

- A. Two packages of BC 20's with at the bottom a slit in the cellophane with a blue ink mark on the lower part of the packet.
- Q. Would you say the markings on these corresponded with the markings on the ones taken from Stanley? (shown exhibit "TWC"),
- A. Yes sir.

Witness cross-examined by the Defence

- Q. When you first saw Stanley when he was conducted to Naylor's office you questioned him there?
- A. No. Naylor and Weir questioned him there. I was present.
- Q. Did either of these persons accuse Stanley of stealing the cigarettes that were found on him?
- A. The cigarettes that were found on him were only found after he had been placed under arrest by me. They had nothing to say to him after I arrested him.
- Q. Did you question him as to where he got the cigarettes?
- A. No sir.
- Q. Did Naylor or Weir?
- A. No sir.

Judge Advocate

- Q. When you asked him to turn out his pockets and he did so you were not satisfied and then searched him. Was any money found in his pockets when you searched him?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. How much?
- A. I couldn't say exactly how much there was. He said it was change from 10/-. There was no folding money. It was just silver and bronze. It was in his field dressing pocket.
- Q. You didn't find any cigarettes there?
- A. No sir. They were in the inside pockets of his battle dress one on each side.
- Q. What led you to believe that he had more in his pockets than he turned out?
- A. Because I didn't believe his story.
- Q. You gave him the opportunity to show everything and then for your own satisfaction you ran through his pockets yourself?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. When you left the office with Weir and went over to the hut where the cigarettes were cached did you count the cigarettes there?
- A. Yes sir. There were two cartons.
- Q. You took possession of them?
- A. Yes sir. I brought them back to Naylor's office.
- Q. You hung onto them until when?
- A. Until the accused was turned over to 7 CAWG.
- Q. Were the two packets turned over too?
- A. Yes sir.
