

304 A COLONIAL GOVERNOR IN MARYLAND

Knowles, Governor of Louisbourg, 85.

Kosky Club, the, 247.

LA GAZETTE, 79, 162.

La Mothe, Admiral, 118.

La Presentation, Fort, 36.

Lauscelles' Regiment, 173.

Lawrence, Governor, 86, 87, 90.

—— Sir Thomas, 4.

Leblanc, Simon, 92.

Lebrun, Fort, 36.

Lee, General (Mad Lee), 259.

—— Miss, 264.

—— Thomas, 13.

—— William, 259.

Legardeur de Saint Pierre, 14.

Le Loutre, missionary, vicar-genl. of Acadia, 86.

Lewis, Colonel, 264.

Lexington, battle of, 256, 257.

Liberty Lottery, the, 228.

Ligonier, General, 154.

Lloyd, Colonel, 190, 247, 264.

Locker, Frederiek, 240.

London Gazette, 70, 172.

Longfellow, 'Evangeline,' cited, 92.

Lotteries, the rage for, 265.

Loudoun, Earl of, appointed titular governor of Virginia, 94; and commander-in-chief in succession to Shirley, 95, 100, 104, 106; arrival in New York, 106, 111; determination to find fault with Shirley's actions, 106, 109; changes plans, 106; order to provincial troops, 106; troops billeted on the inhabitants by, 106 and n., 140; first disastrous campaign of, 108; sends Webb to reinforce Oswego, 108; orders Winslow back from Ticonderoga expedition, 108; cautions Sharpe as to defence of frontiers, 109; complains of condition and number of troops, 109; expedition against Louisbourg planned, 116-18; and abandoned, 119; fails to defend frontier posts, 120; loses Fort William Henry, 120-2; and the Maryland Assembly, 136-8 passim; preparations for his winter campaign, 130; recalled, 143, 150; superseded by Abercrombie, 144; feeling in America, 144, 155; relations with Abercrombie, 156; Bradstreet's request to proceed against Frontenac refused by, 156; characteristics, Franklin quoted, 118, 119; mentioned, 103, 105, 111, 164.

Louisbourg, 36, 84; Shirley's plan for capture of, 64; capitulates to Pepperell and Warren, 65, 85; restored to France, 85; Loudoun's expedition planned and abandoned, 116, 118, 119; new expedition under Amherst, 144, 149; siege and capitulation of, 153-5; mentioned, 51, 54, 74.

—— Grenadiers, 174.

Louisiana, 25.

Lowndes, Charles, 211.

—— Christopher, 294.

Lowther, —, 98.

Love, Capt., 189, 250, 261.

Lyman, Fort, 68, 70, 93. See Fort Edward.

Lynn, father and son, 97, 98.

MAGRUDER, LIEUT. SAMUEL, 73.

Maryland, founded by 2nd Lord Baltimore, 283-4; charter of, 283-4; the original emigrants, 284; discontent in, 286; proprietary government overthrown, 286; order restored, 287; the province a palatinate, 287; attitude to Parliament on execution of Charles I., 288; proprietary deposed by Charles II., 288; difficulties of proprietary during Great Civil War, 288-90; overthrow of Puritans in, 290; origin of boundary dispute with Pennsylvania, 291, 293; the royal governors, 291-2; restoration of proprietary rights in, 292; protest against importation of convicts, 292.