sealth actic. On the Wednesday market receipts were light and, prices steady at the decline.

Spirited local buying, the presence of buyers from outside points and light receipts tended to heighten quotations at the closing market of the week. Prices at the closing market of the week. Prices are considered to the prices of the season of outing of pickers here would seem to in-dicate that packers are not over stocked. Quotations are $5.75 f.o.b. shipping points and $6.05 on the market

Outstions are $8.75 f.o.b. hipping points and $8.65 on the market. The growing searcity in sheep and almba was again emphasized last week by further importations from the United and the search of th le comfortably absorbed by the local trade, and prices consciquently ruled 30, to 25 a cwt. lower, selected lots selling at $6,65 to $6.75 a cwt. weighted off cars. There was also an easier feeling in the trade in dressed hogs owing to the de-cline in the cost of live hors, but prices were fairly well maintained throughout the weel at $9,20 to $9,75 a cwt. for fresh killed abbatter; stock.
