

throwing a projectile of 120 lbs. ; but, at very short notice, the three forts could be completely armed from the vast stores in the Citadel. These forts cost the English Government $1,000,000.

Within a few miles from the Town of Levis are the Falls of the Chaudiere, which, by some, are considered second to Niagara. They are about 130 feet in height, and command, from the beholder, a sentiment of awe and wonder. The wild waters rush over the precipice with the same grandeur and magnificence as at Niagara and Montmorency, and the deafening roar stuns, for the first few moments, the mind of the most stolid spectator. Here is seen a breadth of water not existent at Montmorency, and there is a grander stretch of scenery which, as it were, entrances the beholder.

Down the valley, in 1775, swarmed the brave Montgomery and his misled followers, and on the banks of this river they first looked upon the city which eventually proved their prison, or their grave.

Near by is the Church of New Liverpool, famed for its beautiful frescoes. The return to the city by boat is fully recompensed by the delightful view which is afforded of all the prominent points of interest in the Old World City of Quebec.

"Hark, I hear the angels sing,
Carter's Little Liver Pills just the thing.
Peace on earth, they are very mild;
Three for a man, and one for a child.

Carter's Little Liver Pills.
