ABSORBINE—THERE IS NOTHING BETTER.

"I have used Absorbine for horse-flesh, and think there is nothing better," writes Henry A. Kappesser, 205 Pond At., Syracuse, N. Y., under date of Jan. 9, 1906. Absorbine is a pleasant remedy to use—does not blister or remove the hair, and horse can be used. A prompt remedy for lumps and blisters, sprains, cuts, etc., etc. $2 per bottle, express prepaid. W. F. Young, P. D. F., 73 Monmouth St., Springfield, Mass.

SABLE RIVER SHROPSHIRE.

One of the oldest-established and highest-class flocks of Shropshires in Canada is the Sable River flock, the property of Mr. Geo. Hindmarsh, Ailsa Craig, Ont. This flock, which now numbers over 120 head, was founded on imported stock, to which have been added as necessity required fresh blood from the leading Old Country breeders, nothing but the best procurable imported rams being used on the flock, and the result is plainly manifest in the big, heavy-bodied, perfectly-covered animals that go to make up this now noted flock. This season's lambs are by an imported Buttar-bred ram. Mr. Hindmarsh says he never had a better lot of lambs. Certainly we have seen no better-covered, even, nor more growthy lot anywhere. A little later they will be for sale, both ewe and ram lambs, together with about 15 shearing ewes. Mr. Hindmarsh has shipped sheep all over Canada and the United States, and has never had a complaint of misrepresentation. He is absolutely reliable. Write him to Ailsa Craig P. O., Ont.

AN EXCELLENT JUROR.

The judge had his patience sorely tried by lawyers who wished to talk and by men who tried to evade jury service. "Shudge!" cried the German. "What is it?" demanded the judge. "I t'ink I like to go home to my wife," said the German. "You can't," retorted the judge. "Sit down." "But, shudge," persisted the German, "I don't t'ink I make a good shuror." "You're the best in the box," said the judge. "Sit down." "What box," said the German. "Jury box," said the judge. "But, shudge," persisted the little German, "I don't speak good English." "You don't have to speak any at all," said the judge. "Sit down." The little German pointed at the lawyers to make his last desperate plea. "Shudge," he said, "I don't make noddings of what these fellers say." It was the judge's chance to get even for many annoyances. "Neither can anyone else," he said. "Sit down."—[Green Bag.

KILLED AND BURIED.

A certain village on the Roman road to Scotland used to have a bad reputation among cyclists. Few ever got through it without suffering from the attacks of a big dog, which (incited, it is believed, by its owner) flew viciously at passing machines, and gave the riders a very bad time. Often enough had the dog's decease been reported, but the story of its ultimate defeat and death is graphically told in the neighborhood. One hot day a meek-looking clergyman stopped at a wayside inn and begged Boniface to give him a meal. He explained his inability to pay for it, by declaring that, as he was passing through an adjacent village, a brute of a dog jumped out of a house and got under his motor. He rode it down and killed it, and had given the owner all the money he possessed as compensation. The landlord's eyes grew wide. "Are yer certain yer kilt that dorg?" he asked. "Indeed, yes. To make sure it was really dead, I compelled them to bury it while I was there." "Then come inside and have a dinner at my expense, parson," cried Boniface, enthusiastically. "That dorg's been kilt mony a time before, but you're the first man 'at's had the gumption to stop an' see it buried!"—[London Tit-Bits.

The Canadian Commercial agent at Lee's and Hull, Eng., says he is informed by the largest dealer in canned goods in his district that the huge industrial classes in the north of England do not want fancy dishes, such as canned tongue and canned chicken: their favorite dish being corned beef in two- and six-pound tins. Whole families are employed from early morning till late at night in the Yorkshire mills, and a very large quantity of American corned beef is consumed in the dinner-hour, as a ready substitute instead of a hot meal, and for this reason, corned beef is in great favor amongst retail shop-keepers in this district.

ALBERTA VETERINARIANS MEET.

Alberta veterinarians met in Edmonton on July 4th for the purpose of appointing the Veterinary Council for Alberta. The following gentlemen were nominated to the several positions, and if these nominations are approved of by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, they will retain them: President, Dr. Riddle, Calgary; Vice-President, Dr. Murphy, Strathcona; Secretary-Treasurer and Provincial Registrar, Dr. Sweetapple, Fort Saskatchewan; Councillors, Dr. Hannington, Lacombe, and Dr. Pichering, Edmonton.

PLEASANT VALLEY SHORTHORNS.

This well-known stock farm, the property of Messrs. Geo. Amos & Son, lies half a mile from Moffat Station, C. P.R., and 12 miles south-east of Guelph. Their choice herd of over fifty head of Scotch Shorthorns are noted all over America from the fact that until lately they were headed by the Toronto grand champion bull, Old Lancaster (imp.), a bull whose striking individuality and superiority as a sire has seldom been equalled in this country. The herd, 12 of which are imported, represents such fashionable strains as the Orange Blossoms, Fragrances, Victorias, Rosebuds, Golden Drops, Jilts, Buckingham, Nonpareils, Mysies, Cecilias, Miss Ramsdens and Clementinas; prominent among which are the following: Collynie Fragrance (imp.), by Scottish Fancy, dam by Sergeant at Arms, and her half sister, Sweet Fragrance (imp.), by Alastair, a pair of big, smooth, thick roans, heavy in calf to Old Lancaster. Flowery (imp.) is an Orange Blossom, by Knight of Strathbrogie, dam by Star of Morning. This cow is an extra good one, and has a nine-months-old bull calf by Imp. Greengill Victor that will make a herd header, and she is carrying a calf to Imp. Old Lancaster. Augusta's Girl (imp.) is an Augusta, by Princely Archer, dam by Clear the Way. She has a yearling daughter, by Greengill Victor (imp.), a rare good one, and is now in calf to Old Lancaster. Princess Victoria (imp.), by Morning Pride, dam Victoria 7th, by G. O. T., one of the very thick kind, has a yearling daughter and a seven-months-old heifer calf, both by Old Lancaster, that are a show pair all through. Mina 4th (imp.), by British Prince, g-dam by Champion of England, has a cracker of a daughter by Knight Errant and an eight-months-old bull calf by Old Lancaster. Scottish Queen (imp.), by Scottish Prince, dam Fancy 3rd, by John Bull, is a Jilt, one of the right kind, and has a ten-months-old bull calf, by Old Lancaster, that is a prizewinner sure. Mabel of Knowhead (imp.) is a Mysie, by Prince Victor, dam by Vice Chancellor, has a yearling daughter that is a show heifer all over. Meadow Beauty 3rd (imp.), a Kilblean Beauty, by Len Lomond, dam by Lord of the Meadows, is heavy in calf to Old Lancaster. Nonpareil Violet 31140, by British Statesman (imp.), dam Nonpareil 42nd, by General Booth, has a yearling daughter, and a three-months-old bull calf, both by Old Lancaster, a rare good pair. Space forbids a more extended individual mention. The herd is one of the very best in the country, both as individuals and in breeding. In heifers there are seven yearlings, part of them show animals, one two years old, and several calves. In young bulls there are eight, part of which are show animals. All are sired by Old Lancaster (imp.), and the cows are nearly all in calf to him. Anything in the herd is for sale, imported or Canadian-bred. The P. O. address is Moffat, Ont.

MILBURN'S Heart and Nerve Pills.

Are a specific for all heart and nerve troubles. Here are some of the symptoms. Any one of them should be a warning for you to attend to it immediately. Don't delay. Serious breakdown of the system may follow, if you do: Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Dizziness, Palpitation of the Heart, Shortness of Breath, Rush of Blood to the Head, Smothering and Sinking Spells, Faint and Weak Spells, Spasm or Pain through the Heart; Cold, Clammy Hands and Feet. There may be many minor symptoms of heart and nerve trouble, but these are the chief ones.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will dispel all these symptoms from the system.

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25.

WEAK SPELLS CURED.

Mrs. L. Dorey, Hemford, N.S., writes us as follows:—"I was troubled with dizziness, weak spells and fluttering of the heart. I procured a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and they did me so much good that I got two more boxes, and after finishing them I was completely cured. I must say that I cannot recommend them too highly."
