

fortification, 59;
 la, 59; famine in
 and demand to English, 72; sur-
 on of college at,
 pt in, 101; first
 wedding in, 101; 111; births in
 with into a city,
 preparations at,
 16-219; summons
 successful resist-
 of during siege,
 defences of, 227,
 2, 271; society of,
 ity in, 318; arma-Saunders and
 ions for defence,
 of forces, 370;
 371; futile at-sh fleet and dis-
 ions, 377, 379;
 ent on buildings,
 n, 379; alleged
 and devastation in English, 389-390;
 opinion of the e condition, 394;
 siege, 416; sur-
 apulation, 420;
 lish, 421; hard-
 after fall, 430;
 garrison, 432;
 of garrison on
 of English gar-rament of the 458; joy of the e appearance of 4, 458, 459.
 th of, 25.
 hting and scalp-
 ; original name,
 and passes, 44;
 dition add the,
 it's army in, 470.
 titution of, 171.
 ; value of, 82;
 2; history as
 of the publica-118, 120, 125, patriotic inven-
 t of, 92; sites

SABLE ISLAND, convict colony at, 28; fate of the first colonists, 26.
 Sagard, Gabriel, services in promoting peace among the native Indians, 62; league with the Jesuits, 67.
 Sallé, La, first navigator of the Mississippi, 188, 193; his establishment of forts and trading-posts, 188, 189; death, 193.
 Saunders, Admiral, appointment to command naval squadron against Quebec, 368; distinguished subordinates, 376.
 Scurvy, symptoms and effects of, 18; Indian antidote for, 14; ravages of, 14, 37, 56, 181, 261.
 Seminary, the Jesuit, at Quebec, institution of, 187; attendance, 180; transformation of, 196.
 Senecas. See Iroquois.
 Settlers, the first, in America, quarrels and jealousies, 99; injudicious conduct towards natives, 99; conflicting claims, 100.
 Sillery, M. de, benefactions of, 106.
 Simon le Moine, self-sacrifice of, 133.
 Shenectady, massacre of, 209.
 Slate, importation of, 60.
 Small-pox, ravages of, 181, 201.
 Soldiers, English, horror of the Indians, 323.
 Spain and Portugal, pretensions, 21.
 Spaniards, treachery and cruelty of the, 25.
 Stadacona, French station at, 9; visited by Champlain, 32.
 St Lawrence, the, discovery of, 7, 9, 15; forests on the banks, 20.
 St Sulpice, the order of, foundation of, in Montreal, 111.
 TABOUSSAG, first French trading settlement at, 27; second settlement at, 31.
 Taierouk, chief of the Hurons, speech of, 122.
 Talon, Intendant, arrival of, 165; cooperation with De Tracy, 170; services to the colony, 177-180; boast of, 178; character, 179.
 Three Rivers, trading-post at, 27-31; conspiracy at, 58.
 Titches, imposition of, 138; changes in the rating, 138; popular resistance, 162; acceptable adjustment, 165.
 Toast, British, 364.
 Tourmente, Captain, the hay-field of, 69.
 Trade, early, with Canada, 24; in skins and furs, 27-29; settlements for, 27; extent and value of the peltry, 80; in beavers' skins, 126; dependent on the friendly or unfriendly relations with Iroquois, 126; export, 170; import, 170.
 Trade, free, effects of, 43; infant struggles of, 44.
 Traffic, liquor, preventive measure by Champlain, 138; English encouragement to, 138; increase of, 138; discussions arising out of, 138, 139; demoralis-ing effects on the Indians, 139-143; dissensions about, 184; inquiry into, and decision regarding, 185.

Tracy, M. de, appointment as viceroy, 164; arrival of, 154; vigorous measures against the Iroquois, 155-160; courage, 160; expedition against the Iroquois, 160-166; colonial management, 160-171;
 return to France, 171.

UTRECHT, Treaty of, 258.

VALLIAR, M. de St, installation as bishop, 146.

Vaudreuil, M. de, governorship, 254-272; impolicy with the English colonists, 256; wife, 262; anti-English policy, 269; internal policy, 269; death, 272.

Vaudreuil, M. de (the younger), govern-ship, 297; opinion of the Canadians, and their treatment by the regulars, 319; military project for 1767, 321; opinion of Montcalm, 347; culpable partiality, 361; manifesto of, 357; conduct at the surrender of Quebec, 417, 418; conduct at Montreal, 472, 473.

Ventadour, Duc de, becomes viceroy, 66; forwards the mission of Le Caron and Sagard, 66.

Verrazzani, mission of, xix.

WASHINGTON, appointment of, to defend British soil against French pretensions, 288; mistaken conflict with the French, 288, 289; defence, 289; charge against, of murder and assassination, 289; capitulation to the French, 290; rear-guard in a retreat, 307.

West Indian Company, charter, 169, 170; dissolution, 170.

Wolfe, General, conduct at siege of Louis-bourg, 334; character and antecedents, 363, 364; exclusive respect for courage and drill, 365; manifesto in name of King of England, 371, 372; disposition of troops against Quebec, 372-375; failure to provoke Montcalm to general action, 380-385; defeat at Beauport Flats, 384, 385; censure of the rash-ness of the grenadiers, 386; attempt to stain the memory of, 388; abandonment of the idea of attempting to land above the city, 392; resolution to force an action, 397; illness, 397; report of this decision and his death published together in England, 397; occupation of Fort Levis, a preparation to transport all the troops to north side, 399; superintendence of transportation, 400; disguised movements, 400-403; general order of, Sept. 11, 401, 402;
 landing on north shore, Sept. 13, 403; secure position, 404; choice of battleground, 404; number and quality of his army, 409; its disposition, 409, 410; victory of, 411; fall of, 412; last words, 413; monuments to the memory of, 424.
 Women, services and consequent emancipation of, by France, 221, 222; English, in winter quarters, 438.