by Bowers, West and Cox. This order was maintained for a quarter of a mile, when Bawers took first place and succeeded in holding it to the and, although pushed hard by West. The distance to the Half Way House (four miles) was made at the rate of about 3.30 to the mile, but on the return the wind from the west was observed by the convention closed with a banquest in some places it was difficult to stick to the wheel at all, and on that account the latter wheel at all, and on that account the latter wheel at all, and on that account the latter half of the free decoupled about double the time of the first half. Bowers, however, finished in thirty-eight multips, followed as a short distance by West and Cox. The page proved too hos for the other computation of the stance of the first half. their endeavors to luck up all those who attended the fight.

Detroit Free Press, May 30: "It appears that the fight was a speculation engineered by three focal sports, who agreed to give the winner of the mill $500 and pay are penses of both combatants, expecting to be reimbursed and have a splendid surplus from the sale of six or seven hundred five dollar tickets to those desiring to witness the fight, but the receipts barely covered expenses. One of the interested trio said it would take more than ton such mills to make a cent."

Sir John's Visit to the Pacific Stope,
From the Cathary Heraid, May 21.

It may not be out of place to remind our fellow citizens that the visit of Sir John Macdonald to the Banff Springs and the Pacific coast is approaching very near, and that any steps which they intend to take to release the Premier must be considered at Ste John's first trip over the line which his statesmanship constructed should, and we think will, be an evation continued from the eastern boundary of Manifobs through Assinibola, Alberta and British Columbia to the coast. In such a reception Calgary is not likely to take a rearward stool, and preparations are needed to show that she will not.
