A FEW BREVITIES

Corbett Denney has made it known that he will leave on Sunday night for the Pacific coast, and he expects to play with Seattle.

Woodstock is going to make a bold bid for the intermediate honors. They have Dunlop for goal, Eric Hagerman, Ernie King and Russell Sandbrook for the defense and Eddie Rodden, Cohen, last year of Stratford and a number of others for the forward line.

The O. H. A. groupings are to be made today. Green has until Saturday to accept the offer made by the St. Patrick's. Green would undoubtedly make a good in the pro game.

The St. Pat's have offered to give either Reg. Noble or Corbett Denney to Quebec for "Joe" Malone but Mike Quinn says Joseph will be with his club this year and will not be traded.

Sudbury think they can trim the Hamilton Tigers and have asked that a home and home series be played. The Tiger management are considering the offer.

If the St. Pat's can land "Goldie" Producers from Quebec, he would make a nice side partner for "Moose" Hefferman.

Hamilton Tigers may enter a junior team in the O. H. A. They have plenty of material.

Up in Hamilton they seem to think that neither Rosh nor McCarthy would make good in the pro ranks owing to the fact that they might not be able to stand the "gaff."

According to an Ottawa report the announcement is incorrect that the H. A. will use the single referee system this season.

Several clubs have made cash offers for Harry Cameron, but Manager Hefferman wants a player in exchange.

Executive Complete

O. H. A. executive with the addition of H. H. Ferguson, of London and Angus B. Campbell of Sudbury, president of the North Shore League. The first meeting of the new executive will be held tonight to form groups and transact other business, part of which will be to hear cases of individuals.

Insure Against Rain

National League Considering Plan to Cover Up
New York, Dec. 11.—There is a proposition before the National Baseball League in its session here today that is interesting now and decidedly important. Negotiations are under way with an insurance company to protect all National League clubs from loss caused by rain.

REALIZE SMALL PRICES.

TORONTO, Dec. 11.—With the outlook for racing now too bright, thus limiting their earning powers, the sale of the Seagram horses this week at the Repository brought famine prices compared to the prices of racing days. Galt Water, which finished third in his stable mates in the Plate some years ago, only brought $70. The horses sold and purchasers were:

Court Maid 11, (imp.), b.m. Cylin-Court Rose, Dr. Herbert Bruce.

Irish Witch (imp.), b.m., by Blair-finds-Pog, W. Williams.

Gala Water, b.m., by Galantine-Sea Wall, S. McFarlane.

TIED WELLAND
OPEN SEASON WITH 2-2 SCORE
LAST NIGHT IN PORT COLBORNE TO-DAY.

WELLAND, Dec. 12.—The hockey season was ushered in officially here to-night with an exhibition game between the Kitchener O.H.A. senior sextet, former Allan cup holders, and the local intermediate O.H.A. team. The end of the battle was exceptionally fast considering the early start and the condition of the ice, which was practically covered by a thin coating of water.

The score at the end of the full hour's play was 2-2.

Not a single goal was scored in the first period, but Hillman broke the spell early in the second by garnering a beauty, which sagged the upper corner of the net. "Ike" Master, one of the Kitchener subs, got the second and last counter for the visitors before Welland managed to beat Hainsworth with a hot one from Sanderson's stick just before the period ended.

Foulis, on the wing for the locals, tied the score in the last 20 minutes of play, while his team-mates fortified their citadel so well that Ernie Parkes and company failed to notch another goal, though they pressed Service continually.

George Hillier, who is now a resident of St. Catharines, referred the game to the entire satisfaction of both teams.

The Kitchener team, which goes to Port Colborne to-morrow for game in the new artificial ice arena there, will be accompanied by many local fans.

A crowd of 900 fans witnessed the game to-night. The teams:

Hainsworth, goal, Trushinsky, defense, Kargus, defense, Parkes, center, Hillman, wing, Clark, wing, Burmeister, sub, Schigel, sub, Master, sub.

Welland.
Service, goal, Jones, defense, Maitland, defense, Herbert, center, Foulis, wing, Sanderson, wing, Kreuger, sub, Wally, sub, Finkley, sub.

Referee—George Hillier, St. Catharines.

Nick Bawlf, of Ottawa, has been engaged to coach Queen's. They have 70 players to pick from the three teams.

Don Smith has signed with Montreal Canadiens.

The N.H.A. met at Toronto 10, to day.

Frank Knight practised with Denials.

FORTY-FIRST YEAR

PREMIER BORDEN T ANNOUNCEMENT

Sir Robert is Unable to Perform Duties.
Home.—Cabinet May Choose

WHITE AND MEIGHEN HAVE

OTTAWA, Dec. 12.—That Sir Robert Borden, for eighteen years the Leader of the Conservative party and for eight years Premier of the Dominion, will announce his retirement early in the New Year, is stated on the most reliable authority.

He has decided that his health and general condition are such as to preclude his further carrying on of his difficult duties. He is unable to attend Cabinet Council and has been forced to remain at his home.

He declines to discuss the matter altogether. His refusal to do so may in itself be taken as confirmation.

Several members of the Cabinet favor the choosing of a new leader by Cabinet Council itself, and six names have already come up for consideration.

They are those of Sir Thomas White, Sir Henry Drayton, Hon. Arthur Meighen, Hon. J. A. Calder, Senator Loughery.

Sir Thomas White is a favorite with a majority of the Cabinet though Sir Thomas has gone back to his former business affairs in Ontario.

OPPOSITION
FOR CHURCH

SAM MCBRIDE WILL RUN

(Special to the Record).
TORONTO, Dec. 12.—Controller Sam McBride to-day announced that he would be a candidate for Mayor for 1920. For years a member of the city council, among which he has been regarded as the leading debater in that body, Controller McBride thinks that this time has come when he should aspire higher.

It is pointed out that if one man occupies the Mayor's chair too long, members of the council are deterred from offering themselves and the healthy rivalry so much desired in the interests of good civic government is destroyed.

Moneton Alma House was threatened with fire but was saved by the prompt action of the caretaker.

THE VILLAGE OF A

Picturesque Description Taken From the Pea St. Peter's (Aytton) Church May

Leaving Palmerston and "Harrison line is the next" behind, the handsomely equipped train, North bound for Warton and Owen Sound, may halt at a station at a "suburban" town—Drew and Alfeld—and then goes bounding, booming, whistling and roaring ahead till it stops, or as it presently might appear, is stalled at Aytton. Stalled, you suppose, because alighting you are astonished, not at through entering and pouring from coaches; not at cafes, hotels, bungalows, lining two blocks to the right and left. You see only one lone abandoned elevator and wonder where is Aytton? No stores, no dwellings in sight. Thus a visitor might wonder why no smiling Papa or Mama, no laughing Willie or glad Lillie is there to meet him. Perhaps, he thinks, with disappointment and pain suppressed—perhaps they didn't receive my card. However, no such neglect or cold indifference keeps AYTTON from greeting you at the station. True, to her inmate maiden, modesty she only eschews the public gaze and vulgar stare as becometh her beauty and charming presence. Beyond that knoll to the East on the banks of the Sturgeon, she eagerly awaits you, with smiles, radiant from her lips and warmth of welcome from her heart.

Of the one thousand "Races to the station" scheduled three for every day of the year, except Sundays, by the G. T. R. vs. the taxi driver of Aytton: the latter, fame reports, in the twenty-eight years of his Jehu career, won all but three or four; witness the Judges' alert agent V. Cavanagh and predecessors. In his car, the disfigure from the station to the "Commercial" takes no longer than a hop, step and jump. Ascending the knoll aforesaid, with such velocity we get only a glimpse of the "Union" and the R. C. Cemeteries. Both are well kept and a credit to the town. Two seconds and Aytton "flashes before you." Descending, we pass the Schenk and the Wenger estates, and cross the avenue, running north past the Schenk residence and "Cordage" and Sawmill, to the Creamery, where P. Benninger and his staff cheerfully tell, "Don't talk saw wood in their motto. At the foot of the hill we are awed by the imposing plant of the Wenger Milling Co. Now we cross the Schenk over the bridge, an elegant solid iron structure, built A.B. 1912, the pride of the Township and a feather in the cap of the Council who carried the motion. Above the dam, a huge reservoir of water still and tranquil, "Lake Phoebe" might be its name; but hear those volumes of water in early spring pouring to the river. Auburn:—Sweet bed, how they rear, loom, his chin, face of the plain and foam, nothing but a "field of the" (but on those hills) is wanting to complete a perfect picture of the miniature of the falls of Niagara. There is no visible terminus of the Union bus and taxi, lovely than AYT-
