
TWENTIETH CENTURY TEXT BOOKS.

A History of the American Nation.

By ANDREW C. McLAUGHLIN, Professor of American History in the University of Michigan. With many Maps and Illustrations. 12mo. Cloth, $1.40.

"One of the most attractive and complete one-volume histories of America that has yet appeared."—Boston Beacon.

"Complete enough to find a place in the library as well as in the school."—Denver Republican.

"This excellent work, although intended for school use, is equally good for general use at home."—Boston Transcript.

"It should find a place in all historic libraries."—Toledo Blade.

"Clearness is not sacrificed to brevity, and an adequate knowledge of political causes and effects may be gained from this concise history."—New York Christian Advocate.

"A remarkably good beginning for the new Twentieth Century Series of text-books. . . . The illustrative feature, and especially the maps, have received the most careful attention, and a minute examination shows them to be accurate, truthful, and illustrative."—Philadelphia Press.

"The work is up to date, and in accord with the best modern methods. It lays a foundation upon which a superstructure of historical study of any extent may be safely built."—Pittsburg Times.

"A book of rare excellence and practical usefulness."—Salt Lake Tribune.

"The volume is eminently worthy of a place in a series destined for the readers of the coming century. It is highly creditable to the author."—Chicago Evening Post.
