

THE Literature Committee at Room 20, and the Branch Depots in Sackville, N.B., and Winnipeg, Man. (for addresses see foot of last page), will receive deposits of $1.00 for the literature to be used in connection with the Suggested Programme for Auxiliaries, and will send the necessary literature whenever called for by the Programme as long as the money lasts, and without it being necessary for the Auxiliary to write for it. The usual charge of two cents, for wrapping and postage, will be deducted for each parcel. Subscribers will be notified when their deposit is expended.

ALL of the above may be ordered from Room 20 or the Depots. For addresses, see foot of catalogue.

The Literature Committee has, through the kindness of Dr. Bolton, who loaned the negatives, obtained a set of twelve photographs of buildings and places of interest connected with our work in British Columbia. These may be rented from Room 20, for seven cents, postpaid. It is hoped that a set of Chinese views may also be arranged in a short time.

SUBSCRIPTIONS for the following missionary periodicals will be received and forwarded by MISS OGDEN:
Missionary Review of the World, per year, $2.25; Gospel in all Lands, per year, 65 cents. (Subscriptions to this magazine may begin at any time, but must close with June or December.)
Message and Deaconess World, 50 cents.
