

The Death Roll of the Canada Life.

Death Claims recently paid.

Come he slow or come he fast,
It is but Death who comes at last.
—Sir Walter Scott.

Like pilgrims to th' appointed place we tend;
The world's an inn, and death the journey's end.
—Dryden.

To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die.

Sacrifice and self-devotion hallow earth, and fill the skies.

The dead,
The only beautiful, who change no more;
The only blest; the dwellers on the shore
Of spring fulfilled. The dead! whom call we so?
They that breathe the purer air, that feel, that know
Things wrapt from us.
—Hemans.

There is no flock, however watched and tended,
But one dead lamb is there!
There is no fireside, howe'er defended,
But has one vacant chair.

—Longfellow.

Small Policies but Large Profits.

Attention is directed to two of the smaller policies above noted—one on a clergyman, Rev. E. Botterell, of Montreal, and the other on a widow, Mrs. Clark, of Toronto.

Rev. Mr. Botterell's policy was for $400, but the profits had increased this to $784. Mrs. Clark's policy was for $400, and the profits increased this to $710. Such results show the advantage of selecting a first-class established company like the Canada Life.

Prompt, Satisfactory and Obliging.

SHERBROOKE, Dec. 24th, 1893.

J. W. Marling, Esq., Manager Canada Life, Montreal.

DEAR SIR: Your favor of 22nd received with enclosed cheque for $3020.20, for which I wish to acknowledge thanks for the prompt, satisfactory and obliging manner in which you have paid my claim. I remain
