F. Allen, of Wintthrop, a former pastor of the Park avenue Methodist church. Two ladies sang "Lead Kindly Light." There were many beautiful floral tributes. Burial was at Milton cemetery.

Mr. Wm. S. Bruce

Wednesday, Nov. 27. The death of Mrs. Eliza Bruce occurred yesterday morning at her home in Duke street. She was 83 years of age and was the widow of Wm. S. Bruce, who for several years was in charge of the business of St. John. She was born at Black River, but resided in St. John nearly all her life. She was a prominent member of the congregation of Trinity church, and will be greatly missed in church circles. The sons and four daughters survive. The sons are William H. of Hartford, Conn., and Samuel D. of Malden, Mass. The daughters are Mrs. G. C. Stephenson of Portland, Oregon; Mrs. Brown, of Fairfield, N. B.; and Misses Eva and Isabelle at home. Several grandchildren also survive. The funeral will be held at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at 230 o'clock. Interment will be at her late home 276 Duke street. Funeral services will be conducted in Trinity church.

John P. Thomas

Wednesday, Nov. 27. The death of John P. Thomas took place yesterday afternoon at his residence, Waterloo street. Mr. Thomas was eighty-one years of age and had resided in St. John for the greater part of his life. He had been ill during the last six months. He learned his trade as a ship's blacksmith with James Lemmon, and later worked in the fish shanty. He was an employee of the old firm of Lemmon and Fowler, and when that firm dissolved he went with the Joseph Fowler Co. in City Road.

He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Davis, wife of Captain Davis, Gertrude M., at home, and Lottie S., of Macleay Bros. & Co., and three sons, Albert J., of Medford; Ernest E., of Macleay Bros. & Co.; and John P. Thomas, pastor of Carleton Methodist church.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from his late residence, 169 Waterloo street. There will be deep sympathy extended to the bereaved family in their loss.

Col. D. McLeod Vince

Woodstock, N. B., Nov. 26.—Col. D. McLeod Vince, one of the best known bartenders in New Brunswick, and a man held in the highest esteem by all denominations, passed away at his home here last evening at 10 o'clock. He had been in failing health for the past year but was able to attend to business until about five weeks ago.

Col. Vince was born in Berwick on Tuesday, Nov. 20, 1848. His father, Robert Vince, was a veteran of the Crimean war, and his mother was a McLeod. He was educated in Dublin, and came to New Brunswick in 1868. He first engaged in teaching and the old school law and afterwards became active in mercantile business. In 1870 he entered the office of the late Hon. L. P. Fisher as a law student, and was a graduate of the Boston law school, and in 1880 he admitted to an attorney, and has since that time worked up a large practice. The real purpose and energy of his life, however, was given to the work of the Canadian militia, and he was known in Canada, as well as in the most efficient officers. Col. Vince was a member of the United Baptist church, and was the amalgamation of the two churches was made in 1880.

The members of the various boards of trade who will go to Europe on the Canadian trade mission early in the new year, are likely to have an enjoyable as well as a profitable trip. Arrangements are already being made for their entertainment on the other side, and several intimations

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Ann Sweet

Tuesday, Nov. 26. Mrs. Mary Ann Sweet, widow of the late Robert Sweet, of Malross (Mass.), and daughter of the late Charles and Martha Bradley, died on Monday at her residence of Mrs. S. W. Thomson. Mrs. Sweet was in her 78th year and many friends will learn with regret of her death.

Mrs. T. J. Elliott

Tuesday, Nov. 26. After only a brief illness, Mrs. Thomas J. Elliott died at her home, 42 Elford street, early last night. Mrs. Elliott was in good health on Sunday and was taken ill Sunday night. Dr. Broderick was summoned, but her illness was not considered serious. Last night, however, she took a bad turn and died after medical assistance could reach her. Much sympathy will be extended to the bereaved family by those who knew the deceased in his bereavement.

Miss Jennie Orr

Monday, Nov. 25. Miss Jennie Orr, daughter of Captain and Mrs. George Orr, passed away at her home in Jardine street, after a long illness, at the age of twenty-one years and eight days. She was a bright girl of kind disposition, and her death is greatly regretted. She is survived by her parents, four brothers and several sisters. The funeral will be held at 2.30 p.m. on Friday morning at 8 o'clock.

Miss Agnes Henderson

Thursday, Nov. 28. The death of Miss Agnes Henderson occurred yesterday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. McKinley, in St. Patrick street. She was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson of Welsford and after the death of her parents came to the city to reside with her sister. She had been ill for several months. Three sisters survive, Mrs. McKinley of St. Patrick street, Mrs. John Brattin and Mrs. George McLaren, also of this city.

Mrs. Kate Starr Wyman

Many in St. John will read with sorrow of the death of Mrs. Kate Starr Wyman, in West Somerville, Mass. The Somerville Journal says:

Mrs. Kate Starr (Day) Wyman died of an aneurism at 10 p.m. last Friday at her home, 105 Rogers avenue. Although she had been in very poor health the past year she was up and about until November 6, and attended to her household duties, assisted by her sister-in-law, Miss Belle Wyman, who had made her home with her for twenty-two years.

Mrs. Wyman was the widow of Captain Alford Walter Wyman, who, with eleven other members of the crew of the Standard Oil company's sailing vessel, Johanna, was lost at sea when the ship foundered off the Delaware capes during a storm on November 23, 1905. Captain Wyman and part of the crew left the ship in a lifeboat which was submerged in the heavy sea. Thirteen other members of the crew, in a more fortunate lifeboat, were rescued.

Mrs. Wyman was born in Liverpool, N. S., July 14, 1865; she was the daughter of Thomas Day, a sea captain, and Mrs. Sarah (McLeod) Day, who has been dead a number of years. She was married to Mr. Wm. S. Wyman, twenty-four years ago, and lived there and in St. John until six years ago, when the family came to this city.

She attended the Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Wyman leaves two children, Percy Day Wyman, twenty-two, and Mrs. Belle Wyman, a second-year student of the Somerville high school. There are also two brothers, Thomas E. Day, of Gloucester, and Andrew Day, of Boston.

A largely attended funeral was held at 10.30 a.m. yesterday afternoon. It was conducted by Rev. James F. Allen, of Wintthrop, a former pastor of the Park avenue Methodist church. Two ladies sang "Lead Kindly Light." There were many beautiful floral tributes. Burial was at Milton cemetery.

Mr. Wm. S. Bruce

Wednesday, Nov. 27. The death of Mrs. Eliza Bruce occurred yesterday morning at her home in Duke street. She was 83 years of age and was the widow of Wm. S. Bruce, who for several years was in charge of the business of St. John. She was born at Black River, but resided in St. John nearly all her life. She was a prominent member of the congregation of Trinity church, and will be greatly missed in church circles. The sons and four daughters survive. The sons are William H. of Hartford, Conn., and Samuel D. of Malden, Mass. The daughters are Mrs. G. C. Stephenson of Portland, Oregon; Mrs. Brown, of Fairfield, N. B.; and Misses Eva and Isabelle at home. Several grandchildren also survive. The funeral will be held at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at 230 o'clock. Interment will be at her late home 276 Duke street. Funeral services will be conducted in Trinity church.

John P. Thomas

Wednesday, Nov. 27. The death of John P. Thomas took place yesterday afternoon at his residence, Waterloo street. Mr. Thomas was eighty-one years of age and had resided in St. John for the greater part of his life. He had been ill during the last six months. He learned his trade as a ship's blacksmith with James Lemmon, and later worked in the fish shanty. He was an employee of the old firm of Lemmon and Fowler, and when that firm dissolved he went with the Joseph Fowler Co. in City Road.

He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Davis, wife of Captain Davis, Gertrude M., at home, and Lottie S., of Macleay Bros. & Co., and three sons, Albert J., of Medford; Ernest E., of Macleay Bros. & Co.; and John P. Thomas, pastor of Carleton Methodist church.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from his late residence, 169 Waterloo street. There will be deep sympathy extended to the bereaved family in their loss.

Col. D. McLeod Vince

Woodstock, N. B., Nov. 26.—Col. D. McLeod Vince, one of the best known bartenders in New Brunswick, and a man held in the highest esteem by all denominations, passed away at his home here last evening at 10 o'clock. He had been in failing health for the past year but was able to attend to business until about five weeks ago.

Col. Vince was born in Berwick on Tuesday, Nov. 20, 1848. His father, Robert Vince, was a veteran of the Crimean war, and his mother was a McLeod. He was educated in Dublin, and came to New Brunswick in 1868. He first engaged in teaching and the old school law and afterwards became active in mercantile business. In 1870 he entered the office of the late Hon. L. P. Fisher as a law student, and was a graduate of the Boston law school, and in 1880 he admitted to an attorney, and has since that time worked up a large practice. The real purpose and energy of his life, however, was given to the work of the Canadian militia, and he was known in Canada, as well as in the most efficient officers. Col. Vince was a member of the United Baptist church, and was the amalgamation of the two churches was made in 1880.

The members of the various boards of trade who will go to Europe on the Canadian trade mission early in the new year, are likely to have an enjoyable as well as a profitable trip. Arrangements are already being made for their entertainment on the other side, and several intimations

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Ann Sweet

Tuesday, Nov. 26. Mrs. Mary Ann Sweet, widow of the late Robert Sweet, of Malross (Mass.), and daughter of the late Charles and Martha Bradley, died on Monday at her residence of Mrs. S. W. Thomson. Mrs. Sweet was in her 78th year and many friends will learn with regret of her death.

Mrs. T. J. Elliott

Tuesday, Nov. 26. After only a brief illness, Mrs. Thomas J. Elliott died at her home, 42 Elford street, early last night. Mrs. Elliott was in good health on Sunday and was taken ill Sunday night. Dr. Broderick was summoned, but her illness was not considered serious. Last night, however, she took a bad turn and died after medical assistance could reach her. Much sympathy will be extended to the bereaved family by those who knew the deceased in his bereavement.

Miss Jennie Orr

Monday, Nov. 25. Miss Jennie Orr, daughter of Captain and Mrs. George Orr, passed away at her home in Jardine street, after a long illness, at the age of twenty-one years and eight days. She was a bright girl of kind disposition, and her death is greatly regretted. She is survived by her parents, four brothers and several sisters. The funeral will be held at 2.30 p.m. on Friday morning at 8 o'clock.

Miss Agnes Henderson

Thursday, Nov. 28. The death of Miss Agnes Henderson occurred yesterday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. McKinley, in St. Patrick street. She was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson of Welsford and after the death of her parents came to the city to reside with her sister. She had been ill for several months. Three sisters survive, Mrs. McKinley of St. Patrick street, Mrs. John Brattin and Mrs. George McLaren, also of this city.

Mrs. Kate Starr Wyman

Many in St. John will read with sorrow of the death of Mrs. Kate Starr Wyman, in West Somerville, Mass. The Somerville Journal says:

Mrs. Kate Starr (Day) Wyman died of an aneurism at 10 p.m. last Friday at her home, 105 Rogers avenue. Although she had been in very poor health the past year she was up and about until November 6, and attended to her household duties, assisted by her sister-in-law, Miss Belle Wyman, who had made her home with her for twenty-two years.

Mrs. Wyman was the widow of Captain Alford Walter Wyman, who, with eleven other members of the crew of the Standard Oil company's sailing vessel, Johanna, was lost at sea when the ship foundered off the Delaware capes during a storm on November 23, 1905. Captain Wyman and part of the crew left the ship in a lifeboat which was submerged in the heavy sea. Thirteen other members of the crew, in a more fortunate lifeboat, were rescued.

Mrs. Wyman was born in Liverpool, N. S., July 14, 1865; she was the daughter of Thomas Day, a sea captain, and Mrs. Sarah (McLeod) Day, who has been dead a number of years. She was married to Mr. Wm. S. Wyman, twenty-four years ago, and lived there and in St. John until six years ago, when the family came to this city.

She attended the Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Wyman leaves two children, Percy Day Wyman, twenty-two, and Mrs. Belle Wyman, a second-year student of the Somerville high school. There are also two brothers, Thomas E. Day, of Gloucester, and Andrew Day, of Boston.

A largely attended funeral was held at 10.30 a.m. yesterday afternoon. It was conducted by Rev. James F. Allen, of Wintthrop, a former pastor of the Park avenue Methodist church. Two ladies sang "Lead Kindly Light." There were many beautiful floral tributes. Burial was at Milton cemetery.

Mr. Wm. S. Bruce

Wednesday, Nov. 27. The death of Mrs. Eliza Bruce occurred yesterday morning at her home in Duke street. She was 83 years of age and was the widow of Wm. S. Bruce, who for several years was in charge of the business of St. John. She was born at Black River, but resided in St. John nearly all her life. She was a prominent member of the congregation of Trinity church, and will be greatly missed in church circles. The sons and four daughters survive. The sons are William H. of Hartford, Conn., and Samuel D. of Malden, Mass. The daughters are Mrs. G. C. Stephenson of Portland, Oregon; Mrs. Brown, of Fairfield, N. B.; and Misses Eva and Isabelle at home. Several grandchildren also survive. The funeral will be held at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at 230 o'clock. Interment will be at her late home 276 Duke street. Funeral services will be conducted in Trinity church.

John P. Thomas

Wednesday, Nov. 27. The death of John P. Thomas took place yesterday afternoon at his residence, Waterloo street. Mr. Thomas was eighty-one years of age and had resided in St. John for the greater part of his life. He had been ill during the last six months. He learned his trade as a ship's blacksmith with James Lemmon, and later worked in the fish shanty. He was an employee of the old firm of Lemmon and Fowler, and when that firm dissolved he went with the Joseph Fowler Co. in City Road.

He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Davis, wife of Captain Davis, Gertrude M., at home, and Lottie S., of Macleay Bros. & Co., and three sons, Albert J., of Medford; Ernest E., of Macleay Bros. & Co.; and John P. Thomas, pastor of Carleton Methodist church.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from his late residence, 169 Waterloo street. There will be deep sympathy extended to the bereaved family in their loss.

Col. D. McLeod Vince

Woodstock, N. B., Nov. 26.—Col. D. McLeod Vince, one of the best known bartenders in New Brunswick, and a man held in the highest esteem by all denominations, passed away at his home here last evening at 10 o'clock. He had been in failing health for the past year but was able to attend to business until about five weeks ago.

Col. Vince was born in Berwick on Tuesday, Nov. 20, 1848. His father, Robert Vince, was a veteran of the Crimean war, and his mother was a McLeod. He was educated in Dublin, and came to New Brunswick in 1868. He first engaged in teaching and the old school law and afterwards became active in mercantile business. In 1870 he entered the office of the late Hon. L. P. Fisher as a law student, and was a graduate of the Boston law school, and in 1880 he admitted to an attorney, and has since that time worked up a large practice. The real purpose and energy of his life, however, was given to the work of the Canadian militia, and he was known in Canada, as well as in the most efficient officers. Col. Vince was a member of the United Baptist church, and was the amalgamation of the two churches was made in 1880.

The members of the various boards of trade who will go to Europe on the Canadian trade mission early in the new year, are likely to have an enjoyable as well as a profitable trip. Arrangements are already being made for their entertainment on the other side, and several intimations

HAD RHEUMATISM IN ALL MY BONES

"Sometimes I Could Hardly Walk" 2 Boxes of Gin Pills Cured Me

SUFFERED FROM Kidney Trouble for five long years. I also had Rheumatism in all my bones and muscles—could not sleep at night, and sometimes could hardly walk. I was treated by some of our best physicians, but with out relief. I lost over fifteen pounds, was very weak, and friends who had not seen me for some time, were astonished. One day I met one of our leading hotel keepers, who had been cured by Gin Pills, and he advised me to try them, so I bought two boxes at my druggist's.

Before I had used one box, I felt a big change for the better and before the second box was gone, it was completely cured. I assure you I can hardly believe it, for if I had known what I know now about Gin Pills, I would not have spent over one hundred dollars for nothing, when two boxes of Gin Pills cured me.

Anyone suffering from Kidney Trouble or Rheumatism, should never be without Gin Pills. EUGENE QUINN, Montreal.

Drive your old enemy out of your system. Be free of pain. Be able to walk, work and enjoy life. Away with pain in the back, Rheumatism, and Kidney Trouble. Take Gin Pills. A few boxes now, will mean ease and comfort for the rest of the year.

Remember, Gin Pills are sold on a positive guarantee to give satisfaction or your money refunded. Write a box for $2.50. You may try them before you buy them. Sample free if you write the National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Toronto.

Advertisement for 'FINE CHEST OF TOOLS' with an illustration of a toolbox and text describing the quality and variety of tools available.

Advertisement for 'Roofing' services, offering free samples and catalogs, and listing contact information for Galt Art Metal Co.

Advertisement for 'HERE TO BUY FARMS AND REAL ESTATE' featuring English gentlemen in the city and information about land development in the province.

Advertisement for the 'FUNERAL OF SAMUEL DUFF' with details on the date, time, and location of the service.

Advertisement for 'LUMBER SHIPMENTS' from Chatham Commercial, providing a list of various lumber products and their prices.

Advertisement for 'FREE CANCEL' regarding a home treatment for rheumatism, with a testimonial and contact information for The Canadian Cancer Institute.