SIXTH YEAR

A Salvation Captein an His Muselc.

Offrava, Ont., July 19.—"Capt." Dyson of the Salvation Avmy was charged at the police count to day with assault. The case arose out of a disturbance on Sparks-street one evening last week, when the captain laid violent hands upon a couple of mon, who he imagined had made insulting remarks about the girls of the army as they marched past. The magistrate fined Capt. Dyson 62 and 81 costs, which the latter natused to pay, folding his arms and remarking, "We never pay any finea." He was taken back to the police cells, but a gentleman soon paid the fine and he was released.
