

POOR PRINT
Ecrasse illisible

277198

- 2 -

C

government I lead be directed. All who believe in peace stand together in the British Empire with a united front shown by all its parts.

I speak these words tonight, first of all because I believe they represent the sentiment of the people of Canada, and to show how unmerited these allegations have been. The Conservative party stands united on principles defined and understood."

REPEAT
REPETER