

surviving and remaining Trustees, in the execution of all and every the powers and trusts vested in them and the other Trustees, appointed in virtue of this Act, and all and every person or persons so appointed, in the room of a Trustee or Trustees so deceased, or resigning, shall have the like power and authority as if he or they had originally been appointed a Trustee or Trustees for putting this Act in execution.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said Trustees, or any three or more of them, at their first Meeting, to be held at the City of Montreal, on the first Monday in one thousand eight hundred and or at any of their other Meetings as herein-after authorized, shall and may erect or cause to be erected, a Gate or Turnpike on or across the said highway or road, and may also erect or build or lease or otherwise agree for a Toll-house, at such place as shall be fixed by the said Trustees, or any three or more of them, and may cause the said Turnpike or the said Toll-house to be from time to time, if need be, taken down, removed or altered, as they or any three or more of them, shall judge proper; and may demand, take and receive the Tolls and Rates following, before any saddle Horse, Mare or Gelding, or any Waggon, Wain Cart or other such Carriage, or any Coach, Charriot, Landau, Chaise, Phaeton, Gig, Calash, Chair or any other wheel Carriage be permitted, (as after mentioned) to pass through the said Gate or Turnpike, that is to say: For every Horse, Mare or Gelding, with a Rider, the sum of pence, currency, for every Waggon, Wain Cart or other such Wheel Carriage, (unless the same be exempted in manner herein-after mentioned) drawn by one or two Horses, Oxen or other Beast of draught, if the same be loaded in whole or in part pence, currency, and for any additional number of Horses or Beasts of draught, by which they are drawn pence, currency, each; for every Coach, Charriot, Landau, Chaise, Phaeton, Gig, Calash, Chair or other such wheel Carriage, drawn by two Horses, Mares or Geldings, the sum of pence currency, and further, for any additional number by which they are drawn pence, currency, each; for every wheel Carriage of any such last mentioned description, drawn by one Horse, Mare or Gelding, the sum of pence, currency, and such tolls and rates shall be printed or written and shall be posted up at the Toll Gate, in such situation and manner as to be distinct and vissible to persons passing the same.