 J. L. STEWART, EDITOR.
 MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 16, 1873.

The Question at Stake.
 The old Tory party, the anti-progress party of St. John, did all they could to defeat the Confederation scheme, and have persistently followed the authors of that scheme with vituperation. Every act of those men has been denounced. Every step in the path of progress—for the consummation of the Union—has been denounced in unmeasured terms. Every man who has sustained them in Parliament has been charged with having sold himself. Every constituency that has endorsed them has been charged with being corrupt. No abuse has been too great, no epithets too vile, for the statesmen who conceived, carried and consummated the union of these Provinces. Mr. Tilley was charged with purchasing his return at the last election. Mr. Burpee was charged with having gained his seat by the corrupt use of Sir Hugh Allan's money, and his prompt denial of having used any money except his own was met with a derisive sneer by one of the twin organs of the anti-union, anti-Canadian, anti-British and pro-Yankee minority faction of this city.

The great leader of the party of progress has, on account chiefly of ill health, accepted a non-political office, and the men with whom he had acted have retired from the direction of the affairs of Canada. Now we have the old beaten faction of non-progressives in this city coming to the front again, and insolently proposing to ride rough-shod over the heads of the Liberal majority. They are the same scurrilous-mongering partisans as before, they breathe nothing but hatred for the old Liberal leader, they diligently strive to cover his name and fame with infamy, they insolently deride the party of so many victories as starting to death for the want of official pay, and declare their intention of turning Mr. Tilley out of the Government.

Now it is for the Liberal party of St. John to decide whether this slimy-slagging faction is to rule in this city or not—whether the nominee of old Tory first-familyism, the rabid anti-Canadian obstructives, and the slanderers of Mr. Tilley, is to be accepted as the representative of the City of St. John. It is not a question of Government or non-Government; it is a question of the good qualities of individual candidates; but whether the Liberal party of this city will tamely submit to be blotted out of existence, to be buried under the load of calumny that is being heaped upon it by the insolent organs of the old Tory party, it is openly said, by the Government canvassers, that the party that sustained Mr. Tilley was one-half office-seekers, and that this half would vote for any man whom the Ministers of Marine and Customs might name. Now the Ministers have named a man, and the only question is whether the Liberal party of St. John will support him, and it is to be seen whether the loudly-proclaimed slander on the Liberal party of St. John is to be sanctioned at the polls. Are half of Mr. Tilley's friends ready to do the bidding of any Minister? We shall see when the vote is counted.

If the United States had offered to take possession of Cuba, a few years ago, the attempt would most certainly have been resisted by Great Britain and France. Now, however, Spain would stand in the way. It is not probable that any other power would send a ship diplomatically to prevent Spain's inability to put down the rebellion, or even to enforce her decrees in the portion of the island that owns her sway, are cause enough for interference. Some are busy comparing the navies of the States and Spain, showing that the latter is the stronger on the sea. Spain will not derive any comfort or base any arrogance on that fact. If she is wise, as the States have shown a marvellous capacity for almost instantaneously creating a navy, and we would wish to see months after the declaration of war drive Spain's navy from American waters.

On the 21st Mr. DeVeber's card to the Electors was written and published by one of the party, after consultation with Messrs. I. Burpee and A. J. Smith, and that Mr. DeVeber saw it first in the newspapers.

C. H. Fairweather for the City, and George S. DeForest for the County, if they can be persuaded to come to the front, will be the candidates of the Liberal Unionists of St. John.

It is said that Hon. Peter Mitchell would like an invitation to run against Hon. Isaac Burpee in the City and County of St. John.

A meeting of Liberals will be held at the Victoria Hotel, to-morrow, at three p. m.

The numbers of The Living Age for the weeks ending Oct. 25th and Nov. 1st, are especially interesting. Among the articles are: The Monothelism of Paganism; The Protestant Restoration in France in the Last Century; Turkish Georgia; Needle work; The Lessons of the American Monetary Crisis; The Old Catholic Congress at Constance; Somebody's Child; The Regent Orleans and his Age; Calderon's Dramas—the Purgatory of St. Patrick; Victor Emmanuel's reception in Vienna and Berlin; with instalments of "The Parisians," by Lord Lytton; "The Bean Stalk," by Miss Thackeray; and "Nicole Vignon," by Miss Macquoid, author of "Hobby," besides poetry and Miscellany. The current volume began Oct. 1st. With fifty-two such numbers, of sixty-four large pages each, (aggregating over 3000 pages a year) the subscription price ($8) is very low or still better, for $10, any one of the 84 magazines is sent with the Living Age for a year. PETARCH'S SONNET 253.
 "Solace not in our."
 She ruled in beauty o'er this heart of mine,
 A noble lady in a humble home.
 And now her time has heavenly bliss has come,
 To an immortal rest, and she is gone.
 The soul that all its lifetime met mine,
 And with me thus has been so dear,
 Now where those lights no more on earth shall room
 Might read the rocks with pity for their doom,
 Yet none their sorrow in words can share;
 They weep within my heart, and e'en as dead
 Save mine alone, and I am crushed with care,
 As I must remain to measure mortal breath,
 Assuredly but dust and shade we are,
 As surely death is blind and brief,
 As surely I hope but ends in death.

Attempted Suicide.
 John Elliot, a young man residing in Adelaide street, Portland, attempted to commit suicide in his own room Saturday morning. He was discovered by his mother lying on his bed, with an immense gash across his throat. A case knife with which he had done the deed was found under the bed. Dr. McClear was called and sewed the cut up, and the young man will probably live. He is supposed to have been laboring under an attack of insanity, though nothing strange was noticed about him by his friends. He was formerly in the Lunatic Asylum, and has only been out about two months. He is not so strong to-day as he was yesterday.

Asthma.
 COMMERCIAL SCHOOL,
 HARBOR GRACE, NEWFOUNDLAND.
 MR. JAMES I. FELLOWS.

DEAR SIR: I am very happy to acknowledge the benefit I have received from the use of your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites. For upwards of two months I suffered most acutely from a severe cough, and a most violent Asthma, for the relief of which I tried everything, could bear of. I at last commenced the use of your Syrup, and after taking one bottle was able to attend to my avocation, I continued according to directions till I had used nine bottles, which effected a perfect cure. With much gratitude, yours truly,
 M. SCULLLEY, Teacher.

Who is to Blame, the Aldermen and Council of Duke's Ward, or the Chief of Police?
 To the Editor of the Tribune.
 Being a citizen and a rate payer I would respectfully ask you to urge on our worthy Chief of Police the necessity of detaching for duty one or two of his force to remain on Queen Square to preserve order there on Sunday. The by-law enacted there every Sabbath is disgraceful in the extreme, reflecting no credit on the city nor to the Alderman or Council of Duke's Ward. The chief amusements of the rowdies are the dancing break downs on "ex-Alderman Gallagher's folly," or band stand, fighting, breaking down the few remaining trees, and insulting passers-by, interlarding their performances with overtures of blasphemous language and choice curses. The Chief will excuse his neglect by saying he has too few men at his command, which fact no one can very well deny, but as the force cannot, it seems, be increased at present, surely there can be no necessity of allowing three policemen to be continually together as they were afraid of doing their duty alone; especially as the men are provided with arms for protection. Now, who is to blame for the neglect? What is the use of a police force if the by-laws of the Corporation are allowed to be continually broken. It would be much more to the purpose, and the Chief would get more praise from the public, were he to look after Queen Square on Sunday instead of forcing upon his men the undignified duty of plumping around run shops on Sunday like ravenous wolves seeking whom they may devour, in order that he may curry favor with a few temperance demagogues. In closing this letter I will merely ask you if there is any truth in the report that the Corporation Council have leased King Square to George Sparrow, with the privilege of shakling his carpets there on Sunday as people are on their way to church.

The Circulating Medium on the Wagon—Gentle Zephyrs wait Dominion Carriage into the hands of waiting financiers—Intense Excitement.
 The politicians, financiers and Micawbers who usually haunt Club's corner were considerably surprised this forenoon at seeing the air above their heads filled with floating scrip and bank notes. The greatest excitement was at once created, and the Commercial Bank corner was crowded with excited men scrambling after the "circulating" medium. Millions, political office holders and merchants were in the crowd, and many of them were rewarded by securing booty in amounts varying from 25 cents to two dollars and twenty-five cents. The scene is said to have thrown the New York Gold and Stock Boards completely in the shade, in excitement. One enthusiastic individual secured a 25 cent scrip and at once invited the whole crowd to smile at his expense. The cause of the wonderful phenomenon is yet unexplained. Some over sanguine individuals trace it to the recent change in the Dominion Government, and they will, doubtless, look anxiously for frequent repetitions of this new method of circulating the medium.

City Police Court.
 "Only ten," and there was a look of disappointment on the faces of the crowd of spectators this morning as they entered the court room and saw so few unfortunate in the dock. Last Monday morning the exhibit was about the same, which is a decided change from twenty and thirty cases of old. It may be that so many of those who frequent the dock are in confinement, or that sending them to the Penitentiary is having a beneficial effect. All who do not pay the fines imposed this morning will be sent to the Penitentiary, as the gavel is lifted.
 John Baker and John Rogers, one an English youth, the other a New Brunswick lad, were arrested in Dock st., and charged with drunkenness. They confessed the charge and were fined $5.
 Geo. Cameron and John Dever both acknowledged being drunk on the Market Square and were fined the same amount.
 Jas. Connors went to the Station drunk on Saturday and was let off. He went away, got drunk and was arrested in Wentworth street. He will spend the next two months in the Penitentiary.
 John Toke, John McCusky, Michael Rogers and Thos. Mingo, were arrested drunk in Sheffield street. They were each fined $8.
 Henry Hoyt, an old offender, was arrested on the charge and was fined $8 for drunkenness.
 Thos. McCusky, the Yankee cart-pole operator was brought from Gueland, and charged with stealing an overcoat from Mr. Simon Tufts. On the charge being read to him he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months Penitentiary with hard labor.
 Jas. Murphy was charged by Matthew Allen with assaulting him, Saturday night, in Carleton. The case was adjourned until to-morrow morning, as some witnesses were wanted.

 LONDON, Nov. 15.
 Weather throughout England fair. Drizzle with firm.
 The Daily News this morning in an editorial on the prospects of the annexation of Cuba to the United States, says the execution of the Virginius captives has virtually decided the fate of the island. The other London Journals contain editorials of a similar tenor.
 A special despatch from Berlin to the Times says that in consequence of the fortified camps at Belfort, Besancon and Verdun, Prussia will increase her military reserves.
 The Federal Council has ordered a distribution among the states of the German empire of another instalment of the French war indemnity, amounting to 30,000,000 marks.
 The German Government to-day made a further payment of $8,000,000 for bonds of the United States funded loan.
 New York, Nov. 15.
 Gold fluctuating to-day between 109 1/2 and 109 3/4; exchange 107 a 109.
 The Cuban excitement absorbs attention of every department of the Government. Secretary Robeson has ordered 14 vessels now at the various navy yards to be equipped and put to sea at once. The papers are decidedly belligerent in their tone.
 LONDON, Nov. 16.
 THE FRENCH ASSEMBLY met Saturday and the committee on the prolongation of President MacMahon's term reported in favor of five years' extension.
 THE ITALIAN PARLIAMENT opened Saturday and the King delivered the speech from the throne. He said it had been shown that Rome might become the capital without encroaching upon the independence of the Pope or the exercise of his spiritual functions or relations to the Catholic world. We will respect his religious sentiments and his liberty, but will not permit attacks upon the nation and its institutions.
 THE SPANISH MINISTER of the Interior is rife that a cabinet crisis is impending at Madrid in consequence of the Virginius affair, but their truth is denied in official quarters.
 NEW YORK, Nov. 17.
 THE VIRGINIUS AFFAIR.
 There are no fresh developments in the Virginius affair. It is believed that the United States Government has demanded that this Government shall be made a party to the trials of the prisoners still unexecuted, and to passing upon the status of the Virginius, and that it further insists that the conduct of those ordering the executions shall immediately be investigated by the Spanish Government.
 The work at all the navy yards is going forward with great vigor.
 THE GREAT CALIFORNIA RACE for $20,000, Saturday, was won by Thad. Stevens. True Blue broke a leg.
