kept in a clean, well-ventilated poultry-house, provided with clean nests from which the eggs are gathered frequently and regularly. The eggs are kept covered in a clean utensil in the coolest place in the farm-house, and marketed at least once, better twice, a week. In the country store they are packed in clean, dry cases, and forwarded with the minimum of delay. The result of this careful management is apparent in the candling-room of the wholesale warehouse, where a decidedly large proportion of the eggs grade "select."

An additional and important feature of the exhibit is a large candling booth, in which continuous demonstrations are given in the art of candling eggs. This phase of the work is of particular interest to consumers, for the reason that but few appreciate the fact that the quality of an egg can be accurately determined without breaking the shell.

The candling of eggs is not a difficult process, and the small amount of labor entailed in candling presents no valid reason why the consuming public should not candle their own eggs. It should be recognized that as a business requirement the wholesale trade regularly candles and grades the product which it receives. Merchants generally, however, should acquire facility in candling, and every housewife will find it to her advantage to attend one of these candling demonstrations. She will be interested in observing the methods practiced, and by obtaining one of the simple cardboard candling appliances which are distributed free, she will be in a position to safeguard her family from many unpleasant occurrences at the breakfast-table.

Gossip.

Stanley Williams, Chillingfold, England, writes the Farmer and Stockbreeder: "I had a sow farrow on Sept. 1st, this year, twenty-three pigs, of which twenty were alive at eight days old, and doing well. The owner asks is this anywhere near a record."

A BIG SALE OF SHORTHORNS.

An auction sale of more than ordinary interest to farmers generally, and Shorthorn breeders particularly, will be the big clearing-out sale of Duncan Brown & Sons, of Elgin County, Shedden P. O. and Station, who, on Wednesday, November 4th, at their beautiful farm, will sell, absolutely without reserve, thirty-five head of young Shorthorns. None will be over three years of age; several young bulls, the balance heifers, Strathallans, Bruce Mayflowers, Marthas, Kilblean Beautys, Scottish Roses, and Symes. The dams and grandams of many of them was imported, some of them are granddaughters of the world-famous bull, Luxury, the property of the late King Edward, practically all of them were sired by the well-known and successful sire, Trout Creek Wander, and of particular interest at the present time is the fact that some of them are out of cows that give 50 lbs. of milk a day. They are an extra nice lot of heifers in first-class condition. All old enough will be in calf, and every one of them is a safe laytime proposition, as none of them have been punished in any way, and are sure to go on and breed regularly. Write for catalogue to Duncan Brown & Sons, R. R. No. 2, Shedden, Ont.

Big Ben

Every farmer should hire him

You pay him only $3.00 for 365 full 24-hour days a year—and nobody knows how many years he'll last, for he has never been known to wear out.

His board amounts to a drop of oil every twelve months—that's all the pay he asks.

His work is getting the farm hands in the fields on time, starting the before-breakfast chores on time, and telling the right time all day so the women folks can have the meals on time—these are easy jobs for him.

Big Ben stands seven inches tall. He is triple-nickel plated and wears an inner vest of steel that insures him for life. His big bold figures and hands are easy to read in the dim morning light. His keys almost wind themselves. He rings for five minutes straight, or every other half minute for ten minutes as you prefer.

The next time you're in town just drop in at your dealer's and ask to see Big Ben. If your dealer hasn't him, send a money order for $3.00 to Westclox, La Salle, Illinois, and he'll come to you, transportation charges prepaid, all ready for work. Hire Big Ben for your farm and he'll prove the promptest hired man on the place.
