MARKET REVIEW AND FORECAST

ORONTO, Monday, June 18—"Prospects never looked finer." This is the general report from all over Ontario. The weather in May was very favorable to getting in supring crops in good conditions, the weather in May was very favorable to getting in supring crops in good conditions, and the supremental supremen mise of a good yield and pears and plums are fair.

During the week the grain market has been very quiet, with little trade mov-ing; the egg market is unsettled; butter is finner at country points; cattle have afranced to new high levels. Hogs, how-ever, are down, and packers show a tasteory of the country of the pro-teed of the country of the country of the hogs are worth. Makes
