

It is the intention to make a collection which shall embrace, as far as possible, all the products of the country, and it is therefore greatly desired that any having specimens will contribute them to the Museum, and thus help to increase its value and interest.

The College Library owes its maintenance and increase to the exertions of friends of the College. LIBRARY. During the year 1871 a number of gentlemen formed themselves into a society for the purpose of increasing the number of the volumes by making and soliciting contributions. This society obtained some important and valuable donations both in scientific and general reading.

The Library contains much matter useful to the student, and its utility renders its enlargement a matter of personal interest to all in any way connected with the College. Any persons desirous of donating books, periodicals, etc., will kindly send the same to Miss Ella Gardiner, B.A., the Librarian.

There is a Reading Room in the College well supplied with newspapers and magazines, under the management of a committee of the College Council and the Philomathian Society. It is free to the use of all students, subject to such regulations as may be made by the committee. READING ROOM.

The College Senate offers annually for competition a number of valuable prizes. Several persons have manifested their interest in the institution by the encouragement of competition in certain subjects or departments, and the Senate has undertaken to make provision for such departments or classes as may be benefited by such stimulus. Friends of the College offering prizes for competition are requested to name the subjects and the year in which they would prefer the competition to be made. PRIZES.
